NO. 27

INDEPENDENCE DAY, JULY 4

THE NATION'S BIRTHDAY

Declaration of Independence

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION OF THE THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WHEN in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.—We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,—That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.—He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.—He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.—He has refused to assent to other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless these people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right too estimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.—He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depositories of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.—He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.—He has refused for a long time, after dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.—He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to support others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.—He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.—He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.—He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.—He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our Legislatures.—He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.—He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:—For quartering large bodies of armed

WE, THEREFORE, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES: that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.—And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

WHY BOSTON NEEDS PARKING EXCISE TAX

I. Introduction

The Commonwealth needs a capital city that is financially healthy and independent. Boston needs to expand its revenue base to earn self-sufficiency. The new administration wants to solve the city's fiscal problems so that we can realize its full potential for the thousands who call it home and for the millions who visit every day.

The Facts:

- The city generates millions of dollars annually in state income and sales taxes and in federal income taxes. In return, Boston receives only a percentage of these revenues in various aid packages. Aid from the federal government continues to decline.

- Fifty percent of the city's assessed property valuation is exempt from the property tax.

- Most major U.S. cities levy some form of tax on off-street parking. Pittsburgh, Newark, and San Francisco are among those cities that levy a 15 to 20 percent tax based on parking fees.

- Sixty-four percent of Boston's workforce is made up of nonresidents.

- The city faces a $35-million deficit this year. The parking excise tax is a crucial element in Boston's effort to balance the FY 1985 budget.

- Among the thirty largest U.S. cities, Boston provides a comparatively high percentage of jobs and services to nonresidents.

- Boston needs to modernize its revenue base, and an excise tax on off-street parking is a first and important step in that direction.

II. What Does Boston Mean to Massachusetts?

BOSTON MEANT 339,000 jobs for people who live outside the city in 1982. It meant an overall total of 526,000 jobs, with a total payroll of over $9.5 billion.

Boston holds only 20 percent of the metropolitan area's population, but provides 34 percent of the area's jobs. Statewide, Boston accounts for 10 percent of the population but 19 percent of the Commonwealth's employment.

Boston's employment to population ratio is the second highest among the nation's thirty largest cities. This means that Boston is an unusually rich source of employment for people living outside the city line.

On an average day in 1982, 50,000 people from outside the city shopped in its stores and shops. Another 21,000 visited as tourists or on business.

In 1982, employees who commuted to Boston generated $325.8 million in state income taxes. In 1983, Boston generated approximately $60 million in state sales taxes and $30 million in state meals taxes.

In its combined role as the state's political capital and business and cultural center, Boston is unique among major American cities. New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, and San Francisco are business and cultural centers, but none is its state's capital city.

Boston is proud to be host to state and federal government offices; international banks and medical centers; colleges and universities; the region's international airport; and museums. But it costs a lot of money to provide police, fire, recreational, public works, and other services to this large population of visitors and residents. It also is expensive to offer a good education to tens of thousands of public school students and to deliver good services to all of our over 500,000 residents.

The income and sales taxes collected in Boston go directly to the state, so the city looks elsewhere for the basic financing of the services it provides. The "elsewhere" for Boston is the property tax.

Most of the recent research and writing on municipal finance argues that a city of Boston's size and function needs a broad revenue base. The overwhelming majority of major cities use other revenue sources to finance services.

In FY 1981, the city realized revenues of $494.3 million for the property tax. For FY 1984, that amount is estimated at $333.3 million.

The city's problem is compounded by the fact that tax-exempt institutions comprise approximately 50 percent of its parceled land area. The Commonwealth and six public authorities own 6,460 acres in Boston, or 23 percent of its total land area. The 10 percent of all city land that is occupied by churches, hospitals, and universities is valued at $2.5 billion. The tax-exempt status of these properties deprives the city of the surpluses of tens of millions of dollars in potential revenue.

(Only Massport among these authorities makes in-lieu-of-tax payments to the city; a payment that equals only a small fraction of what they would pay if the property were fully taxable.)

The cuts in federal revenue sharing to cities have further reduced Boston's revenues. In FY 1980, federal revenue sharing totaled $22.5 million. By FY 1983, the figure had slipped to $18 million.

These financial factors combine to put an increasingly heavy burden on the city. The burden forces the city to either drastically cut services or seek to weaken its financial base. Boston must take the latter course for some fundamental reasons.

Boston must spend at a rate that is somewhat higher than other large cities, for two reasons: greater responsibilities and higher cost conditions. A study using 1970 data, Boston was among the top 10 percent among forty-two comparable cities in responsibility for local schools, police, highways, sewers, other sanitation, libraries, corrections, and parks and recreation. Boston also had above-average responsibility in health and hospitals, housing and urban renewal, and parking.

These responsibilities cause the city to spend approximately 2.3 times as much, per capita, as the average, large comparable city.

On average, the thirty largest U.S. cities account for two-fifths of the population in their metropolitan areas. Boston holds only one-fifth of its metropolitan population, indicating that the city provides relatively more services to those outside the city limits.

A narrow revenue base and unusually large responsibilities have created hardship for the city.

Boston must gain access to new revenue sources that will be secure and tough, professional management of the administration.

Mayor Flynn has committed himself to the effort, and needs legislative cooperation to achieve the goal.

III. What Does Boston Need?

BOSTON NEEDS LEGISLATIVE COOPERATION to modernize its tax structure and to strive for a balanced budget.

The city faces a $35-million deficit for fiscal year ended on June 30 of this year. It will face an even larger shortfall at the end of the following fiscal year. The bill needs legislative cooperation, in the form of the bill that is summarized here. This also represents the first step toward planning to control the present and future deficit.

The new revenue realized by this initiative will be insured by tough management and expenditure controls on the city level. In its first few months, the city administration has put some of these controls into place. More are to be actions already taken are:

Over 350 nonessential jobs have been eliminated.

The Traffic and Parking Department has reduced parking ticket processing costs by $1.5 million.

Fifty-one of seventy city agencies have either level-funded or received budget cuts for FY'85. The Mayor's Office experienced an 18 percent budget reduction for a saving of approximately $1,000,000. Seven city agencies were eliminated, and contributed to a net saving of $708,325.

Only those departments that provide essential services were granted budget increases for FY'85.

The city's Real Property Department is taking an aggressive approach to increasing the revenues it raises from commercial properties. The raising of the commercial rents at Faneuil Hall alone should yield $200,000 per year.

The Mayor issued an executive order endorsed by the Boston Finance Commission, that restricts the letting of public, unadvertised contracts. Additionally, the city's director of Administration Services is reviewing all service contracts that have yet to be liquidated. The Rent Equity Board and the Personnel Department have been relocated to City Hall, for an annual saving of $100,000.

The Mayor has depoliticized the administration of the city's finances by hiring aggressive, talented professionals from the private sector.

The city's Budget Office estimates that $1.5 million in additional revenue can be raised by increasing various city service fees.

Summary of Proposed Legislation
House Bill 797 is An Act to Allow Local Option Excise Taxes.

The key feature of the bill is the proposed 15 percent excise tax on off-street parking spaces.

The average commuter pays approximately $5.16 for an off-street space. The 15 percent excise tax would raise much-needed annual revenues in a way that is fair to both residents and nonresidents.

The mechanism, when fully annualized, would produce between $12 million and $15 million for the city.

In March, the joint taxation committee gave the measure an overwhelming vote of approval. It also has the support of the entire Boston delegation and of the Massachusetts Municipal Association.

SCHRAFFT PLANT CLOSES

The Schrafft Candy Company in Charlestown closed its doors on Thursday, May 31, 1984, leaving more than 800 workers jobless. This is the second Charlestown plant to close in the recent past. The Revere Sugar Company closed its doors in early May.

According to company officials, the chocolate producing plant was forced to close due to the decline in candy sales. One official was quoted as saying that health fads have led to limited sugar intakes.

The Revere Sugar Company also closed as a result of declining sugar use, especially by the beverage industry, who in the past were major consumers of sugar.

The Schrafft Candy Company began producing chocolate and other candies in Charlestown in 1928, and has since that time, undergone several management changes.

The company was a family operation for over 100 years before the Gulf and Western Company purchased the financially troubled company.

Gulf and Western, in 1981, sold the plant to American Safety Razor, who presently operate the plant.

Last Thursday, marks the second time in four years that the Schrafft Candy Company has announced closing.

In March, 1981, the then-parent company, Gulf and Western, claimed that a decline in sales forced a decision to close the facility. But rather than close, Gulf and Western sold the plant to American Safety Razor. Schrafft began laying off workers in December, in an attempt to salvage the plant.

Since the layoffs, between 60 to 70 Boston residents have lost their jobs.

The most important issue is the impact of the plant's closing on the many women employed by Schrafft. A vast majority of them are older women without any skills except those of a factory worker. And there is limited work of this nature in Boston.

Despite attempts to find a new owner for the plant, efforts have been made for placement of those who lost their jobs due to the closing of both the Revere Sugar and Schrafft Company plants.

Mayor Ray Flynn has stated that the approximately 350 year-round and 500 seasonal workers will be given job training and placement help at Bunker Hill Community College in an employment program which was established after the Revere Sugar closing.

Mayor Flynn stated that he was confident that a future buyer for the plant will be found who will provide jobs for those left unemployed.

WINNING DESIGN FOR COPLEY SQUARE CHOSEN

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, recently announced the winning designs of the national competition to redesign Copley Square in Boston's Back Bay. First place award went to Dean Abbott of the New York firm of Clarke and Rapauno, Inc., whose design was selected by a distinguished jury from five, second-stage finalists teams.

Second place winners were Krisan Osterby-Benson, Peter Schaudt, Michael R. Van Valkenburgh and John Whiteman of Cambridge, Mass., who chose to associate themselves with Sippican Consultants International, Inc., a design and engineering firm from Cambridge, Mass. The landscape architectural firm of Cooper, Eckstut Associates of New York City, represented by Alexander Cooper and Stanton Eckstut won third place.

Commendations for design excellence were presented to Samuel R. Colpon and Harry L. Dodson of Cambridge, Mass., who chose to associate themselves with Moriece & Gary, Inc., landscape architects also from Cambridge and the SWA Group of Boston, Mass., represented by Thomas A. Adams, Albert R. Lamb III, Michael Sardina, Douglas S. Way, John Wong, Calvin Abe, Ian King, Peter Minuitti, Robert Mulcahy, and Jack Sullivan.

"The winning design by landscape architect Dean Abbott conveys a message that Copley Square is an interaction of neighborhoods; not a symbol or monument," said Mayor Flynn when he presented the award.

Clark and Rapauno, Inc. is one of the oldest landscape, architecture, urban design, and engineering firms in the country. Two projects the firm is currently designing include the Westway State Park and the South Street Seaport, both in New York City.

"Of all the entries, Dean Abbott's design was the most responsive to the competition guidelines, in spirit as well as in details," said William H. Whyte, jury chairman. "It is a fine, clean design, with a nice balance between green and paving. The overall form is quiet, simple and flat."

Robert McCoy, commissioner of the Boston Department of Parks and Recreation, was impressed that the first place design makes use of the existing fountain basin and retains the pagoda trees and the lindens.

Dean Abbott describes his design as "a place for repose and activity; a 'living room' for the community; a front yard for Trinity Church and the Boston Public Library; a place that reaches out to the surrounding city and makes its buildings, people and events part of its composition.

"At the perimeter, uses create an active streetscape while leaving the interior for quieter, more relaxed activities and occasional concerts. Although the design contrasts sharply from the super-scale development evolving around it, it does not try to separate itself. Instead, it reaches out and draws the community to it."

The Copley Square National Design Competition is co-sponsored by the Boston Redevelopment Authority, the Copley Square Centennial Committee, the City of Boston, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and the National Endowment for the Arts/Design Arts Program, Washington, D.C.

The purpose of the competition, according to Robert J. Ryan, was to generate design solutions that will transform an underutilized Copley Square into an accessible, safe, enjoyable, and usable urban space. He said the design chosen reflects a consensus plan developed last year by the Copley Square Centennial Committee through a public participation process that involved a series of community meetings and symposia on the future of the square.

William H. Whyte, chairman of the nine-member jury, said that he was impressed with the research conducted by the Copley Square Centennial Committee. "The winning design was selected because it was most responsive to the request and guidelines of the committee," he continued.

"As jurors, we take the attitude that our work will not have value unless our input effort is sustained," said John Belle a member of the jury. "The attitudes of the users of the space carried as much weight as design with professionals on the jury."

Mayor Flynn commended the jury on their difficult task. "Copley Square is vital to the environment of the Back Bay neighborhood," the Mayor said. "It's a place where our residential neighborhoods intersect with the city's business life. We are grateful to the NEA, the Copley Square Centennial Committee and all the competitors who submitted entries."

The competition was largely funded by a $100,000 grant the BRA received last year from the NEA. The grant is one of two such awards the NEA provides last year as part of its new program to encourage civic design competition.

Michael J. Pittas, director of the Design Arts Program, said, "We feel this to be one of the better-run competitions in the United States. It has provided the people of Boston with high-quality design which, when developed, will result in the enhancement of Copley Square."

Copley Square, a 2.4-acre, public open space, is bordered by two of America's most distinguished buildings; Trinity Church, designed by Henry Hobson Richardson, and the Boston Public Library, designed by McKim, Mead and White. In addition, two of Boston's newest developments, John Hancock Tower and Copley Place Project, are located adjacent to Copley Square. The square provides access to and from these old and new developments and is a focal point for users of the nearby Back Bay and South End neighborhoods.

MAYOR FLYNN ANNOUNCES FLATLEY CO. PURCHASE OF SCHRAFFTS' PLANT

One Thousand New Jobs For Boston Will Be Created

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced on June 15, that the Schrafft's Candy Company, located in Charlestown, has been sold to the Flatley Company of Braintree, Mass. The building will be converted into the first, multi-use, high technology research and development center of its type and size in the country. The $20-million development project when completed will provide 800 to 1,000 jobs for Boston.

Mayor Flynn, who had a direct hand in bringing the Flatley Company to Charlestown, hailed the sale at a press conference in the Eagle Room, saying, "This is an exciting new venture. The project will provide much-needed jobs for the residents of the city, particularly Charlestown residents. I am committed to working with industry in this way, means bringing more jobs and more businesses into our city."

the purchase sale for the former ready factory, which closed last month, for $6 million. Thomas J. Flatley, president of Flatley Company, said he hopes to spend $15 million to convert the 10,000 square foot structure into a plant that would employ people in semiskilled jobs. "We hope, when we are finished, that we have up to fifteen different companies," said Mr. Flatley. The plant will employ semi-skilled workers between $5 and $6 an hour. I am also confident that my company can contribute to the job training for Boston residents, particularly Charlestown residents who may wish to work here." Mr. Flatley added, "The present administration in this city has made the climate very desirable for us to locate here. Mayor Flynn is committed to working harmoniously with industry and with people in the neighborhoods. The product is more jobs. I will also work to make sure that the majority of the jobs created here go to the residents of the city."

The Flatley Company, which has located its other business successfully elsewhere in the city, plans to maintain the architectural structure and unique character of the five-acre facility in Charlestown. The company also plans to continue working closely with the administration as the development progresses, and jobs are created.

Mayor Flynn concluded, "The most important element in keeping a community together is jobs. If the jobs are there, housing will follow. I welcome the Flatley Company, and I hope other businesses will follow their lead."

NEW ROAD RACE COMING TO BOSTON

The Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge makes its New England debut at 7 p.m. on Thursday, July 19, at Boston Common. The 3.5-mile run is open to full-time employees of corporations, trade, educational, financial and government institutions. All entry fees from the race will benefit the New England Athletic Congress and running clubs throughout the New England region.

The Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge originated in New York City in 1977 with just 200 runners from 10 companies. Since that time, the race has experienced nationwide growth and acclaim. In 1983, some 40,000 runners, representing over 2,000 companies, participated in races in ten cities across the United States. With the addition of Boston as the newest race site, the Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge roster now includes races in twelve major cities.

Fred Lebow, president of the New York Road Runners Club and spokesperson for the Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge, called Boston "one of the country's prime centers of running enthusiasm." He said, "The Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge will do very well in New England. As a large portion of the business community is also active in the running community, the series is a natural one for the area."

Barbara Paddock, assistant vice-president of marketing and director of special events at Manufacturers Hanover, noted that "these races provide companies with a great outlet; they are an opportunity for employees to get involved in out-of-office, non-business competition with each other and with other firms. The Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge puts CEOs and mailboys, marathon veterans and first-time runners on equal footing."

Manufacturers Hanover is among the corporate leaders in promoting and sponsoring special events geared toward competitive active lifestyles. Some of the events supported by Manufacturers Hanover are the New York Marathon, the Children's Safari Runs, the Brooklyn Half-Marathon, the Lilac 10K Race, the $500,000 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic (a premier event on the Professional Golf Association Tour), the Metropolitan Athletic Congress indoor and outdoor track series, and the Manufacturers Hanover Mighty Hamptons Triathlon.

Participants in the Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge enter through a corporate team captain and are grouped into three- to five-person men's, women's or coed competitive teams after the race. Companies may enter any number of participants; there is a $3 entry fee per runner. Souvenirs will be presented to all finishers, awards will be given to the first place male, female, and CEO finishers, and the top five men's, women's and coed teams will attend a reception in their honor about ten days after the race. The first place men's, women's and coed teams from each city will be flown to New York in November to compete in the Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge Championship on Wall Street. Airfare will be provided by Pan American World Airways; accommodations will be provided at the Sheraton Centre, courtesy of Sheraton Hotels.

Entry forms are available at City Record Office. For further information, write Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge, c/o Conventures, Inc., 45 Newbury Street, Boston, MA 02116, or call (617) 267-0055.

LAND BANK PRELIMINARY APPROVAL TO MATTAPAN PROJECT

At its June 7 board meeting, the Massachusetts Government Land Bank granted preliminary approval to 1111-1115 Blue Hill Avenue in Mattapan, a mixed-use building located on the major commercial artery in that community. The four stories consist of twelve housing units and two commercial spaces.

Jeffrey A. Simon, Land Bank's executive director, commented: "Although it came in under our Tax Delinquent Housing Program, this project meets the goals of our new 'Buildings of Importance' Program. Designed to encourage commercial and mixed-use developments, this program is aimed at rehabs, such as Blue Hill Avenue, which generate additional economic activity and catalyze further development."

This project will accomplish both goals since the property is located in a neighborhood which has undergone a substantial degree of abandonment and demolition in the past. According to Project Manager Kathleen Hogan, the Land Bank's low-interest mortgage will be in the amount of $293,000—$100,000 is being committed under Boston's Neighborhood Commercial Development Bank program and $90,000 under its Abandoned Housing Initiative Program.

Total costs are expected to be $428,000. The developer, a real estate trust made up of Pierre St. Louis and Gaston Simon, will contribute $45,000 in equity. The tax foreclosed building was acquired at a City of Boston auction.

LEADERS PROGRAM OFFERS $200,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

For the tenth, straight year, more than $200,000 in scholarships is available through the Century III Leaders program to college-bound, high school seniors throughout the country.

Seniors with records of exceptional school and community involvement, as well as outstanding leadership skills, should contact their high school principals starting in mid-September to obtain an application. The entry deadline for the 1984-85 program is October 22, 1984. (General information is available by writing Century III Leaders, P.O. Box 33008, Washington, D.C., 20033.)

"I entered the Century III Leaders program for the scholarship money which could help pay for my college education," said Lillian Oshva, one of two New Jersey state winners last year, "but the rewards which I gained from this program were much greater than I could have imagined, and far exceeded the money incentive."

Century III Leaders is funded by the Shell Companies Foundation and sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals, which represents more than 34,000 secondary school administrators. The program is designed to inspire America's youth to become involved in community and social issues, to assume leadership roles, and to explore their responsibilities as adults.

The 1984-85 competition will get under way at the high school level in mid-September. Students are judged on their leadership abilities, school and community activities and awareness of current events.

After completing the application and preparing a "Projection for Innovative Leadership" on a particular challenge facing the nation in its third century, each applicant will take a current events exam. School winners advance to the state level where the top contenders are interviewed by a selection committee. Then two winners and two runners-up are named in each state and the District of Columbia. Each winner receives a $1,500 scholarship and an all-expense-paid trip to the national Century III Leaders conference in Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia. Runners-up at the state level each receive a $500 scholarship.

While in Williamsburg, Century III Leaders hear noted national speakers and participate in seminars and discussion groups. They develop recommendations on specific problems which are forwarded to the White House. Former President Gerald Ford delivered the opening night address at the 1984 conference.

"The Century III Leaders national conference has been, without any question, the greatest experience of my life," comments Eric M. Sherman, one of two West Virginia state winners in 1984.

At the conclusion of the weekend conference, one national winner and nine runners-up are announced. The winner receives a $10,000 college scholarship while each of the other nine receives an additional $500.

All state finalists and runners-up become members of the Century III Leaders Alumni program. In addition to receiving a newsletter, alumni may apply for grants of up to $5,000 to underwrite either post-graduate study or research in a public service agency (beginning in their senior year of college). This year, up to six such grants will be awarded.

LOWER MILLS EIGHTY NEW RENTAL UNITS

A public/private partnership, involving the Massachusetts Government, Land Bank and BayBank Harvard Trust will jointly share a first mortgage for rehabilitation of the Pierce and Prentiss Mills, the former Baker Chocolate plant complex in Dorchester Lower Mills.

Chief announcement came at the Land Bank's June 7 board meeting. Over $6 million will create eighty affordable rental units which are being developed by Lower Mills Associates II. General Partner Robert H. Kuehn, Jr. commented: "Baker Chocolate is really a model of what can be accomplished through cooperation between the private and public sectors — which in this case includes the city (NDEA), state (Land Bank), and federal (UDAG) governments."

Land Bank Executive Director, Jeffrey A. Simon added: "The recycling of the Pierce and Preston Mills meets an urgent need for affordable housing in Boston. The Land Bank has over $3 million in the Baker Chocolate Mills revitalization plan, which will have created about 140 apartments upon completion of Phase II."

In addition to the $4 million shared second mortgages, the $6 million development costs for Phase II will be financed through an Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) second mortgage for $1 million and $210,000 in syndicated proceeds, according to Kathleen O'Leary, Land Bank project manager.

CRIME CONTINUES TO DECLINE ON THE MBTA

MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary and T Police Chief William Bratton announced that reported incidents of crime on the MBTA for the month of May 1984, were down 37.1 percent from May of 1983.

As the first anniversary of Governor Dukakis' MBTA Anti-Crime Program approaches, the crime statistics for May 1984, are a clear indicator of the success of that coordinated program," said MBTA General Manager O'Leary.

A total of 115 so-called Part One crimes (homicides, rape, robbery, assault, etc.) reported in May represents the lowest one-month total in the fifteen-year history of the MBTA Police Department and were down significantly from 183 incidents reported in May of 1983. Particularly significant, was the fact that crime was down on all lines including a 44 percent decline on the Orange Line, 22 percent on the Red Line, 36 percent on the Blue Line and 38 percent on the Green. With the exception of assaults, which rose by four incidents (twenty-nine to thirty-three), crime is down in every category. Robberies and larcenies (pickpocket incidents) were at the lowest reported level ever.

While crime has been down, arrests on the MBTA have gone up. "This is no aberration," said Chief Bratton. "Each month during the past year, crime has gone down while the number of arrests have been up."

O'Leary and Bratton attributed the decline principally to the reorganization and redirection of the T Police Department outlined in the Governor's Anti-Crime Package.

Still pending before the State Legislature is a bill that includes stiffer penalties for assaulting MBTA employees; defacing MBTA stations, platforms, trains, buses, etc.; smoking on MBTA vehicles; and using radio, phonograph or tape recorders on the MBTA.

The department has utilized a variety of patrol strategies designed to increase officer visibility and activity, making maximum use also of a newly marked vehicle fleet. This effort includes crime analysis directed patrols, fare evasion/visibility units, gang suppression squads, and plain clothes, anti-crime unit teams. New crime analysis techniques allow the department to respond more quickly to developing crime trends and the addition of thirty-nine new officers over the last year permit maximum assignment of police resources to problem areas.

IV. COMMENDATIONS

On April 14, 1984, at approximately 1352 hours, Arson Squad Investigators Frank Barresi, Jerry Smith, and Photographer Michael King were doing surveillance of fire alarm boxes in an area in which numerous false alarms had been received. During said surveillance, the above-named did observe Box 2429 being pulled by an individual for no apparent reason. This individual was immediately apprehended and taken to Area E Police Station for booking where he was held to await his parents before being released pending a probable cause hearing in West Roxbury Court.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend Arson Investigators Frank Barresi, Jerry Smith, and Photographer Michael King for their dedication to a problem that plagues all fire departments and recommends that this commendation become a permanent part of their personnel records.

On May 14, 1984, at 0209 hours, the Rescue Company responded to the Congress Street Bridge for a man threatening to jump into the Fort Point Channel.

Upon arrival, Fire Fighter Leo Stapleton attempted to calm the man while Fire Fighters John Collins and Cornelius Keane donned survival suits. Shortly thereafter the victim jumped into the channel. Fire Fighters Collins and Keane immediately went to the rescue, encountering all hazards in common with waterfront incidents. Fire Fighter Keane was forced to leave the water due to an injury received while attempting the rescue. Fire Fighter Collins swam about three-quarters of a mile to reach the victim and persuaded him to come ashore with his assistance. Both victim and Fire Fighter Collins were in the water approximately forty-five minutes.

Because Fire Fighters John Collins and Cornelius Keane of Rescue Company performed this rescue without regard for their own safety, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend both members and makes the commendation a part of their personnel record.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

Thermometers, Chargers, etc.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to be by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Chesebrough-Pond's Inc., Hospital Products Division, Greenwich, CT 06830—1 percent net 30 days, FOB destination the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1985, cost not to exceed $35,000.

Under this contract Chesebrough-Pond's Inc. will supply Boston City Hospitals with 31 FILAC electronic thermometers, chargers, oral and rectal probes and six locks, and Long Island Hospital would be supplied with 12 FILAC 1010 electronic thermometers, chargers and accessories, in full charge. Chesebrough-Pond's, Inc. will maintain the equipment and replace defective instruments at no cost to the city. Each month 28,000 probe covers will be shipped to Boston City Hospital and 10,000 probe covers will be shipped to Long Island Hospital. The price of the probe covers would remain the 1982 price of $36 per thousand for two years.

Chesebrough-Pond's, Inc. was the low bidder on the publicly advertised contract for fiscal year 1983. Because a change of vendor for this item would require an in depth evaluation and a period of service training for both hospitals, because the vendor will maintain the present price for an two years and because the cost, in my opinion, reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT Various Library Materials

Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the Boston Public Library of the City of Boston, I am respectfully requesting your approval to award a contract, without advertising, to the Trustees of the Boston Public Library of the City of Boston, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, (See St. 1878, c. 114), for the purchase of and certain other library bibliographical action materials for the period June 1, 1983, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $281,497. The Trustees of the Boston Public Library will purchase books and other library materials for the Boston Public Library on the basis of offers submitted to them by book publishers and dealers. The prices of the items to be purchased and the fluctuating prices thereof, as well as in the desired quantities thereof, do not lend themselves to public

During the first nine months of FY83, the Boston Public Library tried to purchase books under a new policy established by the City Auditor's Office under which fourteen book publishers and dealers selected by the library were issued nonadvertising fixed-end contracts. Five of these book publishers either did not have the books ordered by the library, of titles needed were not published by them, and could not be purchased, unless bought directly from the publisher.

Therefore, the library is now requesting that a contract be established between the City of Boston Library Department (Official) and the Trustees of the Public Library of the City of Boston (Contractor) in the amount of $281,497. This amount is available from the State Aid to Libraries for 1983. The contract will allow the purchase of library books and materials from publishers and dealers that can supply the required titles and quantities. In the past, the library book purchasing operation involved over 3,000 individual book supply companies, and this supply network is still needed.

This contract has been discussed with the Law Department and the City Auditor and has been agreed to as an acceptable approach to this unique purchasing situation.

The Trustees of the Boston Public Library will abide by the City of Boston contract procedures to the extent possible and this contract will have no effect on competition among book vendors.

In view of the circumstances outlined above, public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

With the award of this contract, the Trustees of the Boston Public Library will now be able to order books and library materials from the main supply source and the general public needs and interests will be served more efficiently.

Respectfully,
By Philip J. McNiff,
Director and Librarian.

For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

MAYOR FLYNN SIGNS FY '85 BUDGET

"Boston has cut spending, now State Government has to cooperate."

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, on June 24, announced the signing of the Fiscal 1985 budget, saying, "We have created a tight and honest budget for this city, which cuts nonessential spending and streamlines the delivery of basic services."

"We cut spending in the Mayor's Office by 18 percent while providing necessary increases in the public safety departments. Two-thirds of all city departments are either level-funded or had their budgets reduced."

The Mayor also said, "We believe we have done a good job in creating a budget that will streamline government. Now we need the cooperation and assistance from the state to guarantee a balanced budget."

The Mayor pointed out that the city needs help to modernize its tax base and achieve financial independence. Unlike most major U.S. cities, Boston relies almost exclusively on the property tax to finance basic services. Fifty percent of Boston's assessed valuation is tax-exempt. The city is second only to Washington, D.C. in percentage of its land that is tax-exempt.

Boston also provides a comparatively greater share of services to nonresidents than do other major cities. Nonresidents hold 64 percent of the city's jobs. The city comprises only 20 percent of the metropolitan area's population, but provides 34 percent of its jobs. It comprises only 10 percent of the state's population and 19 percent of all its jobs.

Mayor Flynn said, "We're proud to be the hub of the region and to be its cultural, educational, and business center. But the role forces us to provide a wide range of basic services to millions of visitors. To achieve a balanced budget in this city, to free us from annual fiscal crises, we need to expand the tax base."

"The budget we have created, and which the City Council has approved, is the first step in a plan to keep this city fiscally healthy. We now look to our state leaders to take this step with us. A healthy Hub is in everyone's interest."

"We are doing our part, as is demonstrated by our effort on the budget. We believe that in the coming weeks others will appreciate these efforts and join us in plans to attain a healthy and independent Boston."

The fiscal year began on July 1.

MAYOR FLYNN KICKS OFF SUMMER YOUTH PROGRAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, on June 24, kicked off the city's summer youth programs with a press conference at the West End House in Allston. The Mayor also introduced members of the city's Youth Cabinet which has been established to coordinate youth services in Boston.

Mayor Flynn said, "Our city's greatest resource is our children. To develop their potential as productive citizens, we must work hard in their interests. I am committed to doing that. My Youth Cabinet will coordinate the city's approach to youth and develop a greater working cooperation between city departments and the hundreds of agencies in our neighborhoods already providing many of the needed programs for our youth."

The Mayor highlighted some of the city's programs for youths this summer, including the very popular Boston Neighborhood Basketball League (BNBL) with over 3,000 participants to the all new All City Youth League for serious baseball players aged sixteen to nineteen. Other Boston summer recreation activities include U.S. Youth Games, Hershey Games and the Pepsi-Hot Shots, who provided a live demonstration at the West End House at the opening of the programs.

Mayor Flynn also noted that with the end of school comes the need for summer jobs for youth. "Faced with a decline in federal funds," said the Mayor, "we must work harder to create job opportunities for city kids. Through our work with the Private Industry Council, we are attempting to address the need. However, we are still 200 jobs short of our goal of 1,500 for this summer." The Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) also provides funding for 2,500 summer jobs. These jobs are available for teens between the ages of fourteen and nineteen.

The Community Schools Summer Pools Program opened on July 2nd. All eighteen pools in the neighborhoods of the city will be opened this year, run by the Community Schools and the Parks and Recreation Department. The Mayor's Public Facilities Commission approved $135,000 to be allocated to the Summer Pool Program. The cost of the pool program will be reimbursed to the city from the profits made at the Concerts on the Common. The Community Schools will also offer preschool and after school daycare to over 400 families during the summer months.

The Mayor added, "An important part of summer youth programs will be to help the many youths who feel they are on the fringe of society. They are hard to reach, but through a coordinated effort by the city and the many community outreach programs, they don't have to be hard to serve."

This summer, the city will be hiring several street youth workers to provide counseling, advocacy, and intervention. The city will be working closely with the Department of Health and Hospitals and the Boston Public Schools to reach youths troubled by substance abuse, teen pregnancy, and depression.

Speaking on the Youth Cabinet, Mayor Flynn said, "The goal will be to advocate for youth. The Youth Cabinet will work to strengthen the public/private partnership existing between the city, private foundations, and the many multi-service groups working for youth. It will work to break down barriers within and between neighborhoods so that the youth of our city can have a firsthand knowledge of the richness and diversity of Boston's residents.

"Finally," said the Mayor, "the Youth Cabinet will go into the neighborhoods and find out what our youths are thinking, what they need, and will come up with creative solutions to their very important problems. Working together we can improve opportunities for our young people and prospects for Boston's future."

MAYOR HONORS ADULT LITERACY STUDENTS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, on June 20, hosted an "Achievement Ceremony" to honor participants of Boston's Adult Literacy Initiative. Over 1,200 adults, ranging from twenty-two to sixty-five, have been served since the initiative was launched last June. By September 1, 1984, nearly half the participants will have achieved their educational goals and seventy-five students will have completed the External Diploma Program and received the Adult Diploma issued by the Boston Public Schools.

Sponsored by the city's Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) the initiative grew out of efforts to address the needs of the functionally illiterate adult population in Boston. One hundred thousand Boston adults have not completed high school and it is estimated that an equal number are functionally illiterate, possessing fifth-grade level reading, writing and computation skills. Recognizing the inherent link between undereducation and unemployment, the NDEA responded by committing $1 million of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds for the Adult Literacy Initiative. The initiative has improved and expanded the capacity of adult basic education provision citywide, while connecting the programs to the existing employment and training system.

In awarding "Certificates of Achievement" to the participants the Mayor said, "We are here to honor these adults who have pursued with such enthusiasm and persistence the advancement of their personal educational goals. We wish to express our gratitude to these citizens for their efforts which will enrich the City of Boston."

The Mayor also recognized the staff and volunteer personnel of the neighborhood-based learning centers and the Resource Institute saying, "The success of the Adult Literacy Initiative in its first year is a clear example of what a concentrated community effort can accomplish."

Designed to provide a grass-roots approach, fourteen neighborhood-based learning centers carry out educational programs serving approximately 1,000 adults annually. These neighborhood-based centers are aided by a Resource Institute, jointly operated by U Mass/

Boston and Roxbury Community College. The educational range and level taught at the centers attempt to be broad while the curriculum is specifically tailored to serve all of the students' individual needs. Students are seen through individual contracts based on what they want to learn. Of the four neighborhood center programs, some offer English as a Second Language (ESL) courses and seven offer the External Diploma Programs (EDP). Courses offered throughout the city include Adult Basic Education (ABE), occupationally focused reading and math courses, and classes concentrating on job readiness, management, and problem-solving skills.

Mrs. George Bush, on hand for the ceremony, cited Boston's initiative as "a national model with its grass-roots approach designed to provide an accessible, flexible, occupationally focused education." Mrs. Bush commended the success of the Boston Adult Literacy Initiative and said, "I offer my congratulations to all the students and staff of the initiative. The accomplishments in this first year demonstrate that cities can successfully address the problem of adult functional illiteracy on the local level."

NDEA Director Paul Grogan discussed the inherent link between education and employment citing that "Over 50 percent of those students who have finished their learning contracts went on to full- and part-time subsidized employment. Another 25 percent of the students having finished their contracts went on to pursue more advanced educational programs; others opted to enter into vocational educational programs." Grogan added that Boston's changing labor market demands a more highly educated level worker. "The Adult Literacy Initiative is especially significant as it directly relates to the growth and potential of Boston's present and future workforce."

An indication of this project's importance is the strength of its support from other key institutions and agencies. During its first year the initiative has received support and endorsement from the Boston Housing Authority, the Permanent Charity Fund, the Boston Private Industry Council, and the Boston Public Schools.

MAYOR FLYNN HOSTS RECEPTION FOR VOLUNTEERS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, on June 1, hosted an appreciation event and reception for neighborhood volunteers, workers, business people, and contributors who participated in the city's Spring Clean-Up campaign the fantastic success that it want to personally thank everyone who participated in the neighborhood clean-ups," said Mayor Flynn. "The enthusiastic response from the people in the neighborhoods, local business people, community organizations, city workers, the clergy, schools, colleges, universities demonstrates once again what can be accomplished with the resources and a lot of determination."

Mayor Flynn said that cleaning the city and keeping it clean are priorities of administration. In Phase I of the clean-up, every neighborhood of the city was spruced up. Phase II is now in progress. It includes a variety of ongoing projects dealing with:

Enforcement. A working committee of city departments is involved in developing a legislative package to strengthen anti-dumping laws and provide incentives for the reporting of dumping;

Securing vacant lots. By mid-July, telephone poles donated by utilities will be used with additional resources provided by the state to fence off and protect vacant lots from dumping.

Community Garden Sites. Residents of the neighborhoods who want open sites will be given city property to maintain. The state will provide, through the Agricultural Land Use legislation, top soil, seeds, other equipment, and expertise.

- Pilot Program. In May, 1985, a pilot program will be set up encompassing five neighborhoods for sweeping and enforcement programs. The long-range goal will encompass the entire city.

"The spirit that united and mobilized the citizens of Boston," said the Mayor, "with city departments, proves true the theme of this campaign: 'Boston Won't Stand for Any Garbage.' We can all take pride in cleaner streets and a renewed commitment to keep them that way."

MBTA ADOPTS AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM

The MBTA has adopted a far-reaching affirmative action program containing more than sixty-five new procedures for recruiting, training and promoting employees. The sweeping changes are contained in a report that was prepared internally and released to the public in June.

The steps to be taken are designed to increase the presence of minorities and women at the T, but many of the benefits extend to all employees. In broad terms the steps include:

- New hiring procedures, including greatly expanded outreach efforts;
- Better procedures for posting vacancies and promoting employees;
- A comprehensive training program with particular attention to the needs of minority and female employees;
- Scrutiny of union contracts for hiring impediments;
- Stronger monitoring of outside contractors for compliance with affirmative action goals.

"The MBTA has made great progress since the T's first affirmative action program in 1976," said State Transportation Secretary Frederick P. Salvucci. "We have gone from 6 percent minority employment to 18 percent today. However, that is a record to be built upon, not to be satisfied with, which is why we are redoubling our commitment today."

The report was prepared by a subcommittee of the MBTA Board of Directors, which accepted the findings and adopted the recommendations. The subcommittee, headed by Board Member Melissa Tillman of Boston, spent five months analyzing data, interviewing and surveying employees, and meeting with interested citizens and elected officials.

"Our research shows that while the MBTA has improved access and opportunity for employment, some groups, particularly Hispanics, women and poor people, are still under-represented in certain job categories," said Tillman. "Our recommendations point the way toward making continued progress."

The subcommittee, which also includes Board members William Irvin of Melrose and Judith Robbins of Attleboro, will remain intact as a standing committee to explore new areas for improving affirmative action at the T.

LIBRARY TRUSTEES DESIGNER SELECTION COMMITTEE

Kevin F. Moloney, president of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Public Library, has announced the appointment of the Designer Selection Committee for the McKim Building program.

This committee will make recommendations to the Board of Trustees of the finalists from architectural firms which have submitted proposals for the architectural/engineering renovation of the McKim Building. From these finalists recommended by the Design Selection Committee, the Board of Trustees will select the firm to carry out the restoration. Named to this important assignment are: Mr. Thomas M. Payette, FAIA, president of the Boston Society of Architects; Robert K. Daigle, P.E., newly elected president, Massachusetts Society of Professional Engineers, Inc.; Victor E. Hagan, associate director of the Public Facilities Department of the City of Boston; John J. Doherty, assistant director, Boston Public Library; and Kevin F. Moloney, who will serve as chairperson.

Constructed in 1895, the McKim Building which fronts on Copley Square is preeminent among American edifices. Author Henry James once spoke of "its amplitude of wing and its splendor of tawny marble." Walter H. Kilham, fellow of the American Institute of Architects, said of the Library that it was "superbly designed, beautifully built, an aristocrat among buildings, and unquestionably a masterpiece of American architecture." It is expected that the construction cost of Phase One of this significant renovation will cost in the vicinity of $11 million.

MBTA's NEW FOREST HILLS STATION

State Transportation Secretary Frederick P. Salvucci and MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary, on June 22, joined other state, federal, MBTA and local officials in a ceremonial groundbreaking for the MBTA's Forest Hills Station, the rapid transit terminus of the $747-million, 4.7-mile Southwest Corridor Project.

Salvucci said the groundbreaking for the $36.7-million station represents a significant milestone in the cooperative effort to provide the neighborhoods within an area once planned for highway construction with substantial public transportation improvements and development opportunities.

"The construction of this new station at Forest Hills marks the culmination of a commitment to redevelop Boston's Southwest Corridor, an area that encompasses one-quarter of the city's population," Salvucci said. "More than $2 billion in public and private funds has been invested in this project which, in turn, has provided thousands of construction and related jobs and a significant boost to the economy of the Commonwealth."

Among the invited guests present or represented at the groundbreaking were U.S. Representative John Joseph Moakley; MBTA Board Member Melissa A. Tillman; State Senator Arthur Lewis; State Representative James Craven; Richard Doyle, regional administrator of the Federal Urban Mass Transportation Administration; and City Councilors Michael J. McCormack and Thomas Menino, as well as many other elected and community leaders.

The Southwest Corridor Project, the largest single construction project in Boston's history, includes the relocation of the Orange Line, plus Commuter Rail and Amtrak improvements, construction of an 85-acre Parkland, reconstruction of streets and bridges and creation of development parcels. Opening of the new line is projected for late 1986.

O'Leary, noting the long-term commitment of Governor Michael S. Dukakis to the project, said the Forest Hills Station will be the most active of the nine stations being constructed.

"The new Forest Hills Station will be a multi-modal facility and a major transfer point for Orange Line, Arborway Green Line, Commuter Rail, and bus passengers," O'Leary said, adding that the station was designed to enable passengers to transfer between various modes as quickly and efficiently as possible. O'Leary noted that of an approximate 5,560 peak-hour boardings projected for the new station, 63 percent will be from ninety buses operating on fifteen routes that terminate at Forest Hills.

O'Leary also commended the extensive community participation process that took place during the station's design phase, saying, "significant MBTA efforts were made to ensure that the new station would be a source of pride for the Jamaica Plain community as well as to provide modern, efficient, public transportation service."

MBTA Board Member Melissa Tillman cited the station's potential for bringing improvements and economic development to the Jamaica Plain community.

"The new Forest Hills Station will provide a major incentive for revitalization here, as will all the new stations being constructed in the several neighborhoods within the Southwest Corridor Project," she said. "This is an exciting period of growth in the history of Jamaica Plain and the other areas within the Southwest Corridor."

The new Forest Hills Station is a Victorian-style structure designed to recall the spirit and grandeur of the original Forest Hills Railroad Station, while complementing the surrounding business and residential areas. It will feature a canopy lobby and bus waiting areas, highlighted by two, large, intersection skylights over the major circulation areas. A major feature of the station will be a clock tower that will rise out of the station's center and serve as a community focal point. The station will provide easy access to the handicapped, and will include a variety of security features. Parking for 175 cars will be provided.

The station will be set back from the surrounding street network in a park that will serve as the entrance to the 85-acre Southwest Corridor Parkland, being constructed along the entire corridor from Forest Hills to the South End/Back Bay. The Southwest Corridor Parkland is intended to provide a vital link to Boston's major parks, including the Arnold Arboretum, Franklin Park and to recreate the Emerald Necklace park system envisioned by Frederick Law Olmsted nearly a century ago.

The Forest Hills Station was signed by the joint venture of the bridge Seven Associates, Inc. and Robert L. Wilson, AIA. It is being constructed by the joint venture of White Contracting Co., Morrison-Iensen, and Mergentime Corporation.

ABCD OFFERS CHEF-TRAINING PROGRAM

If you are interested in a career as a chef or caterer, ABCD may have a program for you. For more than 1,400 low-income people, the ABCD Chef Training Program has meant a top job in the culinary industry. One graduate of the program started her own catering business. Another opened a luncheonette. A sixty-year-old graduate began work three years ago at a salary of $350 a week, room and board included.

Instructed by Chef Dominic Rea, former chef of Boston's Ritz-Carlton Hotel, the Chef-Training Program offers a fourteen-week intensive course ten times a year. The Parker House Hotel donates their renovated rooming kitchen for classes. The program is open to low-income people aged eighteen and up, who have completed seventh grade. After graduation, students receive the diploma of sous-chef, the level before executive chef.

ABCD Executive Director Robert Coard points out that the Chef-Training Program is an important part of ABCD's interrelated network of programs that offer a ladder out of poverty. "Through the Chef-Training Program hundreds of low-income people, many of whom did not finish high school, have had the opportunity to build meaningful lives," he said, "We are grateful for Chef Rea's talent and dedication, and for the donation of space by the Parker House. In the program's early days it was housed at the Sheraton-Boston. This kind of cooperation between local business and agencies like ours can make a difference in people's lives."

Students attend classes from Monday to Friday, from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. They study sanitation, the tools of the trade, sauces and gravies, culinary techniques, freezing and other culinary subjects.

of Renda provides careful supervision as students cook a wide range of appetizers, entrees and desserts. The program is in a real-world milieu, which includes preparing and serving fifteen-course luncheons for guests. Students complete approximately two hours of homework each night. They receive a stipend to cover expenses. A major strength of the Chef-Training Program is its placement policy. Though Chef Renda's initiative and standing collaboration with area restaurants, almost every student receives an excellent job upon graduation. Starting salaries average $300 a week in hotels, restaurants, country clubs, nursing homes, resorts, and colleges, all over the country. The ABCD Chef-Training Program is comparable to the finest cooking schools in this country," Chef Renda said. "But its costs are much lower. Similar private programs cost a student more than $10,000 a year." Chef Renda noted that the ABCD program serves as a model for similar programs throughout the country. "RECREATION-ON-WHEELS" COMING TO BOSTON NEIGHBORHOODS

Commissioner Robert R. McCoy, of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, is pleased to announce the reinstitution of the popular summer program, "Rec-on-Wheels." This brightly colored van will roll into two city blocks each day, Monday through Friday. The program began on Monday, July 2. "The Recreation-on-Wheels is staffed by recreation specialists and offers morning sessions from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., and afternoon sessions from 1 to 4 p.m., at two different grounds each day. The staff will organize neighborhood games and supervise them in games, sports, petitions, arts and crafts and a variety of special events. Because there are so few, free, outdoor activities for Boston's young people, it is extremely necessary to provide recreational programming and supplies in every neighborhood in Boston," said Dorothy Curran. Recreation-on-Wheels is an exciting program that proved to be a great success last summer.

Schedules for Recreation-on-Wheels can be obtained by contacting the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, Room 816, Boston City Hall or by calling 725-4006.

NOTIFY MAIL SOURCES BEFORE YOU MOVE

Notifying friends and other mail sources at least a month before you move will help insure prompt receipt of correspondence and save post offices thousands of dollars in processing costs, the U. S. Postal Service said today.

More than twelve million American households changed their mailing addresses last year alone, producing more than three billion pieces of mail that were undeliverable as addressed. The cost of extra handling required for forwarding that mail was more than $300 million, the Postal Service said.

Postal authorities say advance change of address notification would significantly reduce the number of pieces of "moved mail" currently handled by the Postal Service. Notifying publishers and businesses a month in advance of your move allows them to reflect the new address in their next mailing cycle.

It can also mean avoiding service charges on bills and timely receipt of magazines or newspapers, the Postal Service said.

A simple, eight-part Change of Address Kit, available free from letter carriers and post offices, speeds change of address notification, the Postal Service said. Each kit contains seven Notice to Correspondents and Publisher cards and one Change of Address Order card for the post office.

MAYOR FLYNN HOSTS FORUM ON SEXUAL ASSAULT; INTRO- DUCES MEMBERS OF THE NEW SEXUAL ASSAULT TEAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, on June 27, held a citywide meeting, at the Boston Public Library in Copley Square, to introduce members of the Boston Police Department's new Sexual Assault Unit. The new team and the Mayor also listened to and addressed concerns from the audience on the issue of sexual assault.

Mayor Flynn said, "With the recent news of the rapes in Allston-Brighton, members of the new team have been combing the area to gather further information which could lead to an apprehension. We also know that one of the victims was afraid to report the rape, but did so when her request to speak with a female officer was able to be granted immediately.

"The new unit," the Mayor continued, "which went into operation on July 1st, is composed of six men and six women. With this specially trained unit, we will be able to deal more effectively and sensitively with sexual violence in the city. The unit also includes four minority personnel, with one Chinese and one Spanish-speaking officer."

The purpose of the meeting was twofold. "We wanted to open up dialogue between the community and the Police Department," the Mayor explained. "We want to hear suggestions so we can work together to best protect the people of Boston from sexual crimes. We also want to make it clear that once the new unit is out there and operating, we will be taking more cases to court."

In addition to investigating criminal cases, the unit will work with the District Attorney in prosecuting offenders and will educate the community, especially schoolchildren, on the dangers of sexual assault and the methods of protection.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

76 MONDAY, JULY 16, 1984

NO. 29

MAYOR OPENS SUMMER POOL PROGRAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn on July 2, 1984, officially opened the Community Schools Summer Pools Program for this summer. All thirteen Community School swimming pools will be open full time from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m., every day.

Mayor Flynn said, "I am very pleased that the $135,000 needed to open and operate our pools this summer has been raised through the joint cooperation of the Fund for Boston Neighborhoods, Inc. and the city's Public Facilities Department. It means the kids in our neighborhoods will have a place to keep cool and keep happy. That is going to make many of their parents very happy."

The Mayor continued, "It is only with the assistance of the city departments and this private funding source that such a valuable summer pool program can continue." The funds committed to the summer pool program will enable the Boston Community Schools to extend their various swimming programs which are offered during the winter months, all year long.

Lawrence Dwyer, director of the Community Schools, added, "The money provided by the Fund for Boston Neighborhoods, Inc. will permit the full-time operation of thirteen neighborhood swimming pools across the city. Over 130,000 Boston students will have the opportunity to participate in swimming lessons, camp programs, water safety instruction and specialized swims for seniors, children, and families as a result of this donation."

The $135,000 has been funded by the Miller High Life Concert on the Common. Profits from the concerts will go to the Fund for Boston Neighborhoods, Inc., which will then fund the Community Schools Summer Pool Program. The operation of the swimming pools for this summer will be at no expense to city taxpayers.

Rosemarie Sansone, director of the Mayor's Office of Business and Cultural Development and president of the Fund for Boston Neighborhoods, Inc., noted, "The Fund Directors are very pleased to see a portion of the concert proceeds directed to the Community Schools program. There are many people whose cooperation has made this possible. The efforts of the sponsors, Miller Brewing, WBZ, and the Boston Herald are greatly appreciated."

"Further," said Ms. Sansone, "the fund is grateful to the city, the Public Facilities Department, and the Community Schools Program. The fund welcomes the opportunity to provide needed resources to ensure the continued summer operation of this very important recreational activity for Boston's residents."

MAYOR FLYNN BEGINS NEIGHBORHOOD BEAUTIFICATION

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that $844,020 will be spent from the Edward Ingersoll Browne Fund to pay for fourteen beautification and historic restoration projects in Boston's neighborhoods.

In Franklin Square Park on Washington and West Newton Streets, $153,395 is already being spent on historic restoration work.

The Mayor said, "When we think of historic Boston, we usually think of the many famous sites in and around downtown. But each of our neighborhoods has its historic places, like this nineteenth-century park in the South End."

"Every neighborhood has its contribution to make to our long and proud history, and I'm glad that we have been able to use money from the Browne Fund to restore them."

The fund is also contributing $50,000 toward the cost of a $158,000 bust of the late Boston Pops conductor Arthur Fiedler. The bust is installed on the Esplanade.

Other restoration projects that have been funded through the Edward Ingersoll Browne Fund include: North Dorchester Burial Ground; Arnold Arboretum; Liberty Square Associates; Boston Place Associates; Blackstone Block; H.O.M.E., Inc.; Monsignor O'Donnell Square, Dorchester; Winthrop Square, Charlestown; Townscape Institute; Joan Brigham and Christopher Janney; Public Garden; Lafayette Mall, Boston Common; Jackson-Mann Community School.

The Browne Fund is a trust administered by the city. The Mayor, the city Collector-Treasurer, George A. Russell, Jr., and the City Council's senior member, Councillor-at-Large Christopher A. Iannella, are the trustees.

CHELSEA STREET BRIDGE CLOSING

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has decided that the closing of the Chelsea Street Bridge is a problem that will be addressed immediately and effectively. The residents of the surrounding area have been extremely patient with previous accidents involving this bridge and should not be subjected to any further delays again. It is this administration's firm intention to have this span repaired quickly and conforming to the strictest safety standards. Therefore, I have requested Department of Public Works Commissioner Joseph Casazza to move promptly in restoring full use of this property," said Mayor Flynn.

The City of Boston has instituted legal proceedings against the Liberian tanker the "Pacific Hunter." The initial hearing in the United States District Court has resulted in the ship being detained until a $1-million bond is posted by the ship's owners.

MAYOR AWARDS CONTRACTS FOR CITY PARKS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has awarded contracts to five nonprofit groups that will provide neighborhood recreational programming at parks around the city.

The agencies awarded contracts will administer programs in Uphams Corner at the Bird Street Building; Franklin Field; Roxbury/Orchard Park, Derby Park, and Franklin Park.

Mayor Flynn is pleased that the city has reached agreements with these groups because all of the agencies involved have a proven record of working to increase recreational activities in the neighborhoods.

Under the terms of the agreements, each group will provide labor-intensive maintenance and will administer responsive recreational programming. All of the organizations successfully participated in the program last year. The agencies awarded contracts include Uphams Corner Community Recreational Center, Inc.; Franklin Field Corporation; Lena Park Community Development Corporation, Hattie B. Cooper Community Development Center, and Franklin Park Coalition, Inc.

The Mayor also announced that the city is leasing Roxbury's Kittredge Park to Boston Urban Gardeners, Inc. for the sum of one dollar. The group has already begun landscaping and planting as part of its plans to beautify the park. Upon completion, Kittredge Park will be available to the public for gardening.

CONSUMER AFFAIRS OFFICE GETS RESULTS

Diane Modica, Boston's Consumer Affairs Commissioner announced that during the month of June her office successfully negotiated the return of over $5,000 to consumers who purchased tickets for Boston Harbor Parade of Sail Cruises which were either canceled or severely limited due to bad weather.

Commissioner Modica stated, "Our office received numerous complaints from consumers who spent a great deal of money for their cruise tickets. We believed that under certain circumstances, charter operators ought to provide compensation."

Massachusetts law requires that operators disclose their refund policy clearly and conspicuously prior to the purchase of the ticket. In several instances, this was not done and refusal to provide cash refunds for canceled cruises in these cases is a violation of the Consumer Protection Act.

"We underwent some lengthy negotiation sessions," stated Commissioner Modica. She added, "full cash refunds have been made to consumers for canceled cruises by a number of charter operators, with the exception of Atlantic Cruises of Quincy."

Tom Galgana, owner of Atlantic Cruises, told us that he was broke and would only be able to make a partial cash refund for his canceled cruises. However, he reneged on that agreement. As a result, Modica noted, "We have advised consumers of their right to file a claim in small claims court and have offered our further assistance in those cases."

"With the advent of summer," Modica stated, "people will, no doubt, be enjoying many cultural and recreational activities that Boston has to offer. As consumers, they have certain rights under the Massachusetts Consumer Protection Act, and when problems do arise, the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing is here to provide the advocacy and protection to which they are entitled."

PEOPLE ON-THE-GO POSTAL SERVICES

You won't lose touch or lose time during the summer months when you take advantage of two conveniences offered by the Postal Service to people-on-the-go. Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan of Boston said today.

People on the run can save time when they use Self-Service Postal Centers located in many post offices and other locations around the country," he said. "The centers offer postal supplies and services for no extra charge at the push of a button." Customers can mail letters, buy stamps, and obtain change of address cards at these centers.

There are eight Self-Service Postal Centers located in the Boston area:

General Mail Facility, 25 Dorchester Avenue, twenty-four hours, seven days a week.

W. McCormack Post Office, Milk Street, Devonshire Streets, Monday through Friday, 5 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 5 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Massachusetts General Hospital, 55 Fruit Street, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Brookline Post Office, 1295 Beacon Street, Brookline, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturday, 7 a.m. to 12 noon.

Harvard Square Post Office, 125 Mt. Vernon Street, Cambridge, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturday, 7 a.m. to 12 noon.

Central Square Post Office, 770 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturday, 7:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Prudential Center, Boston, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

John F. Kennedy Post Office, New Garden Street, Boston, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Saturday, 7 a.m. to 12 noon.

A second tip is that people on the go can make the change more easily when they use a free, change-of-address kit available at local post offices," Postmaster said. The kit's handy cards can be used to notify the post office, friends, business correspondents, and magazines of your new address so mail will find you in your new city.

Last year, the Postal Service forwarded 45 million pieces of mail," Postmaster Sullivan said. "You can avoid paying forwarding charges, and possible delays in getting your mail, by telling everyone your new address a month before you move.

"We want to help our customers get our best," he added, "and these two services can give you more time to enjoy the summer months ahead."

BOSTON SUMMER OLYMPICS SCHEDULE

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced details for the remaining Boston Summer Olympics, a program designed to encourage athletic achievement and participation among the city's youth. The Mayor stated "In this Olympic year, when many youngsters will watch and emulate the Olympic performers, it is essential that our youths have the opportunity to turn these dreams into reality. Moreover, they will reap the benefits of athletics and healthy, sportsmanlike competition."

Working with the Mayor on the organization of the program are: Tom Kelley, chairman of the Mass. Branch of the U.S. Olympic Committee; Bobby Orr, Bruins great and member of the USOC; Tom Sanders, Dave Cowens, Judge Mal Graham, former members of the Boston Celtics; and Patti Catalano, one of the premier, world-class, distance runners.

Backing up the leadership with support and organization will be many groups, both in and out of government, including the Community Schools, the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association, and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston.

Competition will be held at:

Sign-up centers for the competitions for youths ages eight to fourteen are:

Community Schools — Hennigan, Agassiz, Condon, Lee, Marshall, Murphy, Blackstone, Jackson-Mann.

Centers — Curtis Hall, Paris Street, Chinatown Gym, Nazzaro, Charlestown Boys Club.

Robert Barsamian, former youth soccer coach, will lead the group of instructors for this soccer program. His long list of soccer credentials includes playing professionally for the N.Y. Cosmos and the first American signed for a Swedish pro soccer team.

The soccer clinics will culminate in a Round Robin, Inter-Neighborhood Tournament in August.

MAYOR OF BOSTON

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

MONDAY, JULY 23, 1984

NO. 30

MAYOR ESTABLISHES CAPITAL PLANNING OFFICE

Appoints Mary Nee Director

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the appointment of Mary Nee as the director of the newly established Office of Capital Planning (OCP).

In making the announcement, Mayor Flynn said, "The deteriorated condition of too many of Boston's roadways, bridges and municipal buildings, coupled with severely limited financial resources to address these conditions, demands a planned and creative long-range, capital improvement plan. I am confident that Mary Nee will bring to the Office of Capital Planning the experience, energy and an understanding of Boston's neighborhoods necessary to meet this challenge."

The major responsibilities of the OCP will include:

- Compiling a comprehensive inventory of current and future capital projects;
- Establishment of procedures for the preparation of capital budgets, including a standardized format and data collection system for all city departments;
- Preparation of multi-year capital budgets to be issued annually, with planning horizons of five years;
- Coordination of loan orders submission procedures;
- Analyze the impact of proposed state and federal funding plans on Boston's capital projects;
- Establish a process for neighborhood involvement in the planning and implementation of Boston's capital program.
- Analyze the capacity of the Capital Improvements Program Management Information System (CIPMIS) to provide an interdepartmental data base for capital projects.

Mary Nee, twenty-eight, was formerly senior budget analyst for the Massachusetts Senate Committee on Ways and Means. In that position she was responsible for the preparation of budgets for five state agencies, and was involved with policy research and financial analysis of legislation.

Prior to her work for the Ways and Means Committee, Nee worked for more than eight years for social service agencies in Boston, most recently as the associate director of the South Boston Neighborhood House.

She is a 1977 graduate of the University of Massachusetts with a degree in sociology and also holds a master's degree in public administration from Northern University. She is married to James Chapin. They make their home in Boston.

HANDICAPPED PARKING AWARENESS WEEK DECLARED

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, the City Council and the Commission on Handicapped Affairs have declared July 23 to 27, to be "Handicapped Parking Awareness Week" in the City of Boston to promote public awareness of handicapped parking regulations and the importance of respecting them.

A recent city ordinance mandates that certain spaces be designated on public streets and private ways, as well as in off-street parking areas for businesses, malls, schools, etc. The ordinance prohibits unauthorized vehicles from parking in city-designated HP/V spaces or parking in such a manner as to obstruct a sidewalk curb ramp designated for use by disabled persons. Penalties for violating these regulations are stiff. A vehicle may be immediately towed or receive a $100 fine.

Commissioner of Handicapped Affairs Susan M. Scully explains that the fines are with good reason. "Nondisabled drivers who park in HP/V reserve spaces, or cars that block sidewalk curb cuts do more than just commit a parking rule violation — they deny a disabled person's right to equal access and handicap that person's mobility."

The commission is coordinating this Handicapped Parking Awareness Week with City Councillor Maura Hennigan, the Traffic and Parking Department and the Police Department in response to continuing complaints from disabled residents across the city about their inability to travel freely in their communities because of cars blocking curb cuts or taking HP spaces.

Frances Deloatch, a resident of the South End who uses a wheelchair, can attest to the frustrations which a person with a disability must face all too often in trying to get around the city. "It can be very difficult getting around. You come to a car parked at a curb cut, and then you have to wait, and wait, no matter what the weather, until the person comes back, and moves the car, or until someone can help you down the curb. It is very aggravating, because it takes away your independence."

Many disabled residents, along with Frances, are working with the Handicapped Affairs Commission during this week in an attempt to generate public awareness about how HP/V spaces and curb cuts provide basic access for disabled persons, and consequently, the importance of respecting HP parking regulations.

As part of this awareness campaign, residents will pass out flyers on car windshields and put up posters which explain handicap parking regulations and fines. Boston Police and Traffic and Parking Enforcement Officers are being instructed to step up enforcement of HP/V spaces and curb cuts with ticketing and towing.

Mayor Flynn is committed to seeing a city which is accessible to all its residents, able bodied or disabled, and calls on all residents to be aware of where they park. "We must all respect handicapped parking regulations, with the understanding that we are thus assuring independence and access for disabled residents in the city."

For more information, or if you would like to help out during this week, contact the Commission on Handicapped Affairs, Boston City Hall, Room 709, Boston 02201, or call 725-3682.

MAYOR THANKS BUSINESSES FOR SUMMER JOBS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced that the Boston Private Industry Council's (PIC) corporate recruitment drive to place 1,500 public high school students in private sector jobs this summer had reached its goal for 1984. The 1984 goal represents a 50 percent increase over last year's goal.

Mayor Flynn said, "I want to thank the many Boston businesses who have provided jobs for our kids this summer. Kids from all of Boston's neighborhoods will get quality work experiences and will earn the additional income many families need. Local businesses have shown by their commitments this summer that they know our youths work hard and earn their pay. They are productive citizens and are a very good investment for our future.

"I would also add," the Mayor continued, "that more jobs are needed. PIC still has its people out on the street door knocking on small, medium, and large businesses to see if our goal of 1,500 can be surpassed. With the loss of federal funds since 1980, summer jobs for Boston's youth have gone from 8,100 jobs in the summer of 1980, to 1,900 jobs in 1984. Local businesses have done a great deal to meet that need. But we need more."

Ted Dooley, director of Youth Programs for PIC, said, "We could not have reached our goal and face the possibility of surpassing it without Mayor Flynn's direct support and involvement. He went after those jobs as if they were for his own kids. Local businesses responded to his direct appeal. We hope next year to move ahead to provide even more private sector jobs for Boston's youth."

The city was also notified today that it will receive an additional $594,000 in federal funds for summer jobs for kids to work in nonprofit and public agencies this summer through the Summer Jobs Program just signed into law yesterday in Washington. Mayor Flynn had actively lobbied for that bill because it will provide for an additional 500 subsidized jobs for Boston this summer.

Mayor Flynn said, "There is a hidden benefit to this additional federal money. My administration has made a commitment to improve and expand the summer neighborhood recreational programs that exist. This federal money will allow us to do that by paying for additional staff needed to make sure the programs succeed."

So far, 1,400 Boston youths have been placed in jobs and are working. One hundred more will finish their job interviews and be working by the end of the first week in July. PIC believes that with the direct involvement of the Mayor an additional 100 private sector jobs could be committed soon.

It is estimated that two-thirds of the summer jobs in Boston are held by youths from outside the city. This year PIC began a unique new program to "bus" up to 200 kids from the city to nine outlying communities for summer jobs.

"PIC has also contracted," said the Mayor, "with a minority-owned Boston business to transport the kids from Boston to their jobs outside the city. Boston businesses also pay the highest average wage in the country for a summer job, $4.10 an hour. This is the best indicator that the business community is not interested in the subminimum wage. The local business community is more interested in an honest day's wage for an honest day's work."

By the end of next week, PIC will have complete data on the ages, sex, race, and neighborhoods where the kids come from who are working on their summer jobs.

WAINWRIGHT PARK RENOVATION

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the completion of a $250,000 renovation project at Wainwright Park in Dorchester.

"Today it is evident that the people of this neighborhood want to play, live, and live as a community. It is incumbent upon public officials to provide the leadership that allows people, particularly our youth, opportunities to interact with each other. Consequently, this administration has a commitment to make facilities desirable places for our citizens. It is here that respect and friendships may start and endure," said Mayor.

For the first time in several years, lights will be available at this park at night. Because of the lights, basketball and senior softball leagues can now play at night. In addition, renovations that include landscaping and resurfacing of courts make the park a more attractive site.

The renovations took place under the direction of the Office of Public Works. Maintenance for the park is administered by the Park Department.

MELVILLE AVENUE TUNNEL REPAIRS

The MBTA Board of Directors authorized an estimated half a million dollar contract with T Equipment Corporation to repair the Melville Avenue tunnel on the Red Line.

A 600-foot section of the tunnel lining between Ashmont Station and Fields Corner will be renovated, including rebuilding of the concrete walls and supports.

"Work to be done on the tunnel will include an agreement by the MBTA for the replacement of trees on Melville Avenue in Dorchester, after the construction work is completed," said General Manager James F. O'Leary.

Construction work is scheduled to begin in early August and will be completed in March, 1985.

T Equipment Corporation is an equal employment opportunity employer. It meets the MBTA's Disadvantaged Business Enterprise/Women Business Enterprise goals of 10 percent minority and 5 percent women, respectively.

MAYOR FLYNN'S INITIATIVES ADDRESS HIGH RATE OF INFANT MORTALITY

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced a series of pertinent and specific initiatives to answer the serious problem of the rise of infant mortality in the city.

Infant mortality had been steadily declining in Boston in the 1970s, but according to recent studies, it increased dramatically between 1981 and 1982. The Reagan administration cut off Medicaid eligibility among women and children and reduced federal grants for health care for mothers and their children.

For the first time since 1978, the infant mortality rate in Boston has increased from 11.9 (deaths per 1,000 births) in 1981, to 15.8 in 1982. In many and some other city neighborhoods the increase is even greater.

Mayor Flynn said, "These statistics are quite disturbing. From July 1980, to July 1982, there were 17 percent fewer babies receiving AFDC benefits in Boston. In addition, in the five Boston neighborhood health centers examined by the Harvard School of Public Health, infant mortality shot up 46 percent between 1981 and 1982.

The Harvard study also found," continued the Mayor, "that funding from the National Child Health Program and federal grants fell 70 percent from 1981 to 1983. Adding to this already difficult situation is the fact that, according to the U.S. General Accounting Office, 80 percent of the mothers and children dependent on Medicaid now have extremely limited access to health care."

A third study, conducted by Dr. Robert Lamb, correlated a drop in the number of Boston AFDC cases and increasing unemployment (in both cases by 20 percent) to a similar decrease in the number of pediatric visits to neighborhood health centers and hospital emergency rooms in the inner city area from 1980-1982.

Infant mortality is defined as those deaths which occur within the first year of life. Most infant mortality is due to babies under 3 pounds. Infants born weighing between 3 and 5-1/2 pounds have a 50 percent chance of surviving (one out of ten does not) and never achieve their full development and health potential. Therefore, the initiatives put forward today are designed to decrease the rate of low birthweight, and infant mortality. For a low birthweight baby, it is estimated to cost $100,000 just to keep the baby alive and improve its condition sufficiently to send it home.

"Our new goal," said the Mayor, "is to set a course that will provide the services to turn these dismal statistics around. Very low birthweight or extreme prematurity is the major factor in Boston's overall infant death problem and the higher rate we are seeing among the minority communities in our city. I am redirecting funds from other departments in the city unrelated to health care ($150,000) to get this program started. We must, however, get additional funding from the state, federal government, and private sources wherever possible to make this commitment work."

A special program has been developed to target women with rates of low birthweight above the average for the general population, including Black, Hispanic, other minority women, teenagers, and women with poor reproductive histories. Services will be expanded to reach these women in their neighborhoods by making prenatal care accessible and home visits by public health nurses a regular occurrence.

Further, neighborhood advocates will be assigned to neighborhood health centers to work with the public health nurses to: 1) find and enroll pregnant women in health care during the first trimester; 2) assist women with clinic visits and other necessary medical services; 3) ensure that women are enrolled in entitlement and social service programs (i.e., daycare, nutrition, Medicaid, etc.); 4) ensure that high-risk women, especially those in their teens, receive the necessary social supports.

Public health nurses will work with women identified as high risk by providing health education on nutrition, smoking, substance abuse, alcohol, getting prenatal care, and recognizing early symptoms of premature labor. The city will also work with the state to establish a mechanism to cover the basic cost of caring for high-risk, pregnant women who have no access to coverage for prenatal care. Mayor Flynn pledged that no pregnant woman in Boston would be refused prenatal care because of the inability to pay.

"We must speak out immediately on this very serious moral issue and target our resources, although limited," said Mayor Flynn." More and more the City of Boston has become one with a very large gap between a significant group of affluent, and an even more significant group of people who are underemployed or unemployed. Poverty affects Black, White, Asian, Hispanic. Because of federal cuts, all have less services afforded to their children.

"I, therefore," concluded the Mayor, "dedicate the city to the goals for infant health set by the U.S. Surgeon General for 1990: there should be no more than nine infant deaths per 1,000 live births in Boston; and there should be no racial or ethnic group and no community in Boston with an infant mortality rate greater than twelve."

MAYOR ORDERS CHelsea STREET BRIDGE REPAIRS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn declared the closing of the Chelsea Street Bridge is a problem being addressed immediately and effectively.

The Mayor, after visiting the site and consulting with engineers and bridge repair specialists, said, "I have ordered this repair to be done on an emergency basis, so that the impact on the bridge's users will be kept to a minimum. Work on the bridge started less than forty-eight hours from the time of the accident and after I was assured the reconstruction would conform to the strictest safety standards. The city is committed to having the bridge in operation by August 1.

"Also, I have called for a meeting with the Coast Guard and members of the shipping and tugboat industry. Representatives of the various groups involved have been requested to bring specific information on their operations at that time. It is essential that all regulations be complied with, and if necessary, new rules be instituted."

The City of Boston has filed suit against the Liberian Tanker, the Pacific Hunter, which was involved in the July 4 accident. The initial hearing in the United States District Court resulted in the ship being detained until a $1-million bond is posted by the ship's owners.

Lastly, Mayor Flynn said, "The residents of the area surrounding the bridge, particularly those in East Boston, have been extremely patient with previous accidents and should not be subjected to lengthy delays again."

MAYOR FLYNN LAUDS HISPANIC MERCHANTS COOPERATION

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn joined merchants and members of the Hispanic community at an opening ceremony for a newly renovated, mixed-use, commercial-residential building at 456 Centre Street, Hyde Square, Jamaica Plain, on Thursday, July 12, 1984, at 11 a.m.

Also joining the Mayor were the owners and developers of the building, the new tenants, a representative from Bank of Boston, community residents and city officials. Following the ceremony, there was a brief reception inside the building.

A four-story, wooden building, 456 Centre Street was constructed in 1894. At the time of its purchase in 1982, by Mr. Warren Gardner and Mr. Albert Sunderland, the property was vacant and had been pictured in Time Magazine as an example of decay in Boston's neighborhoods. The owners have renovated the building into seven commercial spaces and four apartments, and all but two of the commercial spaces have already been leased.

OFFICE OF HOUSING Data Processing Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $125,000 to Scientific Time Sharing Corp. (STSC), 462 Boylston Street.

Payment for this contract shall be from the Year IX Community Development Block Grant. The period of performance will be from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

STSC has supplied the department's computer needs since the inception of the Housing Improvement Program in June, 1975, and under the terms of this contract will continue providing these data processing services. Such services include, but are not limited to terminal inputting and report generating; storage of pipeline and evaluation data, systems programming; and generating of weekly file prints and terminal reports for management information purposes.

I recommend entering into this agreement as I feel it would serve no public interest to request proposals for these services. In 1978, in an effort to learn if any economic gain would be realized by changing firms, we did seek proposals and found that changing firms and converting to another system would require incurring substantial new additional costs, and it would mean in most instances, redeveloping and rewriting 2,500 hours worth of computer programming. In addition to these added costs, the management function of the system would be disrupted during the months of development of a new system. It is my understanding that changing firms continues to be to the disadvantage of the City of Boston.

Therefore, because STSC is in a unique position to provide satisfactory service without interruption or added costs and their charges are felt to be fair and reasonable, I recommend your approval to award this contract to Scientific Time Sharing Corporation of 462 Boylston Street.

Sincerely,
Joseph M. Courtney,
Director.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT Leasing Certain Premises

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in extending the lease for certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the director of Public Facilities Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the commission to the director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of the entire building (50,000 square feet), at 147 Milk Street.

The term of the lease will be six months ending January 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1983. This request is being submitted subsequent to the commencement of the lease term due to the uncertainties of the term of the lease desired by the City as well as certain budgetary matters which have recently been resolved.

The monthly rental will be $39,583.33 and calculation payments and charges for lamps under the terms of our lease bring the total charge for this term to an amount not to exceed $241,882.73. I have determined that this cost is reasonable.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
Donald B. Mansfield,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT Bridge Inspection Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Hardesty & Hanover, consultants, a corporation, located at New York Street, for the purpose of inspection of cracked flange angles on the steel girders of the Andrew P. McArdle Bridge.

Under the terms of the contract, Hardesty & Hanover will:

Inspect, by visual means, plus dye-penetrant, the curved segmental girders and the track girders for each of the two leafs of the bridge to determine the extent of the flange angle cracking and any other signs of distress in main girder flanges; sandblasting of any required areas necessary for the inspection; erection of rigging for access inside of the straight girders; prepare a written report of the consultant's findings; submit an estimate for preparing repair plans.

Compensation under this contract will not exceed $15,200, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1983.

This work is relative to and in addition to the engineering services by this consultant and for this reason I believe that public advertising would be no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Joseph F. Casella,
Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Hardesty & Hanover, consultants, a corporation, located at New York Street, for the purpose of preparing plans, specifications, and estimating replacement of the submarine cables at the Andrew P. McArdle Bridge.

Under the terms of the contract, Hardesty & Hanover will:

Prepare plans, specifications, and estimate for replacement of one of two basic schemes of the submarine cable terminal boxes on the face of each bascule pier and provide protection for the cables and boxes to prevent damage from future vessel impact; or to marine cable terminal boxes to the rear face of bascule piers, provide access walkways to the piers and run the submarine cables around the sides of the fenders.

Compensation under this contract will not exceed $32,000, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1983.

This work is relative to and in addition to previous engineering services by the consultant and for that reason I believe that public advertising would serve a useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Equipment Service Contract

Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request your Honor's permission to proceed with public advertising and to award a contract to the Wang Laboratories, Inc., for a service contract (as-called-for basis) in the amount of $10,000, a price I deem reasonable, to be in effect from July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983. Wang is located in Chelmsford.

The contractor will provide repair service for recently installed equipment located at the Humphreys Occupational Resource Center and various schools and departments as needed.

The School Committee has publicly advertised in the City Record on Monday, March 29, 1982, and received bid proposals to Wang Laboratories. There was no response to our advertised bid. The Purchasing Department contacted a representative at Wang Laboratories to inquire as to why the company did not submit a bid. They were informed the company is responsible for submitting the papers and the quote was on vacation at the time the bid was opened and the company was not aware the bid had not been mailed.

Since Wang Laboratories is the original equipment manufacturer, has the technical staff to provide this service, and has an inventory of parts on hand for no useful purpose would be served by public advertising for bids.

Payment by the vendor in submitting the terms of the contract agreement, and a further delay in processing Wang's Legal Department has resulted in the delayed submission of this contract.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Station Wagon

Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request your Honor's permission to proceed with public advertising and to award a contract to Oste Chevrolet, Inc., 1065 Commonwealth Avenue, for the purchase of one four-door station wagon.

Under the terms of the contract, the contractor will provide one, four-door station wagon (as specified on the November 20, 1982 bid) for the transport of students and musical instruments to various schools. The vehicle presently used to transport instruments and/or musical instruments is defective and unsafe. The contractor has provided cars in the past and to date was the only company who has been able to provide a four-door station wagon for immediate use, quoted a trade-in price for a 1976 Ford station wagon (owned by the School Department) on the safe for transporting students and/or musical instruments. The following information was secured regarding the station wagon purchase:

Dave Dinger Ford (sales representative, Paul Mahoney), did not have any station wagons available; Jack Madden Ford (sales representative, Barry Madden), only one wagon available which is loaded with options; price quoted $13,000; Oste Chevrolet (sales representative, Henry Fontaine), has wagon available which does meet specifications.

The price quoted by Oste Chevrolet is $10,610 to include required specifications with the exception of substituting an electric tailgate for power door locks of comparable value.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $10,216, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

Because Oste Chevrolet has the necessary vehicle on hand; and the vehicle meets all specifications that best meet the needs of the department as reasonable cost, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

Security Consulting Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract with Mr. Edward Cass, 18 Burley Street, Roslindale, for the period July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $20,000.

This amendment will increase the contract sum
by $6,000, thereby increasing the city's total liability under this contract, as so amended, to an amount not to exceed $26,000.

This amendment is necessary because the amount of time Mr. Cass would spend providing security consulting services to the department was under estimated.

In view of the above, and because the cost is reasonable, I recommend approval of this amendment.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Pneumogram Testing

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract with Home Respiratory Care, Holden, for the period July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $12,000.

This amendment will increase the contract sum
by $3,300, thereby increasing the city's total liability
under this contract, as so amended, to an amount
not to exceed $15,300.

Home Respiratory Care provides pneumogram testing at Boston City Hospital. The number of tests to be provided was under estimated. This amendment is necessary to cover the costs of services that were not anticipated.

In view of the above, and because of the special nature of the services, and because the cost is reasonable, I recommend approval of this amendment.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Ratio Testing Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract with Brigham & Women's Hospital, 10 Vining Street, for the period July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $2,000.

This amendment will increase the contract sum
by $4,000, thereby increasing the city's total liability
under this contract, as so amended, to an amount
not to exceed $6,000.

Under this contract Brigham & Women's Hospital provides L/S DSPC ratio testing services. This amendment is necessary because of the unanticipated increase in the volume of testing required.

In view of the above, and because of the special nature of these services and because the cost is reasonable, I recommend approval of this amendment.

Very truly yours,

Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

LAW DEPARTMENT

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On March 24, 1983, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising, to John L. Keefe, esquire of the law firm King, Kellogg and Gardner, located at Wellesley, for legal services in connection with workmen's compensation cases for the period of February 17, 1983, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $7,500. Mr. Keefe's address was recently changed to the law firm of Vena, McNamara and Keefe, located at 162 Boylston Street, Boston, and the contract shall be amended accordingly.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for additional services which were not anticipated in the terms of the original contract.
The cost of the amendment as amended shall not exceed $30,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract as amended shall not exceed $37,000, effective immediately.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

NDEA

Nursing Assistant Class

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 8, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising, for the Dimock Community Health Center, a nonprofit organization with offices at 55 Dimock Street, to recruit and enroll CETA-eligible clients to become professionals in the allied health field. The participants will be trained as either operating room technicians or nursing assistants. This letter was subsequently amended and approved on March 15, 1983.

Your approval is requested to further amend this contract to include funding for an additional nursing assistant class. The funding for this additional class was not anticipated when the previous award letter was written and this letter supersedes that letter approved on March 15, 1983.

This amendment will increase the original contract amount from $89,696 by $30,800, to a total cost not to exceed $120,496. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1982, through September 30, 1983. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title II-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. This request is retroactive due to the time involved in negotiation and subsequent budget development.

As this amendment is for the continuation of a program at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Program Management Funds

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 21, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, a public agency located at One City Hall Square, for project and administrative costs for various urban renewal projects. Compensation was determined to be reasonable at a cost not to exceed $1,000,000, payment being made from Year VII Community Development Block Grant funds, for the period of July 1, 1981, until June 30, 1982. The term of the contract was later extended until June 30, 1983.

Your approval is requested to further amend this contract in terms of compensation. Additional program management funds and administrative funds are requested for the following four projects: South Cove, $71,500; Charlestown, $158,235; South End, $309,265; North Station, $61,000. Total, $600,000.

These costs were not included in the original award, and this request is retroactive due to extensive budget negotiations between the Boston Redevelopment Authority and the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency.

The proposed activities constitute an essential element of the city's strategies for economic development and neighborhood revitalization under the Year VII C.D.B.G. program. Because of the reasonable cost and the unique expertise of the BRA in conducting urban renewal projects of this type, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

PROPERTY EQUALIZATION Assistant Manager

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 17, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a contract to Mr. Paul Buchanan, an individual, at 195 Neponset Avenue, Dorchester, as assistant manager in the Assessing Department.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for Mr. Buchanan's continued administrative and management support to the manager and section heads so as to ensure timely and successful completion of the data generation, valuation, appraisal and analytic tasks of the Assessing Department.

Mr. Buchanan will be compensated at the same rate specified in the terms of the original contract, all other terms and conditions remaining the same.

The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $12,798, which I have determined to be reasonable. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $18,978.

The period of this contract shall be extended from February 1, 1983, through June 30, 1983.

This contract is being submitted late because of the protracted processes for requesting supplemental funds which were required to cover the costs of this and other anticipated contracts. In the meantime, it was necessary to hire this individual in order to complete the revaluation work according to the plan approved by the Department of Revenue.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Edward W. Jay, Jr.,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

Financial Management, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission dated June 13, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and enter into an agreement with Programs for Youth, Inc., 316 Huntington Avenue, amending a contract executed November 9, 1982, which provides for financial management and administrative support services to the Boston Community Schools Program for the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $125,000 to $311,500, which I have determined is a reasonable cost.

This increase of $186,500 is for additional services, such as program changes, increased part time personnel at the schools with accompanying costs, and additional support funds for reading and day care programs.

Due to the provision of the law to the effect that existing and executed contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

Donald B. Manson,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Water Works and Highway Reconstruction

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On May 21, 1980, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids, to D. Cicconi, Inc., 18 Shepard Street, Brighton, for highway reconstruction and water works in Canal Street, highway reconstruction in Audubon Circle, and Garden Street, in Boston Proper, for $665,450.

Due to the implementation of Proposition 2½, the work as outlined in the contract was suspended for an indeterminate period of time.

The extensive delay imposed by the city has resulted in a fluctuation in many of the construction material costs as originally bid.

I have met with representatives of D. Cicconi, Inc., and we have come to an agreement at revised prices on certain items. The adjustments for increased costs only of performance of the contract due to the delay of the contractors cost the city.

Therefore, I respectfully request that the contract be amended, increasing it to $665,450. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $7,350.10.

Very truly yours,

Robert P. Mehegan,
Acting Commissioner.

Expert Witness Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 25, 1983, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to Mr. Lee Mount, Hingham, for personal services as an expert witness for the City of Boston during the period August 3, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $5,000, payable at $35 per hour.

Your approval is requested to amend the contract to provide for compensation for additional services. The consultant was involved in expert witness litigation procedures beyond the limit of fees anticipated in the original agreement.

The cost of this agreement, shall not exceed $5,844.31, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $5,844.31.

Because this work was performed relatively in addition to the original contract, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

Various Supplies

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 26, 1982, your Honor approved an award of repetitive service contract C-309, for furnishing and delivering various supplies and equipment to the Boston Public Schools, during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $23,000.

Your approval is requested to amend the contract to provide for additional necessary supplies which were not anticipated in the estimate of the original contract.

The cost of the amendment to contract C-309 shall not exceed $8,000. The contract, as amended shall not exceed $31,000. The performance shall remain the same.

I have determined the cost of this amendment to be reasonable, and in keeping with the cost of the original repetitive service work.

Because the vendors now included in the contract are performing satisfactorily, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Paul W. Moore,
Senior Structural Engineer.

Transportation Contract Inspection

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 23, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to Alexander Grant & Company, 99 High Street, providing consultant, verification, and inspection services relating to various aspects of the school transportation contract with Educational and Recreational Services, Inc. (A.R.A.).

permission is now requested to amend this contract in both amount and scope of services in order to provide for the complete inspection of each very school transportation vehicle owned by the School Committee by an independent mechanic who will be identified, retained, supervised and paid as a subcontractor by Alexander Grant. An inspection is necessary at this time since the current A.R.A. contract is expiring and under the terms of that agreement, A.R.A. must, at the termination of the contract, reimburse the School Committee for the costs of restoring vehicles to variable industry condition standards, normal wear and tear excepted. Alexander Grant has the necessary expertise to enable the School Committee to take full advantage of and effectively enforce the provisions of the A.R.A. contract.

The cost of this amendment is $70,000, which is reasonable. The total contract amount, as amended, will be $206,168.

Because of the professional and continuing nature of these services, it is my opinion that public advertisement for bids would not serve the public interest.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Notice

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Resident Section contract provision of the specifications for and the obligations of the contractor and subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices in the performance of this contract.

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is over $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Affirmative Action Clause" and "Standard Federal Acquisition Regulation Construction Contract Specifics" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation are expressed in percentage terms on the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area (see pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

MAYOR OF BOSTON

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

NO. 31

TRAFFIC AND PARKING REORGANIZES

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced recently the city's Traffic and Parking Department has established organizational initiatives to develop and improve the department's management and performance in the delivery of services.

Mayor Flynn said, "Much of what is included in the Traffic and Parking reorganization builds on the transportation ideas put forward in the transition report (on Transition) the administration issued earlier this year. The goals are simple: will increase accountability in the department while increasing the delivery of services. This plan will also enable the Traffic and Parking Department to position itself to become a Department of Transportation, which the city of our size and type should have."

G. Chapnick, commissioner, "As Mayor Flynn has empowered neighborhoods, this plan will empower the managers and employees of the department with responsibility for service delivery. The department will be able to fulfill the primary mandate of the Mayor. By assigning specific functions and responsibilities to specific individuals we will boost accountability and productivity."

The need for the organizational plan was evident to the commissioner when she analyzed all the responsibilities of the department and current fiscal trends. Service requests from both residents and commercial constituents — the request for service rate is $100 per week and over twenty-eight percent of the Mayor's Office of Constituent Services inquiries are Traffic and Parking related. "The magnitude of the work," said Commissioner Chapnick, "shows the potential of the department to improve the quality of life in Boston and be recognized and dealt with."

For example, the new plan calls for a reorganization of Administration and Finance. Its responsibility would be to do inventory of staff, staff training, contract negotiations and automate the department, and other tasks. Previously, the work of this unit was spread out among several city departments and agencies, never working efficiently and professionally. The new plan also calls for a Complaints Investigation Division to work within the Operations Unit, to speed resolution of constituent requests and concerns.

"This is a critical job," noted Ms. Chapnick. "This will be one place where the public interacts with the department and we want to be as responsive as possible. Therefore, access is all important."

Another new unit in the Traffic and Parking Department will be the Policy and Planning Unit. "This is," said the commissioner, "the first time the city will have the professional capacity, particularly in terms of staff, to advocate the city's interest and have a clear voice in all transportation issues affecting the city." The Policy and Planning Unit will look at public and mass transit planning; state and federal funding for transportation; design and engineering; environmental impact reviews; and will conduct neighborhood studies.

Mayor Flynn said, "With a consolidated department, we will be able to plan and develop transportation ideas that will benefit the neighborhoods of our city. We will go out, as we have been, into the neighborhoods to find out how current plans are impacting the people who live there. We will be able to bring in more money for rehabilitation for our transportation infrastructure. We will also be a part of the designing phase instead of just the reactive process after a design is made. This will be very important for the future of our city."

HUD DESIGNATES BOSTON UDAG PLAN A NATIONAL MODEL

The Flynn administration disclosed recently that a management plan developed by the city's Office of Intergovernmental Relations has been accepted by HUD as a national model for Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) performance monitoring.

Boston's UDAG Management Plan, the first of its kind in the nation, has provided the city with a uniform system for carrying out UDAG projects from start to completion. The plan, written by Boston UDAG coordinator Jim Robbins, centralizes management and monitoring responsibilities, and accurately identifies the functions of city departments undertaking individual projects. Prior to the introduction of this model plan, Boston had no umbrella system.

HUD has recognized Boston as a national leader in UDAG management, and intends to use the Boston plan to assist other cities in developing similar practices. The plan, according to a local HUD official, could put Boston in the forefront of outstanding UDAG management if the plan is followed. Initially, HUD will offer the Boston model to other cities in the Commonwealth and Connecticut.

Mayor Flynn expressed satisfaction with the HUD designation. "We are glad that we are a national model," he said. "We are happy that housing is being generated for our citizens, and that we are able to strike a balance with downtown development needs."

According to the plan's author, the UDAG model will be used by HUD as a technical training tool, and could be adopted in the near future as a paradigm for urban centers throughout the country.

MAYOR ANNOUNCES NEIGHBORHOOD VOTER REGISTRATION

Efforts to focus on Hispanic community.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced at a recent press conference in the Eagle Room that the city is launching a summer and fall neighborhood voter registration drive. The first phase will focus on the Hispanic community of Boston. The Mayor also announced the Election Department will be deputizing city employees at certain city agencies in the neighborhoods to increase voter registration throughout the city.

Mayor Flynn said, "1984 is an important election year. We will be electing a new senator and a new president as well. As Mayor, I wish to do everything within the city's means to enable people to exercise their right to vote in all the upcoming elections."

The initial voter registration effort in the Hispanic community will be conducted at the many Hispanic churches across the city. At a recent breakfast at the Parkman House with Hispanic church leaders, over fifteen churches signed up to participate in the registration drive by having registrars at the churches on Saturdays and Sundays throughout the summer and fall.

The Mayor also took the opportunity to issue a proclamation declaring July 14 to July 21 Puerto Rican Week in Boston. The proclamation kicked off a week of activities and celebrations in the city for the Hispanic community. The theme of the week-long festival this year was "The Power of the Hispanic Vote."

The Boston Election Department estimates there are 435,031 persons eligible to register in the city. Figures as of June 30 indicate approximately 70 percent or 294,845 are already registered. However, rough estimates are that 50 percent or more of the unregistered voters are Hispanic. Registrars will be bilingual at the Hispanic church sites as well as other neighborhood sites.

Mayor Flynn also announced the city will be deputizing city employees at the twenty Community Schools, twenty-five branch libraries, and is actively pursuing deputization of employees at the twenty-four public housing management offices to make registration available during working hours, Monday to Friday, in every neighborhood of the city. "Availability of registrars alone," said the Mayor, "does not guarantee voter registration. The job of organizing community-based registration efforts around a particular site will now be made easier with out increased commitment."

"The Election Department," said Mayor Flynn, "will also send registrars to all public and private high schools, neighborhood health centers, and Boston City Hospital on a regular basis to increase voter registration."

Anyone who is a citizen of the United States and eighteen years of age or older at the time of the election can register to vote. The Election Department will honor any reasonable request for a registration site. Any individual physically disabled can call or write the Election Department and a registrar will come out and register that person to vote.

Registration requests should be directed to:

The Boston Election Department, second floor, City Hall, 1 City Hall Plaza, Boston, MA 02201, Tel. 725-4635 or 725-4636.

At the time of registration, any form of identification with name and address will be taken as proof of residence, such as a letter, driver's license, electric bill, etc. There are no tests. Unless you move from your current address, you need never register again.

The final day to register for the September 18 primary is August 21. The final day to register for the November election is October 9.

"When this city-initiated effort is complete," concluded Mayor Flynn, "we should be able to say they did not have an opportunity to register to vote. This is one of the most important ways we can let your voice be heard."

T MANAGER URGES RED LINE REBUILD REQUEST

MBTA General Manager James J. O'Leary urged the federal government to approve his request to rebuild twenty-six older Red Line cars, which he called "a necessary step in the MBTA's comprehensive program to improve service on the Red Line."

O'Leary released a four-page letter to the Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA), an arm of the U.S. Department of Transportation, which spells out the need for rebuilding the fleet of so-called Silverbirds purchased in 1968.

The proposal to overhaul the Silverbirds, which was submitted to UMTA last March, is part of a broad long-range program to restore reliability on the Red Line, which O'Leary says suffers from several decades of deferred maintenance and delays in ordering new equipment.

O'Leary outlined the elements of the long-range program for Red Line improvement and indicated ways in which steps have been speeded up in the wake of recent Red Line service disruptions. Included in the program are:

- Immediate beefing up of power from forty-six to sixty-eight nightly inspections and repair of Red Line track and ties. Part of the increase in track maintenance is by an allocation of $400,000 in budget savings.

- Added staffing (from six to ten) to speed up replacement of miles of 600-volt cable which supplies power to the third rail.

- Expansion to twenty-four-day train maintenance through the seventeen more mechanics and additional supervisors. Instituting this program ensures faster resolution of service of disabled cars.

- Deployment of more supervisors on the Red Line for quicker resolution of operational problems.

A rate of $8 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

Installation of a new automated signal system to guide movement of the cars electronically.

Overhaul of all 164 Red Line cars (including the Silverbirds) and the purchase of fifty-four new Red Line cars, scheduled for delivery in 1986. The new cars will enable the MBTA to expand from four-car to six-car trains.

In addition, fifty-eight of the MBTA's fifty-eight Bluebird cars have been rebuilt. Those cars range in age from fifteen to twenty-one years old and many have traveled over one million miles. The remaining thirty Bluebirds will be rehabilitated over the next seven months.

In requesting federal support for rebuilding the Silverbirds, O'Leary said the cost of the project would be at least $2 million, of which 80 percent would be federally funded. The work could be completed in the space of approximately eighteen months.

The initial purchase of a fleet of cars is the only investment that must be made in them during their expected useful life. Subsequent mid-life reinvestments must also be made," O'Leary said rebuilding the Silverbirds will enable them to achieve an effective and increasingly flexible useful life to twenty-five to thirty years."

Together, the Bluebirds and Silverbirds make up the MBTA's fleet of 164 Red Line cars.

O'Leary said twenty-four-hour-a-day maintenance has enabled the MBTA to keep trains in for inspection every 100 miles, a significant improvement. He said the MBTA is also looking at financing options to accelerate major replacement between Harvard and Andrew Stations that is currently scheduled to start for two years. The work will cost approximately $22.5 million.

There is no denying the fact that the Red Line is many years behind in maintenance and new equipment and that service is disrupted too often," O'Leary said. "At the same time, it is important to point out that we are operating more cars on the Red Line than ever before. Millions of federal and state dollars are being programmed to modernize older stations.

"We are looking hard for every opportunity to utilize available resources for the Red Line, to accelerate and expand maintenance, and to secure additional funds," O'Leary said. "I am confident that the long-term elements of our program will restore reliable service on the Red Line. In the meantime, the intensified maintenance program that I have outlined will insure that the system continues to operate in a safe manner as we build to our goal of a Red Line we can count on and be proud of."

The Condon Community School Summer Pool Program will continue until August 31st.

The Condon pool will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. five days a week. It will serve local residents plus Camp Joy children with activities that include swimming lessons; senior, family, adult and pre-teen swim. Expected usage, based on past summers, is 300 adults and children a day. This would total 13,500 visits this summer.

Last summer the Boston Community Schools pools were used for over 136,000 visits. Usage is expected to increase this summer, especially with the addition of the Curtis Hall pool in Jamaica Plain.

The Boston Community Schools Summer Pool Program is supported in large part by the Fund for the Neighborhoods which benefits directly from the Concerts on the Common.

Commonly asked question: "What is a Community School?"

A Community School is one of twenty modern public school facilities in Boston which is open to all neighborhood residents on a year-round basis. It serves as an educational, social, vocational, cultural, social service and recreational center, as well as a meeting place of community people.

LAND BANK GRANTS PRELIMINARY APPROVAL TO FENWAY HOUSING PROJECT

The Massachusetts Government Land Bank, at its July Board meeting, gave preliminary approval to a request for financing, from the Fenway CDC/OKM-Abrams development team, to rehabilitate the former Fenway Little City Hall building into a limited equity housing cooperative. Provided all outstanding conditions are met by the developer, the $850,000 Land Bank mortgage will create forty-six mixed-income units, half of which will be for low- and moderate-income families.

Jefferey A. Simon, Land Bank's executive director, said: "Rehabilitation of 73 Hemenway Street/56 The Fenway, Boston, will benefit the neighborhood in the provision of needed housing units, especially for large families, at all levels of affordability."

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, expressing the city's support of the project in a letter, stated: "With the cutback in federal housing subsidies, we have had to rely on innovative state and local programs to address our housing needs. Land Bank participation in the Fenway Little City Hall project is important to the development of affordable cooperative units."

Total development costs are expected to exceed $3 million. In addition to the Land Bank, financing sources include UDAG, member equity (co-op shares), syndication proceeds, the Neighborhood Development Fund and the Browne Fund.

Most recently owned by the City of Boston, this historic landmark, built in 1904, was designed in the Beaux Arts style by prominent turn-of-the-century Boston architect Guy Lowell, who also did the Museum of Fine Arts.

PARKS AND RECREATION OFFERS FREE SOCCER CLINICS

The Parks and Recreation Department will offer FREE structured soccer clinics in neighborhood parks throughout the month of July. These soccer clinics for young Boston residents, ages ten to eighteen, will be held at the following sites:

Boston Common, Tuesday, July 31 at 6 p.m.

East Boston, Noyes, Wednesday, August 1 at 6 p.m.

Dorchester, Wainwright, Thursday, August 2, at 6 p.m.

Each soccer clinic will provide an overview of this exciting sport. Introductory training, "trapping" with the head, chest and feet will be highlighted, as well as shooting versatily with both feet.

Boston native Robert Barsamian, former youth soccer coach, will lead the group of instructors for the program. His long list of soccer credentials includes playing professionally for the New York Cosmos and the first American signed for a Swedish pro soccer team.

The soccer clinics will culminate in a Round Robin-Inter-Neighborhood tourney in August. For information, call Dorothy Curran at 725-4006.

MAYOR FLYNN ENCOURAGES BOSTON YOUTH TO SEEK JOBS AT DES

NO. 32

BOSTON-STATE "TAG" PARTNERSHIP

Boston to run Skills Training and Job Placement Programs for Refugees.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced a new Refugee Skills Training Program designed to serve the culturally varied refugee population in Boston. The program, created and administered by the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) and the Boston Private Industry Council (BPIC), is funded through Targeted Assistance Grant (TAG) from the Federal Office of Refugee Resettlement. Over $700,000 has been committed to the project which will serve a minimum of 300 refugees by June, 1985.

In announcing this program Mayor Flynn said, "The City of Boston is committed to providing skills training and job placement opportunities for our refugee citizens in order to allow them equal opportunity for self-sufficiency and livelihood in this country."

It is estimated that approximately 100,000 entrants and refugees have settled in Massachusetts since 1975. Current figures on refugee arrivals (YTD 1983) from the Massachusetts Office of Refugee Resettlement reflect the influx of Indochinese in the state of Massachusetts. Sixty-six percent of refugees originated from Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos, while Czechoslovakians comprised the next largest group at 14 percent. Over 50 percent of refugees arriving in Massachusetts since 1975 have settled in Boston. At the same time, there are approximately 7,000 Indo-Chinese refugees in Boston.

The City of Boston is pleased to participate in such city-state partnerships through the TAG program which would not be possible without this mutual cooperation, Mayor Flynn said. "These funds serve as leverage to effect institutional change and will provide the groundwork for the many different community organizations and agencies committed to providing quality, cost-effective services to Boston's refugees."

NDEA and the PIC have established the following goals for the Targeted Assistance plan:

To increase the economic self-sufficiency of Boston's refugee population through the development and implementation of quality Skills Training/Occupational English as a Second Language programs.

- To decrease the welfare dependency of Boston's refugee population by targeting services to individuals who are most in need of service; including those receiving Refugee Assistance Funds, welfare or other public assistance.

- To develop capacity-building projects which will aid the refugee in business creation and expansion efforts such that the needs of the target population, as well as the refugee community as a whole, will be met.

- To provide career awareness, part-time work experience and job development services for refugee youths who are preparing to enter the workforce.

NDEA Director Paul Gorgan said, "This grant is enabling Boston to provide essential programs for our refugee population; programs which are important for the economic, physical and emotional well-being of these people. It is our intention to encourage innovative, non-duplicative efforts that will be encompassed into a coordinated system of refugee services — from initial resettlement and acculturation to eventual skills training, job placement and self-sufficiency which will be of lasting benefit to the refugee population."

Daniel Lam of the state office of Refugee Resettlement said, "The needs of the state's culturally diverse refugee population are many and varied. With comprehensive programs such as this one in Boston we can help to make the transition into American society easier for these refugees. Integration into our nation's economy is important for both the refugees and the cities and states where they settle. TAG will provide the initial funding to begin building comprehensive, networking programs which address these issues."

Five organizations are participating in the training aspect of the TAG Refugee Skills Training Program. They include:

- Chinese Occupational Training Center (sponsored by the Chinese-American Civic Association, Vocational English Employment Program and Quincy Community School Council) which will conduct electronics assembly training and English language courses.

- Bunker Hill Community College which offers electronics technician training and intermediate English language training.

- Action for Boston Community Development which offers accounting/bookkeeping and intermediate English language training

- Adams and Abbott, Inc. which offers print production courses.

- Chinese-American Civic Association which offers English as a Second Language office skills courses.

Direct job placement services will be provided by the Boston Job Exchange, a free placement service sponsored by the NDEA/PIC.

MAYOR APPOINTS ROBERT M. KRIM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the appointment of Roxbury Community College Management Professor Robert M. Krim, of Jamaica Plain, as Deputy Director of Personnel for Human Resource Development. Mr. Krim will be working under Director of Personnel Frank Doyle.

The former president of Roxbury Community College, Kenneth Haskins said of Krim, "Bob was known throughout the college as an individual with a deep concern for students. He was not only considered an excellent teacher, but he was also accessible and supportive." Krim began teaching at RCC during its second year, and has been given a leave of absence by the college to work with Mayor Flynn's administration.

Mayor Flynn's commitment to improve the quality of services in the city, while at the same time work within tight fiscal restraints, has prompted the administration to implement a new, participative approach to city employees and their unions. Mr. Krim's job will be to develop a different approach to employee morale and labor-management relations. He has already been working closely with Director Frank Doyle to formulate several new proposals.

As Deputy Director of Personnel for Human Resource Development, Bob Krim will be working with municipal unions to develop so-called worksite groups, modeled on the quality circles which are becoming increasingly popular in private business. These worksite groups will meet regularly to discuss work-related issues and make proposals to management. The group meetings, says Krim, would improve work and the quality of their service or product within the city's financial means.

The Mayor said, "Bob Krim comes to this position with a strong background in management and labor. With an M.B.A. from Boston College, an M.A. in Economics, and a Harvard degree, he has worked for years on developing new approaches to employee morale and labor relations to improve public sector services."

Robert Krim stated, "This 'work-improvement program' needs to tap the one resource that can help solve service-quality and budgetary problems: the city employee who is on the front line—the secretary, the hospital orderly, the maintenance-yard mechanic."

For the past decade, Robert Krim has been a faculty member at Roxbury Community College, serving as the first Business Department chair and as president of the faculty union. He has taught a range of courses including Management, Labor Organizing, Finance, Economics, and a course on the "Housing Squeeze for Boston's Minorities."

"Bob Krim's work as department chair at Roxbury Community College," said William Torbert, Dean of Boston College's Graduate School of Management, "may have been the best training ground for changing the approach to the city workforce. He has demonstrated leadership skills and an ability to get groups to work through problems so that they can achieve excellence."

According to Doyle, the Mayor has asked the Personnel Division to come up with an approach toward employees which implements a view of respect toward the employees, and efficient service delivery. "I got to know Bob," said Mr. Doyle, "and became familiar with his background in employee relations and labor this spring. He seems a perfect match to carry out Mayor Flynn's mandate to the Personnel Division."

Krim, thirty-six, is a Boston area native and a long-time Jamaica Plain resident, where he is a member of the Neighborhood Development Coalition and the Democratic Ward 199 Committee. During the transition, Mr. Krim headed the Mayor's task force on morale and Employee Relations in City Services. The recommendation the task force included working with municipal unions to improve morale and services; and to form strong productive partnerships with management schools and with businesses.

Deputy Director Krim will also be working closely with Personnel Director Frank Doyle and other Personnel Division employees to improve the training system for new city employees and to expand the employee assistance programs that aid employees with alcohol, drug, and stress problems.

MAYOR MEETS WITH NEIGHBORHOOD LEADERS

On the following dates and locations there will be meetings to discuss the creation of Neighborhood Councils. Mayor Raymond L. Flynn's Office of Community Participation is the sponsor of the meetings which take place on August 6, 1984, at 7 p.m. at St. Ann's Church, 1548 Blue Hill Avenue, Roslindale; August 7, Roslindale Congregational Church, 25 Cummins Highway, Roslindale; August 9, Agassiz Community School, 20 Child Street, Jamaica Plain; August 13, Harriet Tubman House, 566 Columbus Avenue, South End; August 15, University of Mass., 250 Stuart Street, Boston; on August 15, East Boston Community School, 200 D Street, Boston. All of these meetings start at 7 p.m.

All neighborhood residents are strongly encouraged to attend. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the role, responsibility and the process of Neighborhood Councils. The councils will be designed to encourage active community involvement in decisions which will affect the neighborhood, including the delivery of services and economic planning and development.

Mayor Flynn said, "We want to ensure community input on the decisions affecting their neighborhoods. We will have a dialogue in order to guarantee that the decisions made at City Hall are

The Mayor's Office of Community Participation has already sent out over 100 questionnaires to neighborhood residents across the city who were involved in the planning process and attended the eighteen "Neighborhood Meetings," and participated in the ongoing Clean-Up campaign in their neighborhoods. MAYOR PROCLAIMS "TASTE OF TEXAS DAY"

Noting the similarity of pronunciation of Austin and Boston, but declining to identify "which city's residents speak the English language with a Texas accent" Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, on July 25, proclaimed as "Taste of Texas Day" in Boston.

Mayor Flynn received Texas Commissioner of Agriculture Jim Hightower in the Eagle Room at City Hall.

Hightower is in town as part of his department's effort to promote a wide variety of food products grown in Texas. Admitting that "Texas varied cuisines are unfamiliar to most New Englanders," the Mayor hoped that the day's ceremony would give Bostonians a greater exposure to delicacies from the Lone Star State, which range from pinto beans to peanut brittle. Highlighting the Eagle Room reception, the Mayor featured chili and fajitas, presented the Mayor with a certificate bearing upon him the title of "Honorary Texas Food Inspector."

The Taste of Texas promotion introduced New England food buyers to more than forty varieties and brands of Texas products. The Mayor was quick to point out that "Bostonians have always been receptive to revolutionary ideas" including mesquite-smoked barbecue and pickled okra in these categories.

The Eagle Room reception was followed at 6:30 p.m. with a Taste of Texas food show held at the Great Dome of Faneuil Hall.

BOSTON SUMMER YOUTH OLYMPICS

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn hosted the second in a series of athletic competitions which comprise the Boston Summer Youth Olympics. These events took place at the Jamaica Plain High School. The Youth Olympics is an ongoing program which has brought together hundreds of Boston boys and girls, ages eight to fourteen, who have participated in a variety of athletic activities.

The Youth Olympics are sponsored by an array of individuals and groups, including Sherman Hart, head of the International Track Club; the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association; the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston; and the Boston Community Schools program. Mayor Flynn hailed the Olympics as "an excellent opportunity to bring together young people from all parts of our city. Children from South Boston and Roslindale, in neighborhoods from Roxbury to Chinatown and provided with valuable lessons in healthy competition and cooperation which will last a lifetime."

The Mayor praised the sponsors of the events, singling out Sherman Hart, as well as the Patrolmen's Association. Of Hart and the International Track Club, the Mayor said "Sherman and the club have opened up a whole new world for our children. When I was young, I was grateful to be one of the very few who, through athletics, had an opportunity to meet people from all over the city. The goal of this administration is to give all of our youngsters the chance to come together in the spirit of fun and good sportsmanship." The Mayor also cited the Patrolmen's Association for their considerable involvement in the Summer Youth Olympics. He observed that "We often see the police only as those who work for public safety. Through these games, the people have had an opportunity to see these officers as community-minded individuals who really relate to the youngsters."

Mayor Flynn and the young athletes were joined by parents and other spectators for a post-competition cookout, where participants and fans alike had an opportunity to talk with the Mayor and the Youth Olympics' sponsors. In addition to the Jamaica Plain competition, the Boston Summer Youth Olympics will hold a day of athletic events in Roxbury (at Madison Park High School) at 10 a.m. on Monday, August 13. The Youth Olympics finals will take place on Saturday, August 25, at Roberto Clemente-Fens park. A cookout will follow each of the competitions.

MAYOR LAUNCHES SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn recently attended ceremonies at the Franklin Institute to launch a pilot scholarship incentive program called the "Mayor's Scholarship." The Mayor's Scholarship established by the Franklin Institute and Franklin Foundation will benefit a number of young men and women, who otherwise would be limited in their abilities to pay for the costs of higher education.

Twelve Boston high school graduates were awarded a scholarship certificate by the Mayor in recognition of their outstanding achievements. Some of these students overcame extreme adversities associated with poverty and other obstacles, in reaching the plateau on which they stand today. The average scholarship is $1,600 annually and a significant reduction in the student's tuition.

The Franklin Institute is a leader in the drive to provide community-based opportunities for advancement through high technology. Mayor Flynn told the fifty guests in attendance at the ceremony that, "This scholarship represents a golden opportunity for these young men and women, and for the City of Boston. The Franklin Institute will teach them the skills they need to make a decent living, and they in turn will help contribute to Boston's technological and industrial growth."

To date, more than $55,000 in scholarship money has been allotted for the program. That amount should double by the beginning of the school year. Any graduate of Boston city high schools is eligible for this charitable fund, according to the Franklin Foundation's C. William Anderson, who was present at the ceremonies. Also in attendance were Michael Mazzola, president of Franklin Institute, Paul Hellmutter, treasurer of the Board of Trustees, and Dr. Daniel Finn, Franklin Institute member.

MAYOR'S STATEMENT ON CITY'S RAPE INCIDENTS

I want to thank Councillor Laughlin and the Allston-Brighton Women's Issues Committee for their strong public advocacy around the issue of rape and sexual assault. It gives a real neighborhood commitment to work with my administration to make it absolutely clear that rape will not be tolerated in this or any neighborhood of the city; and that we will work together, along with the Sexual Assault Unit and the District Attorney's office to have the perpetrators apprehended and brought to justice.

Since the Sexual Assault Unit went into operation July 1, there have been twenty-nine cases of rape reported to the unit. Since July 1, there have been ten arrests, which is an extraordinary percentage. Three of the rapes took place since July 1 occurred in the Allston/Brighton area, and two of the suspected have been apprehended.

Our city is working under very tight restraints. But one area not cut, in fact, expanded, has been the Boston Police Department. We are already finding money well-spent. This commitment of funds to the sexual assault unit I believe, the best way the city can address this problem. The unit, through hard work, is already making friends in the neighborhoods. With a good record of apprehensions, people will have confidence in the unit, and more sexual crimes will be reported and pursued successfully.

To further prove my point, there was a preliminary hearing in West Roxbury on a rape that occurred in Roxbury that was reported to the Sexual Assault Unit. We have a composite sketch of a suspect in a rape that took place in early 1984 in the Allston/Brighton area that is solved as yet. With this composite sketch of the neighborhoods we may again be able to apprehend another suspect. We are planning to locate the permanent headquarters for the Sexual Assault Unit in the Brighton/Allston Police Station. We hope to have the second floor renovated and occupied within the next six months. The second floor of the building has never been fully utilized. I also remain firmly committed to maintaining the Brighton station as a full police station when funding is available and locating the Sexual Assault

Unit here does not preclude that in any way.

Alana Murphy, my Advisor on Women's Issues, is just completing an evaluation of resources available to rape victims in the city. This is a first step in a coordinated needs assessment which we will be doing with neighborhood groups and women's organizations throughout the city. We need to know what exists to aid victims in order to know what else is needed. Boston City Hospital, for example, set up the first rape crisis counseling center in the country, and continues to provide immediate crisis counseling along with Beth Israel and Brigham and Women's Hospitals, among others. The city is also taking a look to see if current housing security codes are being enforced. With the reform of management procedures in the Inspectional Services Department, this will be one of the first areas of concern addressed.

Finally, however, I want to say the city cannot do this alone. This is why we greatly appreciate the efforts made in this community, as in others to raise the issue. Neighborhood awareness goes a long way toward education about sexual assault and toward prevention. We hope the community groups will continue to work closely with the city and the Police Department to increase awareness of sexual assault, and to particularly look at the issue of sexual assault against children—crimes that still remain largely unreported. By being public, by working together, we can help prevent all sexual crimes from taking place.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Purchasing Division

Batteries

On January 31, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract to Alexander Battery Co., for furnishing batteries to the Police Department/Maintenance Unit.

The Purchasing Division has received a requisition from the Police Department to purchase add-on batteries for Motorola portable radios. Since the company has agreed to furnish these batteries at the same price as quoted last January, I feel no further purpose would be served by further public bidding.

Approval is therefore requested to award a contract to Alexander Battery Co., 1511 S. Garfield, Mason City, IA, in the amount of $4,568.00 for furnishing 100, NLN 6899, nickel cadmium, large batteries for Motorola HT220 slim-line radios at $19.40 each and 120, NLN8834, nickel cadmium, rapid-charge batteries for Motorola radios at $21.90 each, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Surplus Vehicles

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to General Services Administration, J. W. McCormack Building, Boston, in the amount of $8,800 - net, for purchasing the following surplus vehicles which are being sold by the Federal Government:

1979 Ford Fairmont Sedan (Serial #9K92Y237374), $2,900; 1980 Ford Fairmont Sedan (Serial #0E92A206507), $3,400; 1978 Dodge Carryall B200 (Serial #B22BB8X131224), $2,500.

These vehicles will be used to transport prisoners to and from various courts and hospitals by the Penitentiary Institutions Department. That department is in great need of vehicles and this purchase will enable them to fulfill this need at a reasonable cost. The vehicles have been examined and found to be in good operating condition.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Software Maintenance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Admins, Inc., 675 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, to the Treasury Department, in the amount of $7,500 net. This contract will cover a period of July 1, 1981, to June 30, 1982.

This contract will provide software maintenance for use on the Digital VAX minicomputers and will be used to greatly advance the receipting, analysis and reporting of all tax and non-revenue receipts by the city.

The cost of this contract has been reviewed and found to be reasonable, as this product is a unique item and is proposed to be part of a larger system. I feel no useful purpose would be served by public advertising.

This request is being submitted at this late date due to an oversight in not recalling the full terms of the original contract initiated December 15, 1980, intended to be renewed each year for a period of ten years.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Sodium Chloride

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On October 8, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a publicly advertised contract to Cargill Incorporated for the furnishing of sodium chloride, to the various city departments, in the amount of $24.29 per ton.

Cargill Inc. has informed me that due to a surplus and the expiration of its storage lease, that it would be possible to purchase 10,000 tons of sodium chloride at $22.29 per ton, at a cost below the present contract price of $24.29 per ton.

In view of the obvious substantial saving, it is my opinion that the best interest of the city would be served by awarding a contract to Cargill Inc. at its below contract price and that publicly advertising for bids would serve no useful purpose.

Your permission is therefore requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Cargill Incorporated, 191 Portland Point Road, Lansing, Michigan, 4882, in the amount of $222,900, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Apparatus Repair

Dear Sir:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award to Salami's Truck Center, 124 Norfolk Avenue, Boston, the task of performing certain repairs to Ladder 2, Fire 204.

Check rear end, R & R end, and rebuild as needed. Disassemble, replace gears and hardware, and rebuild.

The cost of the work described above is $2,652.63, which will be paid pursuant to the city's existing contract with this firm, contract No. 3366-83 for repetitive services for the fiscal year 1983. This contract requires the Mayor's approval for any single repair of $2,000 or more.

In my opinion the contractor is qualified to do the work herein described, inasmuch as Salami's Truck Center is thoroughly familiar with all type of work on said equipment. The price quoted for the work is reasonable and it does not appear that any lower price could be obtained by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,

George H. Paul,
Fire Commissioner.

INSPECTIONAL SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Razing of Building

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following building or structure has been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owner, but no steps have been taken to abate the dangerous condition. This building is a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:

353 Columbus Avenue, Ward 4. Emergency bid held Thursday, May 26, 1983, at 11:00 a.m. copy submitted to the Auditing Department.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 123.1 thereof, I have received your Honor's permission to enter this premises and to raze the building or structure.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the building or structure, but to break down their bids to show the charge against the address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder and have received the following:

Mystic Wrecking, $14,380; Franklin Crane, $16,770; Jay-Mor Wrecking, $16,777; Napoli Wrecking, $12,300.

Napoli Wrecking Co. has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

The Inspectional Services Commissioner considers the price of this contract as reasonable. Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding without advertising as required in the city charter of a contract in the sum of $12,300 to the Napoli Wrecking Co., 71 Proctor Street, Roxbury, MA 02119.

Very truly yours,

Anthony Pepicelli,
Inspectional Services Commissioner.

LAW DEPARTMENT

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the law firm Squire, Sanders and Dempsey (S, S & D), 1800 Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, 44115.

Under the terms of the contract S, S & D will provide the City of Boston the services specified in the letters annexed hereto. (See Exhibits A-C annexed hereto). These services will be rendered in connection with the case of City of Boston versus Jackson Construction Co., Dow Chemical Co., et al., Civil Action No. 54256. S, S & D is uniquely qualified to provide these services because of their expertise and experience in proving a very similar case against the Dow Chemical Co. S, S & D recovered a judgment of $30,000,000 against the Dow Chemical Company.

The term of the contract will be April 26, 1983, through June 30, 1983. Compensation shall not exceed $35,000 with billing rates as follows: James Porter, $200 per hour; Thomas Kilbane, $170 per hour; associate attorney Jack Lynch, $103 per hour and legal assistants Kevin Roberts and Anne Patterson $46 per hour. This award letter is being submitted late due to the late decision to retain outside counsel.

In view of the professional nature of the services to be performed I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

James P. McGuire, Corporation Counsel.

NDEA Training Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Sellers Incorporated, located at 153 Second Avenue, Waltham. Under the terms of the contract, the contractor will operate a ten-week training program that combines classroom instruction with actual hands-on experience in the institutional food preparation industry for ten CETA participants. The participants will be trained in the area of general sanitation and production systems (baking, salad making, etc.) and in the area of specialization which involves food purchasing, equipment and production planning. This training program will take place at Simmons College, 300 the Fenway, Boston.

The contractor was selected based on the fact that it is a leading employer of the food service industry and is capable of running a training program which will qualify workers for the fast-growing institutional food preparation sector. This program is being funded under the Boston Private Industry Council (BPIC) Business Partnership initiative.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title VII of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period June 1, 1983, through September 30, 1983, at a total cost not to exceed $25,000.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to United South End Settlements, Inc., a nonprofit organization located at 566 Columbus Avenue, Boston, for the purpose of providing a summer computer camp.

Under the terms of the contract the contractor will serve as the contract agent for a summer computer camp that will be operated by the Neighborhood Center for Youth. The program will serve 1,500 youth at a number of locations throughout the city. The contractor was selected based on an evaluation of its proposal submitted in response to a request for Proposal (RFP) conducted by the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency.

Compensation under the terms of this contract shall not exceed $27,368, payment being made from Year VII funds of the Community Development Block Grant program. The period of performance shall be from June 28, 1983, until August 6, 1983.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Project Analysis

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to the National Development Council, located at 12 Beverly Terrace, Randolph, to provide an analysis of specific CDBG-funded development projects including NCDB Loan packages, NDEA UDAG, EDAP projects, and other miscellaneous development activities which are CDBG funded.

The contractor was selected from eight proposals which were submitted in response to advertisements in the City Record and Boston Globe on September 5, 1982. After a careful review of proposals and an interview process the National Development Council was selected to enter into contract with NDEA.

The period of performance for this contract shall be from April 1, 1983, through March 31, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $24,000, which shall be paid from Community Development Block Grant funds. I believe the cost of these services is reasonable. This request is retroactive due to delays in the administrative process.

Since this award is based on a careful review of proposals submitted in response to a publically advertised Request for Proposals, I believe that further advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request permission to dispense with public advertising and to award the contract pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Financing Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract for $895,000 to the Economic Development and Industrial Corporation of Boston (the Contractor), a corporation organized under Massachusetts General Laws, chapter 1097 of the Acts of 1971 and located at 18 Tremont Street, Boston. Under the proposed contract the Contractor shall:

(A) implement the Demonstration Section 108 Financing Program established under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1961, as amended (the Act) by which the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) guarantees loans made by the Federal Financing Bank to units of general local government or the public agency designated by such unit (Contractor) for the acquisition, rehabilitation, development of real property for commercial, industrial purposes; and

(B) further capitalize a certain revolving loan fund to provide low interest, long term fixed assets to eligible industrial firms which are expanding, modernizing or relocating to the city; and

(C) provide certain administrative services for the planning and execution of community development activities pursuant to the Act.

Of the $895,000 in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Funds required under the contract as compensation, $500,000 shall be set aside by the city as a loss reserve as required by the Demonstration Section 108 Financing Program described under paragraph A above, to enable the city, through the Contractor, to obtain loans up to $500,000 with the Federal Financing Bank. These loans which will be further secured by the loan guaranteed by HUD, will give the city the needed capital with which to acquire, rehabilitate and develop real property for commercial or industrial purposes. After rehabilitation or development of the property will be leased or sold, subject to the mortgage, to industrial or commercial enterprises the resulting lease or mortgage payments will be used to pay the city's loan obligations to the Federal Financing Bank. This program provides the city with much greater flexibility in its efforts to develop new industry to Boston and encourage the city-based companies to remain and expand in the city. It is a valuable economic development tool which should have a significant impact on the city's economic growth. The city's participation in the Demonstration Section 108 Financing Program is dependent upon approval of the city's Amendment to its Year VII CDBG Application. Such approval is imminent, however, in the unlikely event of denial, the $500,000 set aside as a loss reserve will be added, through an amendment to the proposed contract, to those funds used to further capitalize the revolving loan fund described under paragraph B above.

The revolving loan fund referred to under paragraph C above, was established two years ago and has already proved to be successful and new program. The low-interest, long-term, fixed rate loans it offers are a considerable inducement to firms thinking of locating or expanding in the city. Under an agreement with the Contractor effective last year, Year VI CDBG funds are being used to help capitalize the revolving loan fund. Funds totaling $308,000 are now leveraging $2.2 million in private investment. Further capitalization is needed to both keep up with the increasing cost of funds and to enlarge this productive program.

The Administrative services provided by the Contractor, and described under paragraph C above, are in support of CDBG-funded activities. In addition, the Contractor provides extensive professional services in the areas of financial management, legal, marketing and administrative support to projects which include: the South End Industrial Park Project, Parcel 2; the Marine Industrial Park Economic Development Project; and the Contractor's Industrial Development Finance Program.

The contractor is uniquely qualified to perform the work called for under this contract. It is a professional development corporation which possesses extensive management experience in project packaging, implementation and management.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $895,000. The term of this contract shall be July 1, 1982, through September 30, 1982. Submission of this letter has been delayed due to prolonged negotiations between NDEA and cause of the unique qualification of the Contractor; the unusual nature of this transaction involving DBG Funds and the Demonstration Section Financing Program, and given the reasonable cost of services, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Reserve Fund

Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your approval to award a contract in the amount of $1,200,000 to the Boston Development Corporation (BLDC), a Small Business Administration approved not for profit corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with its principal offices at Tremont Street, Boston, for the establishment of a supplemental reserve fund (Reserve Fund) to be applied to debt obligations and operating expenditures in connection with the development of Building 114 and adjacent land at the former Boston Base.

Economic Development and Industrial Corporation of Boston (EDIC) which provides staff and technical support to the BLDC has received approval of the Mayor and the City Council for the economic development plan under which EDIC will acquire Building 114 and adjacent land and redevelop Sections B, C and D of the building and adjacent land as a center for job-intensive industrial operations (Project). The total cost of the project will exceed $14 million with a variety of funding sources contributing to the financial structure. These sources include an industrial development bond, a UDAG loan, an equity investment by the City, a partnership, and various other state and federal funds.

The contract which is hereby requested for award shall be funded with Community Development Block Grant funds and shall require that the BLDC place the Reserve Fund in trust with the State Street Trust and Trust Company of Boston as trustee (Trustee). The terms of the trust agreement shall require that the Reserve Fund be used upon demand of the Trustee solely for the purpose of meeting the BLDC's debt obligations on the Bond, and to cover operating expense deficits associated with the Project. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, through May 31, 1985. This request is made due to time required to finalize negotiation. The contract shall terminate upon the earlier of 180 days from the delivery of funds or the rental of 50 percent of the leasable space within the Project at Building 114 at certain specified rent levels. At the time the unused Reserve Fund plus any unexpended thereon shall be returned to the City of Boston.

The BLDC is uniquely qualified to perform the work under the contract due to its eligibility under 24 CFR Part 570.204(c) (4) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 as amended to establish a Community Development Block Grant supplemental reserve fund. BLDC is a not for profit development corporation with great experience in the loaning and management of public funds used to assist labor intensive companies remain and expand within the City of Boston. BLDC in conjunction with private lending institutions has already executed loan agreements with approximately twenty industrial and manufacturing companies totaling $30,000,00. In addition, BLDC is uniquely qualified because it is already extremely familiar with the Project through its staff's financial analysis of potential tenants and their periodic review and comment on the Project's overall financial structure.

Through the extra measure of confidence in the Project's success which this contract will provide to its lenders, the city has the opportunity to safeguard its already substantial investment of public funds and assure the creation of badly needed construction and permanent jobs. No useful purpose would be served by advertising.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Renovations

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to Shelter, Inc., a non-profit organization located at P.O. Box 516, Cambridge, MA 02139, for the purpose of undertaking renovations to a proposed family shelter facility at 656 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston.

Under the terms of the contract the contractor will undertake extensive exterior and interior renovation work to the building at 656 Massachusetts Avenue. Extensive masonry work is required to prevent further deterioration, as well as general interior and code-related improvements. Once completed, the building would be used as an emergency family shelter facility. The contractor was selected based on an evaluation of its proposal submitted to the Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency. In addition, the contractor has an excellent record in the operation of similar shelter programs.

Compensation under the terms of this contract shall not exceed $57,000, payment being made from Year VIII funds of the Community Development Block Grant program. The period of performance shall be from July 1, 1983, until June 30, 1984.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, based upon an extensive review of the submitted proposal, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

ATTENTION TO ALL BIDDERS

1. Minority Business Requirements

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 30 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the Minority Business Enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the Directory, he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

Bidders seeking information pertaining to the City of Boston's Affirmative Action and Minority Business Enterprise Utilization requirements are invited to attend prebid conference to be held on August 20, 1984, at 10 a.m., in Room 714, City Hall. RAYMOND L. FLYNN

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY

76 MONDAY, AUGUST 13, 1984 NO. 33

MAYOR ANNOUNCES BOSTON'S FIRST DESIGN CENTER

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced that Boston will be the home of an innovative regional design center and furnishings mart for the New England area. Boston Design Center, the city's first, will be housed at EDIC/Boston's Boston Industrial Park (BMIP) in South Boston, where a press conference was Mayor Flynn said, "This development is long overdue. It will consolidate under one roof showroom space for the furnishings industry, keeping those businesses in the city and attracting new ones to our city and creating a ripple effect of economic growth. With this center located under one roof we will also see more visitors and business people from outside the city coming to Boston to do business here at the same time, saving money here, and adding to Boston's economic vitality.

"Design Center," the Mayor continues, "will also retain 779 jobs and create up to 400 new ones. It is hoped that most of these sorely needed jobs will go to the people in Boston's neighborhoods, in particular to South Boston where the design center will be located. Jobs bring stability to our neighborhoods, and the Boston Design Center is part of my ongoing commitment to bring the benefits of development to Boston's neighborhoods."

The Design Center project will include the renovation of sections of the former South Boston Army Base, creating 322 full-time construction jobs, and when completed, will offer showroom space for manufacturers and wholesalers of office and residential furnishings, upholstery, lighting, appliances and accessories for the home workplace. The center is an example of the Mayor's and the Economic Development Corporation's (EDIC) commitment to keeping and creating jobs in Boston. Marilyn Swartz Lloyd, director of the EDIC said, "The Boston Design Center is a unique opportunity to revitalize the furnishings industry, Boston's furniture workers, and further revitalization of this prime industrial area. Recent efforts have already brought more than thirty companies and 1,300 jobs to the BMIP."

Developers Richard A. Flier Interiors and the Dallas Market Center, a subsidiary of Crow Company, are taking a major step in developing the center to retain existing firms and attract the regional furnishings industry back to Boston. Mayor Flynn has applied for a $3,800,000 Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). This grant will allow EDIC to loan to Flier Interiors the full amount needed to complete the financial package and the needed leverage for the private investment. The $20,000,000 project will begin construction in January, 1985.

Congressman Joseph Moakley, who was instrumental in the purchase of the former Boston Army Base in 1983 said, "I'm very pleased that the BMIP will become the new home of the Boston Design Center. It marks another chapter in the almost decade-old transformation of the former South Boston Navy and Army Base into a thriving, exciting urban industrial park and center for trade and commerce." Senate President William M. Bulger and Representative Michael F. Flaherty (D-S.Boston), both active supporters of the Boston Marine Industrial Park, also applauded the project.

MAYOR URGES PUBLIC HOUSING VOTER REGISTRATION

ing project in Brighton. There are 55,000 public housing residents in Boston, 15,000 of them are being targeted in this drive.

Mayor Flynn said, "The effort to register public housing tenants will involve all the public housing tenant task forces in the city. This will be a joint effort, coordinated by the tenants and by the city's Election Department and the Mayor's Office of Community Participation. It's an important election year, and I want the city to provide to every individual every opportunity to register."

Every head of household in the twenty-three housing projects that will hold the registration drives has been contacted by mail in their rent bills. In addition, flyers will be distributed by members of the tenant task forces in each project that will have very specific voter registration information for that project.

The Mayor noted that as a general statement in the United States, the poorer you are, the less likely you are to vote. Throughout this century, almost one-half of the potential electorate, concentrated in the least well-off, have not voted. Nationwide, 35 percent of the eligible electorate are not registered to vote.

There are approximately 150,000 unregistered voters throughout Boston, or approximately 30 percent unregistered. It is also believed that half of the unregistered voters are Hispanic. Already under way is a joint effort of the city with Hispanic churches to conduct voter registration on Saturdays and Sundays throughout the summer and fall at church sites in the Hispanic communities.

The Election Department will also send registrars to all public and private high schools in the fall, neighborhood health centers, and Boston City Hospital on a regular basis. It will also honor any reasonable request for a registration site. Any physically disabled person may call or write the Election Department and a registrar will come out and register that person to vote. The final day to register for the September 18 primary is August 21. The final day to register for the November 6, election is October 9.

The text of the Mayor's announcement follows:

I am very pleased to announce a joint effort of the city with the Public Housing Tenant Task Forces to register voters in twenty-three public housing projects in Boston. As we all know, 1984 is an extremely important election year. It is one of the best opportunities to let your voice be heard on national and international issues because this year we elect not only a President but a new Senator as well. As Mayor, I want to do everything that I can to see that every citizen of the city has an opportunity to register and to vote in these critical elections.

The effort to register public housing tenants will be led by the Public Housing Tenant Task Forces, aided by the city's Election Department and the Mayor's Office of Community Participation. Every head of Household in the projects has been notified of the registration drive, and in each project flyers will be distributed, and task force members will go door to door to see that unregistered voters have the opportunity to register.

Already under way is a joint effort of the city with Hispanic churches to conduct voter registration on Saturdays and Sundays throughout the summer and fall at church sites in the Hispanic Communities. We are also honoring other requests for voter registration in the neighborhoods.

In the United States, the poorer you are, the less likely you are to vote. In elections throughout this century, almost one-half of the potential electorate concentrated in the least well-off sections of society have not voted. Nationwide, 35 percent of the eligible electorate are not registered to vote. Voter registration is important for many reasons. The most significant is that it gives those who feel disenfranchised from the political process a chance to participate directly in it.

SUMMERWORKS PROGRAM BENEFITS HUB YOUTHS

Two thousand six hundred Boston youths, aged fourteen to twenty-one, recently began summer jobs throughout the city as "Summerworks," Boston's Summer Youth Employment and Training Program, began its 1984 season. Recent passage of federal legislation to increase program funding increased the number of jobs from 1,900 to 2,600.

Sponsored by the city's Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA) and operated by Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD), the program provides 2,600 economically disadvantaged youths with jobs and educational experiences for the next seven weeks.

Youths in the Summerworks program will be working at more than 400, non-profit public and private agencies earning $3.35 per hour for a seven-week period. Positions include day care assistants, patient escorts, clerk-typists, and receptionists in recreation facilities, museums, hospitals, day care centers, and a wide variety of offices. The program has historically included a strong career development component with youths attending workshops on such topics as finding and keeping a job.

This year the program incorporated a pilot program partially sponsored by the Ford Foundation with technical assistance from the Corporation for Private Ventures. The extended education program addresses growing national concern over a high school dropout rate that approaches 50 percent in many urban systems throughout the nation. T MODERNIZES KENDALL STATION

State Transportation Secretary Fre derick P. Salvucci and MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary joined other federal, state MBTA and Cambridge of ficials in ceremonies breaking ground for modernization of Kendall Station on the Red Line.

The $7.6-million restoration of Ken dall Station is one phase of an $80-mil lion program to modernize older stations on the Red Line from Harvard Square to Andrew Station.

Over the next two years, work crews will lengthen the platform at Kendall by 140 feet; build two new, glass-enclosed headhouses (above-ground entrances) with escalators and elevators for people with special needs; and add new light ing and electrical systems to the interior of the station.

By 1986, when new Red Line cars are scheduled to debut on the line, all Red Line station platforms will be capable of accommodating six-car trains. Harvard and Charles stations have already been lengthened. Still to be done are: Cen tral, Park, Washington, South Station, Broadway and Andrew.

"Station modernization is one ele ment of a multi-million dollar effort by the MBTA to upgrade and improve serv ice on the Red Line," said O'Leary. "By 1986, with new and rebuilt cars, re placement of worn cables and track, and longer trains, Red Line riders will see a substantial improvement in serv ice."

Salvucci added, "The Kendall area has seen a resurgence of development in recent years, bringing more jobs and revenue to Cambridge. Improved Red Line service and an attractive station will help support that growth."

Among the invited guests expected to be present at the groundbreaking were Alfred DelliBovi, deputy adminis trator of the Urban Mass Transportation Administration; Richard Doyle, regional administrator of the Urban Mass Trans portation Administration; Mayor
Leonard J. Russell and City Manager
Robert W. Healy of Cambridge; State Senators George Bachrach and Joseph Walsh; State Representatives Charles Flaherty, Peter Velucci, Sandra Gra ham, Mary Jane Gibson, and Elizabeth Metayer; Councillors Daniel Clinton and Walter Sullivan.

Kendall Station, named for a well-known deacon and businessman of the 1850s, was part of the original Red Line built between 1909 and 1912. At that time, it was called the Cambridge Con nector or the Main Street Subway.

One unique feature of the new station will be a five-part musical sculpture, the Kendall Band, by artist Paul Matisse of Groton, Mass. It will hang in the space between the inbound and outbound train tracks; each part of the band has a handle located on the platform which when pulled by a passerby, activates a particular member of the band.

Matisse was commissioned by the MBTA, and chosen through Arts on the Line, a program of the Cambridge Arts Council, which assures community par ticipation when new stations are rebuilt on the MBTA. So far, Arts on the Line has commissioned thirty-six artists for fifteen new and modernized stations on the Red and Orange Lines.

MAYOR FLYNN CRITICIZES ELDERLY HEALTH CARE CUTBACKS

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn said, "Federal cutbacks in health insurance are robbing our senior citizens of the help and comfort they have earned."

According to research by Boston Elderly Affairs Commissioner Michael Taylor, elderly Americans now pay 15 percent of their incomes for health care. This is the same percentage they paid prior to the enactment of Medicare. They must cover more of their care through out-of-pocket payments for increased deductibles, co-payments, and private insurance premiums. By the year 2000, they will spend 20 percent of their incomes for health care.

The Mayor said, "These cuts have forced the elderly to choose between going without needed medical attention or without other necessities of life. The government's turning its back to the elderly has had an especially sharp impact on Boston, the city with the nation's poorest and oldest elderly population."

"We are creating a crisis that can be avoided by a compassionate and reasonable program of health insurance for our senior citizens."

According to Taylor, the Reagan Administration has attempted to cut health costs by shifting them to the patients rather than by containing increases.

The Mayor pointed out that recent reforms will shift $20 billion in health costs from the government to the elderly by forcing them to pay for more care through private insurance plans. Reductions in federal support for Medicare, the primary health program for the elderly, have forced elderly people to pay for services through the private Medex program. Elderly Commissioner Taylor said Blue Cross/Blue Shield has reported that one-third of recent increases in Medex rates are attributable to Medicare cuts. During the past four years, the cost of Medex premiums has risen 60 percent for the elderly.

The Mayor added, "We need a comprehensive effort to contain costs. We can provide good health services for the poor elderly at a reasonable cost. Shifting the burden to those least able to pay is a coverup of the need to reduce expenditures through containing costs."

Elderly people are being discharged earlier from hospitals as a result of federal policy. At the same time, the policy has restricted support for in-home care. The Mayor said the elderly are more likely to be readmitted to the hospital.

"Restricting home care, while shortening the average hospital stay for the elderly, provides inadequate care for them while helping to drive up the overall cost," Mayor Flynn said.

"Our elderly citizens have earned the right to security in their lives. They must not be forced to bear the burden of the misguided priorities of the federal government."

MAYOR VISITS DOOR TO DOOR TO PREVENT ILLEGAL DUMPING

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn recently went door to door in Dorchester to tell neighborhood residents the city needs their help to prevent illegal dumping.

The vacant lot (one of the largest in Boston) on the corner of Erie and Elington Streets in Dorchester was cleaned up during the Spring Clean-Up Campaign in May. Since that time, illegal dumping has taken place again, and this week the city will spend $45,000 to remove the construction debris and trash in the lot.

Mayor Flynn said, "This trash we see here is a direct result of people from outside this neighborhood coming in and dumping their refuse because they think they can get away with it. We are going door to door to tell people that with their help, this can be prevented. Without vigilant eyes in our neighborhoods, outside dumpers will continue to violate laws, and continue to make our neighborhoods eyesores and a hazard."

The Mayor talked to residents and distributed flyers which asked them to record a license plate number and any name on the truck or vehicle. The phone number to call from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. if illegal dumping is suspected is 725-3307; and 5 p.m. to 9 a.m. call 725-4000.

"Although the Spring Clean-Up Campaign officially ended in May," said Mayor Flynn, "we are in constant contact with the neighborhoods about their involvement in keeping their communities clean. Attitudes within neighborhoods have changed and people are taking pride in keeping their areas clean. We will also be announcing before too long a legislative package that will put new teeth into the current illegal dumping.

"We mean it," concluded the Mayor when he said Boston's neighborhoods won't stand for any garbage."

MAYOR FLYNN HOLDS HEARINGS ON ARSON

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced that the city's Arson Prevention Commission and the Boston Fire Department will schedule neighborhood hearings as part of the effort to develop a community-based arson prevention strategy.

"Arson has devastated many neighborhoods in this city in the past 10 years. It has killed innocent people. In the last several months, we have placed the first pieces of our program to stop the burning and start the rebuilding of our neighborhoods."

"Building fires have been greatly reduced in the first six months of this year compared with 1983. We have established a nine-member Arson Prevention Commission with people drawn from all over Boston's neighborhoods. I appoint Fire Commissioner, Leo D. Stettin, who has expanded the Arson Prevention Program and who has committed himself to working with neighborhoods."

"Now we will be going out to the neighborhoods that have been hit by arson, to continue the process of establishing community groups on the basis of our prevention efforts," Mayor said.

Dorchester, Roxbury, South Boston, East Boston, and Jamaica Plain are some of the neighborhoods that have experienced rashes of arson in the past few years.

The Mayor said, "The key to arson prevention is communication. We will establish a system to allow community groups to feed information to the Fire Department and other law enforcement agencies."

"We also will coordinate information among city agencies. Like the City Treasurer and the Building Department, who can play an important part in predicting where arson may occur."

Research on arson over the past decade has indicated that many types of arson can be predicted and prevented through the compilation of information such as patterns of building ownership.

quency, and upward and downward trends in housing values in neighborhoods.

AFFORDABLE RENTAL HOUSING STUDY

or Raymond L. Flynn has released a study that documents the affordability in the city's rental housing market.

The report, researched and written by consulting consultant Emily P. Achtenberg, is entitled, "Preserving Affordable Housing in Boston: Analysis of Recent Market Trends and Policy Options."

Presented at a press conference at a senior citizen center in the North End, Mayor Raymond L. Flynn called the study a "comprehensive statistical picture of Boston's housing market." The study's statistics, he observed, documents the various problems that threaten the city of Boston and its residents.

The fifty-four page study examines the changing housing market in terms of supply, demand, vacancies, and overall affordability. It also describes the "patchwork" history of housing regulation in the city.

The report found that in recent years housing has become "a more difficult market for low-and moderate-income families to live and work." It found "The growing problem of residential displacement has not only created hardship for individual households and families, but has disrupted the entire social fabric of once-stable neighborhoods."

The report also revealed that "The increasing shortage of decent, affordable housing serves to 'limit the share of housing that can be captured' by Boston residents."

Among the key findings in the fifty-four page study are:

- Only one percent of Boston's families own their homes.
- 60 percent of its elderly households live in rental housing.
- 80 percent of its minorities live in rental housing.

- The median rent for all advertised rental units is $528 per month. This represents a 16 percent increase in one year while operating costs rose 3 to 4 percent in the same period.

- Only one-third of the city's renters pay less than the median rent.

- The average renters seeking or planning to move today, would have to pay 40 to 60 percent of their incomes for an apartment.

- Only 2 percent of all advertised apartments rent for less than $300, while more than 35 percent rent for over $600.

- Only 20 percent of all renters can afford the median-priced condominium, which sells for $62,375.

- The rental vacancy rate has declined dramatically in recent years. The U.S. Postal Service Survey, published by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, found that the rate had declined from 3.1 percent in 1980 to 2.0 percent in February, 1984.

- Condominium conversions, initially found in downtown neighborhoods, have spread to every neighborhood in the city. Most have contributed to a steep decline in the supply of affordable housing.

Achtenberg has an extensive background in housing research. She has conducted studies for the Citizens Housing and Planning Association and the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency. She holds a master's degree in urban planning from MIT and has taught urban studies at MIT and Tufts University.

CITY'S NONRENEWAL PROGRAM REINSTITUTED

The city's Traffic and Parking Department has announced that the Office of the Parking Clerk has reinitiated the Nonrenewal of Driver's License and Motor Vehicle Registration Program in conjunction with the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles. Assistant Parking Clerk, Bruce Graubert says that the city has not sent tickets to the state for holding since July 1983, and he believes there are still 100,000 tickets still there awaiting payment.

Under the newly reinstated program, individuals and companies will be required to pay the outstanding parking tickets owed to the city in order to renew their licenses and/or registrations. Additionally, a $10 per ticket registry fee will be assessed and collected by the city on behalf of the state.

Traffic and Parking Commissioner, Lisa Chapnick, said, "When this program is fully implemented, it will generate between $3 and $4 million in revenue on a yearly basis. Its primary purpose is to bring in money into the city and to see that we mean business in seeing that outstanding tickets be paid."

The Office of the Parking Clerk, over the next few weeks will refer to the state's Registry of Motor Vehicles 150,000 to 180,000 tickets which are assigned to approximately 50,000 registrants. The individuals and companies responsible for these tickets have been sent at least two and in some cases three notices, and have failed to dispute them or make payment.

Individuals and companies can call and request information on outstanding tickets. By paying tickets now before they are sent to the registry, the individual and company can save themselves the $10 assessment fee. For information call (within the Boston area) the phone bank number at 725-4410, and (outside the Boston area) call 1-800-442-1850, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

July 31.

General Order No. 51

I. PERSONNEL TRACKING SYSTEM

Commencing 0800 hours, August 1, 1984, the Personnel Tracking System will be field-tested for a short period. Both the 13D and the 13D.1 will be filled out and forwarded by company officers. Disbursed with this order are the company forms.

The PTS will be operated and maintained by the Personnel and Safety Divisions.

The PTS was designed to handle the department's personnel tracking needs, i.e., overtime, acting out of grade, sick leave, injured leave, etc.

The PTS Form 13D.1 is preprinted for each company, and before the first of each month a package of these forms will be sent to each company for use during the upcoming month. These forms will be used only for the month for which they are pre-printed.

Any corrections in a member's name or social security number shall be forwarded to the Personnel and Safety Offices via a Form 5A.

The order in which the names of members are printed are arranged for ease of data entry. No changes in this sequence shall be made in the field. The fact that a member's name is printed in a specific work group does not preclude his work group from being changed at any time by the company commander. In this case, the member will be recorded on duty in his printed position when the group he is assigned to is on duty. Company commanders shall notify the Personnel and Safety Offices of any changes in a member's "regular" group, as is now the practice. The upcoming months 13D.1 Forms will reflect these changes.

The back of the 13D.1 shall be used to record the company's runs, as is the current practice.

The 13D.1 Format:

The 13D.1 has been designed for ease of use and accuracy in reporting. The key to using the PTS properly is to enter the appropriate codes for what member's status is for each tour.

The tour section of the form contains the same information that is currently entered on the 13D Morning Report. This information shall be entered as is currently done, leaving the following day's strengths open to be entered by the officer forwarding the report the next morning.

The PTS is based on recording five digits of information per member per tour (10 per day): one Digit — Duty Status; one Digit — Pay Status; three digit — Assignment.

Duty Status — When to Use:

0. Off Duty — As Sch. — Member is off duty, not sick, not injured, not suspended, not on other leave.

1. On Duty. Member is on duty, either as scheduled or overtime.

2. Off Duty — Swap. Self-explanatory.

3. On Duty — Swap. Self-explanatory.

4. Off Duty — Personal. Self-explanatory.

5. Off Duty — Vacation. Use this only when the member's regular group is working and he is on vacation or a compensatory tour.

6. Off Duty — Injured. Use this only when the injured member's regular group is working — at other times use "0."

7. Off Duty — Sick. Use this only when the sick member's regular group is working — at other time use "0."

8. Off Duty — Death Lv. Use this until the five days have been completed.

9. Off Duty — Special. Use when member is off duty due to department, union, or other special leave.

Pay Status — When to Use:

0. Regular Pay. — Use at all times except when one following Pay Status Codes apply.

1. 1.5X Overtime. Use when member is working an overtime shift at time and a half.

2. 2.0X Overtime. Use when member is working overtime on a contractual holiday (day and night tours of holiday).

3. Acting Out of Grade. Use for Acting Out of Grade on the tour that the member is actually working, and when a member is on injured leave from an injury received while working out of grade on the tours that group he was injured on is working, in combination with Duty Status "6."

4. Acting — Holiday. Use when Acting Out of Grade on a contractual holiday.

5. No Pay. — Use when a member is suspended or on other leave and receiving no pay.

Assignment Codes — When to Use:

000 to Assigned Company. — Indicates member is at his own company for tour involved whether he is on or off duty.

For detailed members refer to the PTS Code Sheet Form 13D.2 for proper Assignment Codes, replacing the "XX's" with the number of the company, district, or division to which a member is detailed.

Note: As with the Fire Reporting System, if a member's coding for a particular tour is all zeroes (0 00 000), leave the spaces blank. A member is off duty, as scheduled, leave blank.

Samples

A member is on duty working his day tour as scheduled with his assigned company: 1 0 000 0 0 000.

A member is on duty working his night tour but is detailed to Engine 33: 0 0 000 1 0 E33.

A member is on Death Leave: 8 0 000 8 0 000.

A member was injured while he was Acting Out Grade and the group he was working on is working the day tour: 6 3 000 0 0 000.

A captain is detailed as acting district chief in District 12 for the night tour and it is on a contractual holiday: 0 00 000 1 2 D12.

A member worked the day tour on a swap and is working the night tour on overtime. It is not a holiday: 3 0 000 1 1 000.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

August 1.

Company commanders shall make the above change on the UAAB assignment card.

COMMENDATIONS

On July 15, 1984, while conducting assigned in-service inspections, members of Engine Company 14 encountered numerous violations of a serious nature to the occupants in a large building complex converted into a rooming house. They immediately notified the officer in charge who corroborated said findings and returned to quarters to notify the District Fire Chief and the Fire Marshal's Office.

The District Fire Chief took immediate action by going to the Suffolk Superior Court Housing Department to obtain the necessary procedure to prevent the owner from operating the premises as a rooming house and ordered a fire detail to protect the occupants until legal action was possible. Because of their prompt action and dedication to duty, they prevented a serious life hazard from continuing.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend District Fire Chief Joseph Rorke, District 5, Fire Lieutenant John Evans, Fire Fighters Francis Byron, Douglas Powell, and Michael Buchanan of Engine Company 14 and makes this commendation a part of their personnel folder.

On July 15, 1984, while off duty, Fire Fighter Douglas Powell of Engine Company 14, assisted in hooking up and running line at a building 51 Norfolk Street.

Because of his dedication to duty, the Commissioner is pleased to commend Fire Fighter Douglas Powell of Engine Company 14 and this commendation a part of his personnel

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

NDEA

Lease of Premises

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Nathan R. Miller Properties, Inc., located at 6 Beacon Street, Boston, for lease of office space to the Neighborhood Development Employment Agency.

Under the terms of this contract, the agency will lease 2,000 square feet of office space at 11 Beacon Street, Boston, to the NDEA. The office space will be used for the storage of program files and excess N.D.E.A. furniture. Currently office space in the Boston costs between $14 and $18 per square foot per year. The rental rate for this office space is $14 per square foot, which is quite reasonable.

Compensation under the terms of this contract shall not exceed $15,000, payment to be made from Community Development Grant Funds. The term of this contract shall be July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

As this is a negotiated contract and I have cited above, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids and to award the contract pursuant to the City Record under the City of Boston Code § 22A.01.

Sincerely,

Paul S. G.

OFFICE OF HOUSING Housing Services

agreement, which will commence on September 1, 1983 and terminate on August 31, 1984 for the services which have been provided in accordance with earlier community development agreements.

On the basis of NHS expertise and experience in providing housing rehabilitation and improvement services, I feel that it is particularly qualified to perform the services delineated herein, and that the cost is reasonable. Moreover, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or lawful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Lease of Premises

Dear Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request permission to dispense with public advertising in the city for the lease of approximately 1,450 square feet of space in a building located at 932 Dorchester Avenue, Boston, and to enter into a lease with John T. Welch, 934 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester, for the premises. The premises are needed by this department as a local office for the residents of South Boston.

The proposed lease is for a term of one year, July 1, 1983 to June 30, 1984, with options on the part of the city to extend the term for an additional year. The rental fee is $600 per month, which I believe to be a reasonable cost.

In my opinion that nothing is to be gained by public advertising, as this location is suitable for the program activities.

Yours truly,
Joseph M. Courtney,
Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT Maintenance Services, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to South Boston Community Development Corporation, 160 Summer Street, Boston, for maintenance and recreation programming at Independence Park/Independence Park Association project under the terms of the Boston Partners in Urban Recreation program. This program is funded by a Department of Interior Urban Parks and Recreation Recovery Grant.

Under the terms of this proposed contract, South Boston Community Development Corp. will perform maintenance services of a labor intensive nature at the above facility and/or responsive neighborhood recreation programming.

Church of All Nations is especially qualified to do this work because of their established community orientation and their past demonstrated concern for their local parks and recreation facilities.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $2,730, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. This will be charged to the Boston Partners in Urban Recreation Grant, account number 38367-290. The term of this contract shall be from June 1, 1983, to April 30, 1984.

Due to the fact that Church of All Nations is a private non-profit corporation knowledgeable of the particular needs of the Elliot Park/Bay Village Neighborhood Association project and because our department has solicited aid of the nature they will provide, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, respectfully request that your permission be forthcoming to enter into this contract.

Sincerely,
Robert R. McCoy,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT Promotional Exams

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This department respectfully requests permission to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract for $10,000 to the consulting firm of Assessment Designs, Inc., 601 North Ferncreek Avenue, Orlando, FL 32803, for the purposes of developing a job related and valid promotional examination for the position of police sergeant. This is part one of a two-part contract covering fiscal years 1983 and 1984. The first part of the contract, for which this approval is requested is for job analysis and overall design of the selection system. The second part of the contract to be completed in fiscal year 1984 will be actual construction of the examination and validation study and the attendant statistical and adverse impact analysis.

This work is being done under the supervision of the Boston Police Department as a result of a court order entered in the case of MAAAP v. Jordan, a federal suit alleging discrimination in promotion practices. The test development process is being carried out pursuant to a delegation agreement reached with the Massachusetts Department of Personnel Administration (DPA), a copy of which is enclosed.

Assessment Design, Inc. was selected to do this work after careful solicitation and review of proposals from consultants nationwide. A detailed Request for Proposal (RFP) was prepared and approved by D.P.A. It was released to approximately 105 consulting firms, using a list of companies with experience in examination development work maintained by D.P.A. and supplemented by our own prior experience.

Within the prescribed response time to the R.F.P. seven proposals were received. They were reviewed, according to the criteria set forth in the R.F.P., (i.e. responsiveness of the proposal to the R.F.P., methods used to assure validity, professional experience, expertise and qualifications, proposed time frame, security and price) by a five-member review panel including two sworn and two civilian managers in the Police Department and a professional testing expert from the state D.P.A. The Assessment Design proposal was the unanimous choice of the selection panel as the most appropriate contractor. The proposals were also forwarded to counsel for the plaintiffs in the MAAAP v. Jordan case, who forwarded them to their selection expert. Plaintiffs' counsel has informed us that they concur that the Assessment Design proposal was the best.

Assessment Design has had substantial experience in the specialized field of police promotional examination development. They are currently performing work for the New York City Police Department of a similar nature to that to be performed here, under similar legal circumstances. New York City has been satisfied with their work and recently extended their contract to cover another promotional position.

In light of Assessment Design's substantial experience and qualifications, and in light of the extensive review process already undertaken, it is submitted that no useful purpose would be served by public advertising for this contract. I have determined that the contract price is reasonable for the work to be performed. The period of this contract is from May 16, 1983, to June 30, 1983.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT Lease of Premises

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with the public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the director, for Police Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the commission to the director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The demised premises consists of 10,256 square feet of vacant land located at the intersection of 1157-1177 Blue Hill Avenue and 702-704 Morton Street, Dorchester. Lessor: Berg Realty Trust, Blanche Goldman Trustee, Box 100, Brookline, MA.

The full term of the lease will be twenty-eight months beginning March 1, 1983, to June 30, 1985, subject to an annual appropriation being available therefor, with the initial term to be charged to fiscal 1983 for the period March 1 to June 30, 1983. The monthly rental will be $854.67 with the charge for this initial term not to exceed $3,418.68. I have determined that this cost is reasonable.

This letter is submitted subsequent to the commencement of the term of the lease as a result of the protracted and complex negotiations with the landlord.

Since this facility is both adequate and convenient, I feel that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Evaluation Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As Superintendent of the Boston public schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Public Affairs Research Institute, Inc. (P.A.R.I.), 49 Winchester Street, Newton Highlands. The contract shall be in effect during the period April 20, 1983, to September 30, 1983, and occur at a cost not exceed $9,720, which is deemed reasonable.

On February 8, 1982, the School Committee approved Project S.U.C.C.E.S.S. and Project C.H.I.L.D. for Title VII E.S.E.A. funds for $591,302 which included $10,000 to fund this contract. FY 83 funding terminates on September 30, 1983.

The contractor will provide the following evaluation services to be performed both at the Title VII Office and at designated sites serviced by these projects: Evaluation services will be provided according to the following schedule: Phase I — Planning; Phase II — Implementation Evaluation; Phase III Progress Evaluation; and Phase IV — Outcome Evaluation. Implementation of this phased evaluation will require that the following tasks be provided by P.A.R.I.: planning/design, instrumentation development, on-site interviews and observations, training courses review, records analysis, data analysis, and report preparation.

An RFP was developed by the School Department and sent to seven evaluation firms and two local universities. Based on the decision of a panel of School Department personnel, who reviewed the proposals submitted in response to the RFP, the contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because P.A.R.I., Inc. best met the specifications as outlined in the RFP.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This contract is being submitted late because (1) there had been a possibility that the evaluation could be conducted by existing School Department staff and the decision in an external evaluator was not made until March 21, 1983; (2) the solicitation and screening of proposals from prospective evaluators took from March 23, 1983, until April 13, 1983; and (3) the timelines of the evaluation process required that the services be initiated immediately following the decision of the Title VII evaluation screening committee.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation of funds under the provision of General Laws, ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grants from Title VII E.S.E.A., Project No. G00-82-02708 (Project C.H.I.L.D.) and Project No. G00-82-01476 (Project S.U.C.C.E.S.S.).

Very truly yours,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent of Schools.

Catering Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Spartan's Food Service, 625 Huntington Avenue, Boston, for providing catering services for the Citywide Parents' Council.

Under the terms of the contract, Spartan's Food Service will provide catering services for 250 persons to include: waiter/waitress service, tablecloths for fifty tables, appetizers, the main course, sandwiches and fruit.

The contractor is specially qualified to do this work because Spartan's Food Service is the contractor for the University of Massachusetts and has the expertise to perform the service satisfactorily.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $2,625, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The term of this contract shall be in effect May 27, 1983.

Because there is no charge for using the facilities of the University of Massachusetts/Roxbury Community College, and because UMass. and Spartan's Food Service have a contract in place at a reasonable cost, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

This contract is being submitted late due to the length of time it took to procure the necessary signatures.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Grass Seed, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Clapper Co., 1121 Washington Street, West Newton, for furnishing whiting and grass seed at an amount not to exceed $2,550. The School Committee of the City of Boston publicly advertised in the City Record on Monday, April 4, 1983, for furnishing grass seed whiting and field paste. There was no response to the advertised bid for two items. Marking paste was bid on and awarded to Lamont Labs. The Purchasing Department contacted Clapper Co. who was able to furnish both products at prices I deem reasonable.

The Clapper Co. is specially qualified to do this work and is a reputable firm with whom we have done business in the past. Because the contractor is able to meet our specifications at reasonable cost in order that deliveries are made as required, I feel no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Delivery will be made when contract is executed (approximate June 15, 1983).

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Paging System

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc., 170 Granite Avenue, Dorchester, for furnishing and installing a paging system and providing radios necessary for safety and security, and transportation programs for the period May 20, 1983, to June 30, 1983.

Under the terms of the contact, the contractor will a) install Tone and Voice pagers (including NICAD) rechargeable batteries and single-unit charges and b) provide security radios to be purchased with English High School based funds. Maintenance of all equipment under warranty is included. Installation of a paging system by Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc. will be provided for continued improvement of the quality and efficiency of service provided the schools by the Department of Planning and Engineering as well as the Office of the Engineer. The School Department owns, also, public advertising, an extensive configuration of stations, mobile and hand carried units manufactured and supplied by Motorola. The need for expansion, technical compatibility, interchangeability of units between and among various school users as needs dictate and similar maintenance, are compelling reasons to the communications system with Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc.

The contractor is specifically qualified in installing base stations adequate to permit radio communication throughout the city. Motorola has demonstrated excellent ability providing technical expertise for materials and trained personnel competent to service the equipment.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $76,150, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

Because the price basis is reasonable and competitive with other models of similar equipment, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Physical Exams

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston I request your authorization for the award of a contract to the Dorchester House Multi-Service Center. The contract shall be in effect during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, and occur at a cost not to exceed $5,067, which is deemed reasonable by the School Committee.

The contractor will provide the necessary level physical examinations and chapter 77C medical examinations for the students of the City of Boston Middle, Mather and O'Hearn Elementary Schools.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide these medical services because it is in close proximity to the designated schools. Many of the students attending these schools already receive primary care from the Dorchester House Multi-Service Center because it is the local health center and thus able to provide additional services to the school health services as it has sufficient staff to provide these services.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This contract is late in submission as the Dorchester House Multi-Service Center did not award this contract until full reimbursement was received for health services rendered during the 1982 school year; however the health services have been provided.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent of Schools.

Test Scoring Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As Superintendent of Boston public schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to The Psychological Corporation, 757 Third Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017, during the period May 27, 1983, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not exceed $8,400, which is deemed reasonable.

On August 27, 1982, the School Committee approved the proposal Chapter I Programs

ECIA chapter I funds for $9,865,681, included $8,400 to fund this contract. Contractor shall supply standardized test services and related statistical analyses to Department of Chapter I Programs, Office of Research and Evaluation, for the testing of student federally funded Chapter I projects, according to contract specifications.

Contractor is especially qualified to provide these services because the firm has the capability to provide the required professional services. Company is sole supplier of test materials and can offer relevant statistical services for program evaluation. Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, I have determined that the public interest would not be served by advertising for bids.

Contract is to be executed without an appropriation of funds under the provision of General Laws, ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the requirements under the grant for PL 97-35 ECIA Project No. 83-035-134, at no cost to the City.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent.

Consultant

Mayor:
Superintendent of the Boston public schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to George H. Harmon, 12 Marshall Road, Kingston, N.H. 03848. The contract shall be in effect during the period of April 1, 1983, to March 31, 1984, and occur at a cost not to exceed $9,900, which is deemed to be reasonable and will be at no cost to the city.

On January 18, 1983, the School Committee approved a proposal Entry-level Occupations in Micrographic Technology for the Deaf. The proposal is funded by the Bay State Skills Corporation for the time period April 1, 1983, to March 31, 1984, and provides $23,100 funding for contracts of this nature. Bay State Skills Corporation is an agency funded by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to provide skill training for the handicapped and unemployed. The total funding of the proposal is for $56,500 and it operates under reimbursement procedures.

The consultant will provide the following services at the Horace Mann School for the Deaf: 1) Direct instruction to deaf students in career development relating to jobs as micrographic technicians; 2) Related curriculum materials to the school for long-term use at the end of the project; 3) Arrange and implement site visits to micrographic companies that employ micrographic technicians; 4) Direct instruction to deaf students on the use of equipment to design micrographic systems and to analyze such systems; 5) Training to HMS vocational staff for long-term continuation of the program at the end of the project.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because Mr. Harmon is "The Father of Micrographic Technology" and he has extensive experience and success in establishing educational programs in Micrographics for handicapped students. The consultant has also been approved by Bay State Skills to provide such services. Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, I have determined that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Contract is being submitted late because the City Auditor required a copy of Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with original signature from Bay State Skills confirming the funding of the program. The auditor required a copy of the MOA to enable him to establish an account to encumber funds and process payments for the proposal without an appropriation of funds.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation of funds under the provision of General Laws, ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to receipt of funds under grant from Bay State Skills Corporation.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As Superintendent of the Boston public schools, I request your authorization of a contract to Terry Grobe, 6 Hawthorne Street, Belmont. The contract shall be in effect from May 1 through September 30, 1983, and occur at a cost not to exceed $8,375, which is deemed to be reasonable and which is to be shared by the Institute for Professional Development ($6,875) and the Alternative Education Project ($1,500).

On June 7, 1982, the School Committee approved the Institute for Professional Development for receipt of Education Consolidation and Improvement Act of 1981, chapter 2 funds for $183,717, which included $25,000 to fund this contract.

The consultant will develop a detailed written report that presents a plan for expanding the Institute's services to include management, technical and support people of the Boston public schools. The report, which will be presented in four installments, will define the new groups to be served by the Institute, identify their needs, assess the quality of existing programs, recommend new services that should be provided by the BPS through the Institute for Professional Development, identify external resources that can augment internal services, and present a structural plan for administering the new services.

The consultant will also develop a training program for staff assigned to two alternative schools. The consultant will be responsible for identifying trainers, arranging a training schedule and agenda, identifying a training site and designing an evaluation feedback instrument.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because Ms. Grobe has extensive experience and knowledge of the structure and programs of the Boston public schools and Ms. Grobe has acquired extensive contracts with area colleges and business institutions. Her voluntary service to the Boston Compact may help us develop a relationship between the proposed outcomes for this project since they address many of the same issues, needs and individuals.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation of funds under the provision of General Laws, ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from ECIA, chapter 2.

This contract is being submitted at this late date due to the urgency and immediacy of the need. Originally, our intent was to carry out these projects with existing staff. However, given our present commitments, we are unable to proceed as planned and are in need of immediate assistance.

Very truly yours,
Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As Superintendent of the Boston public schools, I request authorization for the award of a contract to Mark C. Robinson, 193 Shawshen Road, Andover. The contract shall be in effect during the period April 11, 1983, to March 31, 1984, and occur at a cost not to exceed $6,600, which is deemed to be reasonable and will be at no cost to the city.

On January 18, 1983, the School Committee approved a proposed Entry-level Occupations in Micrographic Technology for the Deaf. The proposal is funded by the Bay State Skills Corporation for the time period April 1, 1983, to March 31, 1984, and provides $23,100 funding for contracts of this nature. Bay State Skills Corporation is an agency funded by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to provide skill training for the handicapped and unemployed. The total funding of the proposal is for $56,500 and it operates under reimbursement procedures.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Horace Mann School for the Deaf, 40 Armington Street, Allston: The consultant in Micrographic Systems Design and Analysis will 1) Develop and adapt curriculum in Micrographic Technology for multi-handicapped/deaf students; 2) Provide training for vocational teacher of the deaf as an instructor of Micrographic Technology; 3) Provide instructional support to academic teacher of the deaf in careers in Micrographic Technology; 4) Supervise the installation and use of new equipment in the field of Micrographics and 5) Advise job placement counselor of jobs in Micrographics based on each student's level of training.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because he was identified by the New England Chapter of the National Micrographics Association as the expert in the area of Micrographic System Design and Analysis. Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement, and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, I have determined that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This contract is being submitted late because the City Auditor required a copy of Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with original signature from Bay State Skills confirming the funding of the program. The auditor required a copy of the MOA to enable him to establish an account to encumber funds and process payments for the proposal without an appropriation of funds.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation of funds under the provision of General Laws, ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to receipt of funds under grant from Bay State Skills Corporation.

The period of performance shall be to June 30, 1983.

This amendment is proposed because of an unanticipated increase in the level of labor relations activity in which Mr. Holland is involved. Mr. Holland is uniquely qualified to perform this work because of his familiarity with the city and all aspects of its labor relations functions. I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

FISCAL AFFAIRS Consultant Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On October 28, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to Allen Evans & Associates, Inc., D.B.A. Evans Management Services, Inc., 1030 Bay Street, Suite Four, Santa Monica, California, for consulting services in connection with the phase II Augmented Fire Service Availability Fee implementation during the period August 19, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $125,000.

Your approval is requested to further amend the contract by increasing the amount of this contract to $215,000. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $196,500. Mr. Evans was called to testify as an expert witness for the City of Boston. Evans Management also was asked to prepare a presentation explaining the AFSA concept to the members of the Greater Boston Real Estate Association and the Building Owners and Managers Association. JUNIOR INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT Legal Services

Mayor:
November 22, 1982, your Honor approved an a contract, without public advertising, to Eastern University, for providing legal serve inmates at the Suffolk County House of on at Deer Island during the period of July through April 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $5,540.

Approval is requested to amend this con-to provide legal services to said inmates from 1983, through June 30, 1983. The cost of be reasonable. The total cost of the con-1983.

se of budgetary constraints during the rt of this fiscal year, it was not possible to for these services for the entire fiscal year, ugh these services were, and are consid-ential. In addition, a more accurate estithe actual cost of services rendered under this contract could only be made at the beginning of the fourth quarter of the fiscal year.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be rendered under this contract, and because of Northeastern University's continuing cooperation in development of this program, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

James F. Roberts,
Acting Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT Food Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 5, 1981, your Honor approved the award of a contract to Victoria Restaurant Inc., 1024 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, to provide food services for prisoners held at Districts A, B, and D of the Police Department during the period July 1, 1981, through June 30, 1982, at a cost not to exceed $32,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for the additional amount which was not anticipated in the terms of the original contract.
This additional amount is $1,194.50, which I have determined to be reasonable. This amendment is being submitted at this late date because we were just informed by the Auditing Department of the need for this amendment.

Al other terms and conditions of the contract remain unchanged.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT Mechanical Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 30, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids to Affiliated Engineering Co., Inc., 41 Liberty Street, Quincy, for repairs to existing mechanical equipment at various drawbridges during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983 at a cost not to exceed $46,310.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for continued mechanical maintenance to the drawbridges of the City of Boston which require ongoing inspection and repair of all the mechanical systems. The proper operation of these bridges is imperative for effective vehicular and marine traffic flow.

The cost of this amendment, which is effective on April 30, 1983, shall not exceed $20,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract as amended shall not exceed $66,310.

Because of the numerous mechanical repair projects currently under way and vast intricate knowledge of the mechanical systems of these bridges by the contractor, at prices that have allowed him to outbid competitive bidding for the past five years, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. This letter is being submitted late due to an administrative oversight.

Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT Advertising

Your Honor:

On October 12, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract without public advertising for bids to the Boston Globe, a corporation located at 135 Morrissey Boulevard, Boston, for advertising public auctions on foreclosed properties during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $18,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract. The cost of this amendment which is effective immediately upon your approval, shall not exceed $10,000. The cost as amended shall not exceed $28,000. The period of performance shall remain the same.

Because of the incredible number of properties and special auctions this department has this year and the fact that it contracts with both the Herald American and the Boston Globe for these services. I believe public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,
Bernard F. Shadrawy, Jr.,
Commissioner.

Your Honor:

On October 12, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract without public advertising for bids to the Herald American, a corporation located at 300 Harrison Avenue, Boston, for advertising public auctions on foreclosed properties during the period July 1, 1982, June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $12,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract. The cost of this amendment which is effective immediately upon your approval, shall not exceed $5,000. The cost as amended shall not exceed $17,000. The period of performance shall remain the same.

Because of the incredible number of properties
and special auctions this department has this year
and the fact that it contracts with both the *Herald
American* and the Boston Globe for these services. I believe public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,
Bernard F. Shadrawy, Jr.,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Paper, Plastic, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 23, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids to Uptown Enterprises, 4 Reynolds Street, East Providence, R.I. 02914, for furnishing paper and plastic items and cleaning supplies (cafeterias) during the period September 1, 1982, through May 31, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $10,150.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide additional paper, plastic and cleaning supplies. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $957, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $11,107.

Because additional paper and plastic items and cleaning supplies are required and because Uptown has performed satisfactorily. I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Servicing Typewriters

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 13, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a contract based on public advertising for bids to Norfolk Office Equipment Co., 226 Harvard

Street, Brookline, for servicing typewriters (Schedules I & V) during the period July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $50,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for additional servicing of typewriters unanticipated in the terms of the original contract. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $5,000. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $55,000.

Because of the satisfactory service provided Boston public schools and the reasonable cost of the services, I believe public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Office Help

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 13, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a contract to Bernard H. Ford Corporation, 581 Boylston Street, Boston, for the purpose of furnishing general office help at a cost not to exceed $20,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract for $5,000 higher to provide for additional general office assistance. The total contract as amended will not exceed $25,000, a price I deem reasonable.

Since we have advertised in the City Record and bid proposals were sent to interested vendors; and since Bernard H. Ford Corporation has agreed to hold the price stated in the original bid, which is the lowest among all vendors, it is my determination the public interest would not be served by advertising for bids at this time.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Instructional Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 17, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract to the Education Program, New York Urban Coalition, for instructional services related to assistance and training of selected Boston public schools personnel working on aspects of the school-based planned project, during the period of September 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $8,825.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for further training and instructional services for central and district staff, principal/headmasters and chairpersons on an exchange with the New York City public schools in aspects of school-based planning and development. The cost of this amendment, shall not exceed $7,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $15,825.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation of funds under provisions of General Laws, chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under a grant from chapter 636, Project No. 83-BC.

Very truly yours,

Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent of Schools.

Electrical Supplies

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 12, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a contract, with public advertising for bids, to Gem/Peerless Electric Supply, Somerville (and 1110 Washington Street, Boston, MA 02118), for furnishing electrical supplies to be delivered to the Hubert H. Humphrey Occupational Resource Center.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for additional services which were not anticipated in the terms of the original contract for additional purchases of electrical supplies. Gem/Peerless Electrical Supply will be compensated at the same rate specified in the terms of the original contract. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $10,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $14,218.59.

Because Gem/Peerless Electric Supply has provided satisfactory service and is able to supply the necessary materials at reasonable cost, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT Cordon Count

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 13, 1982, your Honor approved the award of a contract, without public advertising for bids, to Tippetts-Abbett-McCarthy-Stratton, 211 Congress Street, Boston, to conduct a cordon count survey of vehicles and persons entering the downtown area during a given three-day period in September at a cost not to exceed $47,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for additional services which became necessary due to the inability of the Mass. DPW and MDC to provide certain automatic traffic recorder counts as in past cordon surveys, and a rail strike which began moments before the scheduled survey and continued for three days during this survey period. Although the information gathered during the strike period proved valuable in assessing travel mode shifts during the strike, additional counts became necessary in order to reflect normal weekday travel conditions.

The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $13,000. The total cost of this contract as amended shall not exceed $60,000. The period of this contract will remain the same.

Because of the nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,

John A. Vitagliano,
Commissioner.

apparent consequential to previous work performed on the above mentioned contract specifically this work included the additional work tasks:

1) The preparation of a standard parking diagram to be included as part of development packages and procedures.

The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $13,000. The total cost of the contract as amended shall not exceed $72,000. The period of the contract shall remain the same.

Because of the nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,

John A. Vitagliano,
Commissioner.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising based on the following communications:

Personnel Division Consultant Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to re-negotiate the city's existing contract with Jon-Jay Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts Corporation with offices located at 140 Federal Street, Boston, for consultant services for the Personnel Division to cost control on employment contracts for the period July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

the terms of this contract, Jon-Jay Associates, Inc., will continue to assist the city in complying with the responsibilities imposed by M.G.L.C. 26B, § 1A. The Massachusetts Employment Security Act, specifically, Jon-Jay Associates will evaluate employment compensation claims, educate employers on single source control, protest claims, verify rates, monitor all claims and submit timely reports at my request.

Jon-Jay Associates Inc. was awarded a contract for these services from April 1, 1978, through June 30, 1984.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $5,958.40, which is in my opinion, a reasonable rate for the services to be provided and is in accordance with the contractual agreement that Jon-Jay Associates would increase the price not more than 5 percent of the contract price for the previous year. Jon-Jay Associates, in light of Proposition 1 1/2, kept their cost constant at the 1982-1983 fiscal year which was $25,958.40.

Because of the professional nature of the services performed and because of the ongoing nature of the statutory requirements for these services, because Jon-Jay Associates, Inc. has provided the complete satisfaction of the city, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Thomas B. Francis, Jr., Supervisor.

Office Furniture

Dear Mr. Mayor:
Under State law, any Massachusetts municipal entity may make purchases under state contracts which have been publicly advertised and awarded by the collective Purchasing Bureau, Department of Administration and Finance. In order to take advantage of these state contracts, the city's Law Department has ruled that the city must award its own contracts, based on the state awards.

Since this can only be accomplished by discontinue with public advertising, your permission is requested to award contracts, without public advertisement, to the following companies where the lowest acceptable bidders on public advertised bids for metal office furniture for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and have existing contracts with the Department of Administration and Finance, for the period August 2, 1982, through August 1, 1983. Amounts of contracts will not exceed the amounts indicated below and will be for furnishing and delivering various items of office furniture to the various city departments using fiscal year 1983 monies.

The following companies for which awards are requested are responsible firms and all are qualified to fulfill the requirements of their contracts and the amounts are reasonable; the amounts are estimated.

Mass Equipment Corporation, 100 Shawmut Street, Boston, MA, $25,000; GF Business Equipment Co., 1500 Soldiers Field Road, Brighton, MA, $15,000; Edward V. McCarthy, d/b/a McCarthy Equipment, 62 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain, MA, $15,000; M. Brown, Inc., 126 Brookline Avenue, Boston, MA, $15,000.

In my opinion that the best interest of the city is served by awarding contracts in this manner.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Business Machines, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

For the past six fiscal years, 1978 through 1983, your Honor approved the award of several contracts, without public advertising, for the lease or rental of previously installed office business machines and printing equipment and mailing equipment.

During Fiscal year 1984 it will be necessary to continue to lease or rent this equipment and additional equipment of a similar nature that may be requisitioned by the various city departments.

All of the companies proposed for awards are responsible companies and prices are reasonable for this type of equipment. Prices that they will charge the city during fiscal year 1984 will be no higher than their charges to the General Services Administration or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, whichever is lower. Also, rentals generally will be made for purposes of evaluation by a department before it makes a purchase, or will be for a specific purpose. If equipment is retained for a longer period of time than anticipated, conversion to outright purchase or lease purchase of the equipment will be considered and accomplished, if financially possible.

Your permission is therefore requested to award contracts, without advertising, to the companies listed below, in estimated amounts not to exceed those which are stipulated:

Xerox Corporation, 191 Spring Street, Lexington, MA, $300,000; International Business Machines Corporation, Office Products Division, 60 State Street, Boston, MA 02109, $200,000; Eastman Kodak Company, 40 Williams Street, Wellesley, MA 02181, $100,000; Savin Business Machine Corporation, 1489 Soldiers Field Road, Brighton, MA 02135, $100,000; Aunyx Corp., 65 Industrial Park Road, Hingham, MA 02043, $25,000; Bell & Howell, 45 Fourth Avenue, Needham, MA, $25,000; Burroughs, 300 Bear Hill Road, Waltham, MA 02154, $25,000; Compugraphic Corporation, 80 Industrial Way, Wilmington, MA 01887, $50,000; A. B. Dick, 130 Third Avenue, Waltham, MA 02154, $25,000; Gestetner Corp., 50 Cabot Street, Needham, MA, $25,000; Pitney Bowes, Inc., 1605 Trapelo Road, Waltham, MA 02154, $25,000; Ricoh of America, Inc., 20 Gloria Lane, Fairfield, N.J. 07006, $25,000; and Sperry Univac, 60 Williams Street, Wellesley, MA, $25,000.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

The three following vendors were contacted:

He will further assist the city auditor in developing the city's response to Statements No. 1 through No. 6 of the National Council on Governmental Accounting.

Respectfully submitted,

It is my opinion that this contract cost is both just and reasonable.

The terms of this contract shall be July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,
James M. Coyle,

CITY RECORD

The firm is very accommodating and is accessible for immediate urgent changes.

Dear Sir:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award to Woodward Spring Shop, Inc., 111 McGrath Highway, P.O. Box 313, Quincy, the task of performing certain repairs to Ladder 1.

In my opinion the contractor is qualified to do the work therein described, inasmuch as Woodward's Spring Shop, Inc., is thoroughly familiar with all types of work on said equipment. Very truly yours,

Performance bond and also a labor and material payment bond, each of a surety company to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and the Housing and Urban Development Department, and each in the sum of 100 percent of contract price, will be required of the successful bidder.

It is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and contractor must ensure that employees employed for the employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or origin.

The Inspectional Services Commissioner is allowing a thirty-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting with his signature on contract.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

The contractor's attention is called to XXIV Protection of the Public. These measures, which appear in the contract, are of two general types: revisions to the demolition contract specifications, and modifications or additions to the Clearance of Unsafe Buildings Program itself.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246), IF APPLICABLE.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation are expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas. (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in the notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization, if applicable.

Notice

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Resident Section contract provision of the specifications for and the obligations of the contractor and subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices in the performances of this contract.

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:
No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 25 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is for more than $50,000. If the bid is under $50,000, but greater than $10,000, then the requirement is 10 percent. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the Minority Business Enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority-owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, eighth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the Directory, he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

II. Workforce Requirements:

During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following workforce requirements (labor).

1. Minority Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 25 percent ratio of minority manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

2. Female Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 10 percent ratio of female employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade work on the contract.

3. Boston Residents: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 50 percent ratio of Boston resident employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

4. The workforce requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) above shall apply to each trade that appears on the list of "Classification and Minimum Wage Rates" as determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries under the provisions of chapter 149, sections 26 through 27G, of the General Laws of Massachusetts, as amended. If you have any questions pertaining to the applicability of these requirements, please call the Compliance Office at 720-4300.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subcontractors), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246.

MAYOR FLYNN MAKES INTERPRETING SERVICES AVAILABLE

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has announced the formulation of the City Hall Corps of Interpreters to aid non-English-speaking Boston residents who need to conduct business with the city.

The corps is comprised of city employees who have volunteered their services who, in accordance with SEIU-AFL-CIO regulations, will be paid a nominal hourly rate for their time.

The Mayor's Office of Informational Services has thus far received two requests for interpreting services. One request was for a Greek interpreter for legal cases for the elderly, the other involved Cambodians in an Allston/Brighton fire July 25.

"This service is part of the Flynn Administration's commitment to make city services more accessible," said Irene Smalls, director of Informational Services. City employees have offered interpreting services in Spanish, Italian, Vietnamese, Chinese, French, Hebrew, and Russian.

Any city employee who would like to join the City Hall Corps of Interpreters should contact the Mayor's Office of Informational Services at 725-4442.

FLYNN ADMINISTRATION TO CURB OVERTIME

In an effort to cut costs and maximize efficiency, Boston's Director of Administrative Services, Raymond C. Dooley, has ordered all city departments to submit to his office a detailed "Overtime Containment Plan" for fiscal year 1985.

The objective of this action is to reduce overtime payment to the lowest possible level.

The city's Administrative Services Director has instructed department heads to work aggressively to control and reduce overtime. It is expected that this goal will be achieved through a basic system of accountability, that will include provision of the following information:

- Annual projected amount of overtime
- Function for which overtime will be authorized with a projected amount by function
- Explanation of why these functions must be performed on an overtime basis
- Name and position of individuals authorizing overtime by function

Mr. Dooley said, "Each department head will take a 'zero-based' approach to overtime. That is, they will start with the assumption that no overtime is necessary, and each dollar spent on it will be examined and explained."

He added that each department head's plan is due by August 31.

The city's operating budget for FY '85 presently includes $8,405,722 for overtime expenses, a reduction of $436,278 from the prior fiscal year. Through further review of overtime practices and a strict implementation of an overtime cost-containment plan, city officials hope to achieve additional substantial reductions in this account.

MAYOR FLYNN'S PROGRESS REPORT ON SPRING CLEANUP

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn has released a study updating the progress of the city's Spring Clean-up Campaign. Since the official cleanup ended May 19, up to 600 more tons of garbage and construction material has been removed from lots, parks, streets, and neighborhood sites throughout the city.

The official campaign, which took place during a five-week period in April and May, involved more than 5,025 volunteers, 335 city workers from eleven departments, the removal of 5,000 tons of garbage from seventeen parks, over 1,500 streets and 368 vacant lots in nineteen neighborhoods. In addition, the Department of Health and Hospitals baited 450 locations for rodents, and numerous citations were issued by the Department of Inspectional Services for violations of health and safety codes.

Mayor Flynn said, "The cleanup also began a process which never existed before where neighborhood residents are working with the city in an ongoing way to plan and carry out further clean up efforts."

Progress Report . . .

The Mayor made note of several volunteer neighborhood cleanups. In Jamaica Plain, the city provides tools, two trucks, shovels, grass whips, and other equipment on a weekly basis to residents of St. Mary's Parish near Eggleston Square. In Dorchester, residents of Colonial Avenue spend their Saturdays cleaning up, borrowing from the city's "lending library" of clean-up equipment. In Charlestown, youths at the Kennedy Center used city tools to clean up different areas like the Neck, the Bunker Hill Pool, Harvard Pool, and Eden Street Park. The Mayor's Office is also communicating on a regular basis with Massport, for example, to see that Massport property in Charlestown is cleaned up.

"Last Sunday," said Mayor Flynn, "I went to a block party and cleanup in East Boston that was organized by members of the Holy Redeemer Church. Church members cleaned up the area with city equipment, and loaded the refuse in our packers. The city also had eleven abandoned vehicles towed so that the block party could be enjoyed.

"We are also lending our support," continued the Mayor, "to the North End Grime Fighters and the Dorchester Four Corners cleanup, coordinated through State Rep. Royal Bolling, Jr.'s, office, which will take place August 26."

One of the major areas of concern remains identifying and keeping clean the 19,000 vacant lots that exist in the city. As the report noted, since May 19, up to 600 more tons of garbage and construction material has been removed from twelve lots in Mattapan and thirty-eight in Dorchester. Mayor Flynn added that at several locations like Dacia and Alexander Streets, and New England Avenue, city trucks returned two and three times to clean up vacant lots which had been illegally dumped upon.

"In the Erie/Ellington Street area and on Alabama Street in Dorchester, on Dacia Street in Roxbury, and in other neighborhoods," said the Mayor, "we are setting up illegal dump watches. We are going door to door with flyers that inform the residents where they can call to report illegal dumping. We have gathered several witnesses who are willing to testify in court. We also have in our possession, photos of contractors we believe are illegally dumping in our neighborhoods, which will be taken this coming week to the area police station for identification.

The Mayor emphasized that none of this could be done without neighborhood involvement. "We can't change things overnight. Many of our neighborhoods face years of neglect. But we have made a good beginning. We've raised $65,000 of the $100,000 needed, two-thirds, from local businesses and downtown financial institutions to begin within the next four weeks a "Trash Barrel Program" to place receptacles throughout the downtown area and the financial district, as well as in our neighborhoods so that people can use them for litter, instead of our streets and parks."

The city is in the process of establishing a Clean-Up Commission comprised of neighborhood people who will work to raise funds for the ongoing cleanup, and to deepen already established contacts with neighborhood groups to involve them and to hear their priorities. The Neighborhood Councils, which will be set up this fall, will also play an important role in this effort.

The Flynn Administration will also be submitting new legislation this fall to enable the city to crack down on those who continue to abuse the neighborhood by illegally dumping trash. The enforcement package will include provisions to:

- 1) rewrite city contracts for disposal of garbage by requiring the contractor to specify the disposal site; 2) compile a complete list of lots and numbers so they are easily identified by a code for the neighborhood; 3) analyze existing legislation so that laws are clear and enforceable; 4) stiffen penalties for dumping from $300 to up to $1,000; and 5) create an enforcement unit to identify the source of illegally dumped material, and to work closely with the courts to get convictions.

Mayor Flynn concluded, "In order to implement a strong enforcement package, we will need cooperation from the City Council, the State Legislature, and the courts. Beyond that, we want to institute a city-wide sweeping program, but we only have eighteen sweeps a year. We want to make trucks available for every neighborhood cleanup, but we don't have enough to go around. We want to produce many more trash receptacles for our streets, but we don't have the money. Additional revenue is the answer to addressing the need of cleaning and keeping the city clean. Without it, we fight a battle that can't be won."

ABCD FOSTER GRANDPARENT PROGRAM LUNCHEON

The ABCD Foster Grandparent program recently held a recognition luncheon at the Marriott Hotel, Copley Place, to celebrate the program's eighteenth anniversary.

Foster Grandparents are low-income persons over age sixty who volunteer twenty hours a week to work with special needs children. In return the Foster Grandparents receive a $40 per week stipend, transportation costs, and other benefits such as a hot lunch, annual physical examination, and health insurance.

Over 100 Foster Grandparents and more than 100 friends and supporters attended the luncheon. Representatives Doris Bunte and Jack Backman presented awards to grandparents who reached the ages of seventy-five, eighty, and eighty-five, as well as those who have contributed their services to the program for ten and fifteen years. In recognition, Fernald State School received an award for its eighteen-year connection with the program. The Foster Grandparents also presented "The Centre of the Unheard," a dramatic portrayal of why they became Foster Grandparents, produced and directed by Judith Stein, director of the ABCD Foster Grandparent program.

The recognition luncheon included welcoming remarks from Michael Taylor, the new commissioner on Affairs of the Elderly; John Drew, ABCD deputy director; and John Dubois, legislative aide in Representative Tom Gallagher's office, whose work contributed greatly to the recent State Legislature's vote to appropriate state funds to supplement the Massachusetts Older American Volunteer Programs.

Special guests were: John Torian, regional director of the federal agency ACTION; Joyce Matthews, legislative aide in Senator Backman's office; and Ted Germans, regional representative of Administration on Aging.

The Foster Grandparents receiving awards were: Agnes Conti, Margaret Gray, Josephine Menghi, and Bessie Lamb for fifteen years of service; Theresa Wright, Celia Epstein, Anna Shuman, and Sr. Eugene Mulhern, for ten years of service; grandparents reaching the age of eighty-five and over: Anthony Cutillo, Margaret Gray, Ed Johnson, Mary Penta, and Katherine Rooney; grandparents reaching the age of eighty: Daisy Dawe and Theresa Wright; and grandparents reaching the age of seventy-five: Andrea Ciambra, Vera Guerini, Goldie Greenberg, Joe Gubitosi, Violet Hatton, Eva Mederios, Betty Millen, Iris Nelson, Katherine O'Neil, Irving Fireman, Lillian Pearce, Ora Mae Durant, and Catherine McQuaid.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE CONVENES IN DECEMBER

As the presidential year rolls along, plans are already under way for the meeting of the electors whose votes are the ones that actually elect the President of the United States.

Citizen Information Service says that Secretary of State Michael J. Connolly will convene the Electoral College in the State House on Monday, December 17, the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December. As a rule, the Senate President offers the use of the Senate chamber for the meeting.

No later than the second Tuesday in September (September 11), Secretary Connolly's Election Division must receive from the state chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties the names of the persons selected by their committees to be electors for President and Vice-President.

"How are these people chosen?"

This is a question frequently directed to CIS.

Since the method of selection is entirely up to the two parties involved and not dictated by law, such queries are customarily referred to the Democratic and Republican state committees.

The law says only that they must be registered voters of the Commonwealth and that they pledge to vote their party's nominees or for those candidates on whose papers their names were listed as elector candidates.

Not allowed by law to serve as electors are United States Senators and Representatives and any person "holding an office of trust or profit under the United States."

VEGETABLE MONTH

Among the true dining delights of a Massachusetts summer is the taste of fresh, home-grown vegetables. The taste is that much better when you pick your own vegetables, and there is no time better than now to do it since August is "Vegetable Month" here in the Commonwealth.

Citizen Information Service in the office of Secretary of State Michael J. Connolly can help you locate the "pick your own" spots across the state. Using the four-page directory on farmers' markets prepared by the state Department of Food and Agriculture, CIS can quickly inform callers where they can pick their own fruits and vegetables. The farmers' markets are listed by county and by the days in which they are open to the public.

There is also another valuable resource in your quest to find the freshest produce in Massachusetts. The University of Massachusetts Cooperative Extension Service has produced a comprehensive Consumer's Guide listing, alphabetically by town, farms providing pick your own opportunities. In addition, there is an index according to crop. R. Alden Miller, regional vegetable specialist of Worcester County, prepared the publication.

The Consumer's Guide lists a number of advantages to consumers who choose to pick their own vegetables. Among those advantages are the following:

- Picking your own vegetables provides a means of selecting high-quality, fresh produce which has not gone through a lengthy market channel.

- It affords the consumer the opportunity to pick in quantities large enough for home canning and freezing.

- The consumer experiences a unique country atmosphere.

- It can be a valuable educational experience for children.

- The consumer generally receives good quality produce at lower than retail prices.

- The consumers have the satisfaction of having selected their own fruits and/or vegetables.

A recent caller to CIS inquired, "Does Boston have a farmers' market?"

In fact, it has several. Boston farmers' markets are located at Brigham's Circle, Copley Square, Fields Corner, Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, and the South End.

Celebrate "August is Vegetable Month" in Massachusetts by shopping at a local farmers' market. You are certain to enjoy the experience of picking your own produce and you will be providing yourself and your family with delicious, as well as nourishing, summertime meals.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to renew, without advertising, the city's contract with the South End Community Health Center, Inc., 400 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02118, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984 at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

Under this contract, medical services are provided primarily for residents of the South End Community Health Center through the operation of a private, non-profit medical care clinic.

The South End Community Health Center, Inc., has operated this clinic for the past nine years with financial assistance from this department and in our judgment it is a vital provider of health services in the community which must continue to operate.

Inasmuch as the South End Community Health Center, Inc., is specially suited by experience and expertise to provide this service to the city, at a cost that is reasonable, and since the services provided are of a personal and professional nature, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

This letter of award is being submitted late due to reevaluation of the cost of the contract.

Dietary Management

Dear Sir:

An invitation for proposals for professional management of the Dietary Department at Boston City Hospital was advertised in the City Record on March 21, 1983, and in the Boston Globe on March 22, 1983. In addition, the following concerns were individually notified of this request for proposals: ARA Services, Inc., 1 Breezy Lake Drive, Coventry, RI; Brooks & Brooks Caterers, 986 Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, MA; Charles River Hospital, 203 Grove Street, Wellesley, MA; Custom Management Corporation, 844 Market Street, Kingston, PA; Daka, Inc., 5 Lakeside Office Park, Wakefield, MA; Hospital Dietary Services, 31313 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills, MI; Kelly Restaurant Corporation, 133 Causeway Street, Boston, MA; Marriott Corporation, 4701 Sangamore Road, Washington, DC; Saga, 89 Main Street, Medway, MA; Seilers Caterers, Inc., 152 Second Avenue, Waltham, MA; Service Master Management Service Corporation, Northeast Division, 40 Accord Park Drive, Norwell, MA; Servomation Corporation, 100 Fallon Road, Stoneham, MA; Szabo, 36 Washington Street, Wellesley Hills, MA.

A bidders conference and tour of the facilities was held on March 30, 1983. Bids were publicly opened and read aloud on April 11, 1983. The following bids were received:

Custom Management Corporation, 844 Market Street, Kingston, PA, one year, $1,197,415; two years, $2,394,829.

Hospital Dietary Services, 31313 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills, MI, one year, $1,173,100; two years, $2,427,100.

Servomation Corporation, 100 Fallon Road, Stoneham, MA, one year, $1,155,429; two years, $2,335,643.

The proposals were evaluated on the basis of several criteria, including but not limited to, experience, staff support and cost. At meetings held with both Servomation Corporation and Custom Management Corporation hospital personnel stressed the importance of strong clinical backgrounds for the team members.

The hospital had some reservations concerning Servomation Corporation because all their team members were recruited outside their organization, but, because of fiscal constraints, verbally awarded them the contract. Shortly thereafter, Servomation Corporation notified the hospital that their lead team member had withdrawn and that the contract would run the kitchen until a new leader could be found. The hospital was not satisfied with this arrangement because Servomation Corporation is basically an industry-based corporation.

Custom Management Corporation was asked if they could reassemble their team and be willing to work with the hospital. They agreed that they would. Custom Management Corporation has an excellent clinical background, supplies nutritional information to patients and is basically a hospital-based corporation. When informed by hospital personnel that they were being awarded the contract, Custom Management Corporation, as a sign of goodwill, offered to match the one year bid from Servomation Corporation and maintain that cost for the second year.

Therefore, because of the above, because the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award the contract, without advertising, to Custom Management Corporation for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1985, at a cost not to exceed $2,310,000.

This contract encompasses more than one year and the city's financial obligations are subject to the availability of an appropriation in accordance with the requirements of City of Boston Code of Ordinances S. 4 and 8.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Counselor

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to the Pine Street Inn, formerly Association of Urban Priests, Inc., to provide partial salary for one full-time counselor at the Detoxification Unit located at the Pine Street Inn, 111 Bristol Street, Boston, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $5,000.

The counselor to be provided by the Pine Street Inn, Inc., is particularly qualified, both in experience and training, and the Pine Street Inn, Inc., as an institution, is the only one of its kind in the area providing these services. Additionally, inasmuch as the service to be provided hereunder is of a personal nature, and since the cost to the city is reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Medical Records

Dear Sir:

An invitation for proposals for providing medical record transcriptions at Boston City Hospital was advertised in the City Record on May 16, 1983. Bids were publicly opened and read on June 1, 1983. The following bids were received:

International Dictating Service, Inc., 739 South Street, Boston, $0.075 per line. Transcriptions Limited, 161 Highland Avenue, Needham, $0.08 per line.

International Dictating Service, Inc., the lowest bidder had serviced Boston City Hospital for several years but the hospital was not completely satisfied with their performance. During this time there was no viable alternate vendor to perform this service. Last year a new firm, Transcriptions Limited, submitted the low bidder and was awarded the contract. This firm has done an excellent job for the past year.

agreed to lower their price to match that of the vendor. Because of this the department has decided to reject all bids.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract, without advertising, to Transcriptions Limited to provide medical record transcription at $.075 per line, a cost which, in my opinion, is reasonable. The contract will be for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $10,000.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Burglar Alarm

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to American District Telegraph Company, N.W. Industrial Park, 11 North Burlington, Mass. 01803, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $3,517.

Under this contract American District Telegraph Company (ADT) will install, maintain and service a four burglar alarm system located at the Department of Narcotic Addiction, 200 Frontage South Boston. The fee for installation of the system will be $1,916, and is payable in full at the time of the installation. The maintenance fee will be $1,601, which will be paid in equal installments over the twelve-month period.

Department of Narcotic Addiction has been required to relocate because of the sale of the building now occupy. The federal Drug Enforcement Agency requires the clinic to have a direct line from the clinic to the vendor who supplies the alarm system. Few companies other than ADT can provide this service. The Police Department has highly recommended ADT and the hospital has been satisfied with their service in the past.

Because of the above reason and because, in my opinion, is reasonable no benefit would be realized to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Shuttle Bus

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to renew, without advertising, the city's contract with Auto Bus, Inc., 10 Cottage Street, Dorchester, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $67,430.

Auto Bus, Inc. will provide shuttle bus service to the City of Boston and Hospital. Under the original contract, at the option of the Department of Health and Hospitals, the contract may be renewed for one year on the same terms or those more favorable to the city.

Because, as the contract is being extended under the same terms to the city, and Auto Bus, Inc., has been awarded the original contract pursuant to competitive bidding, has provided excellent service, at a reasonable cost, it is deemed to be reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Quality Control

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Beckman Instruments, Inc., 45 Belmont Drive, Somerset, New Jersey 08873, for the provision of a quality control system for chemical tests done in the Clinical Biochemistry Laboratory at Boston City Hospital for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $14,370.

Under this contract Beckman Instruments, Inc. will supply Boston City Hospital with Span QC material and will also provide a Realtime Quality Assurance System at no additional charge. The price of the Span QC material will remain fixed for the year.

Beckman's Span Pools are the only liquid QC unassayed pools available in the world. Because they are liquid they save time and money since there is no reconstitution and no waste. They are available in three levels, thus are capable of spanning the entire range of possible test results: abnormal low, normal and abnormal high. The computer supplied by Beckman for the Realtime Quality Assurance System will accumulate data and produce a thirty day summary sheet to be sent to the College of American Pathologists a requirement for laboratory certification. It will provide savings in a technologists' time, not only by eliminating calculations, but also chart preparation and report writing.

Therefore, because of the above reasons, and because the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Security Consultant

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Mr. Edward Cass, 17 Burley Street, Roslindale, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $31,000.

Under this contract, Mr. Cass will provide security consulting services to Boston City, Mattapan and Long Island Hospitals. He will submit written reports on problems and deficiencies, recommend corrective action and assist in the implementation of all changes approved by the Deputy Commissioner for Administration Services, Boston City Hospital. Mr. Cass will be compensated at the rate of $200 per day.

Mr. Cass's background includes twenty-seven years in law enforcement activities for the federal government. For the past several years, he has headed his own security consultant firm and services hospitals, pharmacies and other law enforcement agencies. Therefore, because of his background and the reasonableness of his charges, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Reagent Kits

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract, without advertising to Abbott Laboratories, Diagnostic Division, 684 Valley Forge Plaza, King of Prussia, Pennsylvania 19406, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $10,000.

Under this contract Abbott Laboratories will supply Boston City Hospital with TDX reagent kits at $200 per kit. All disposables for the system will be purchased at the current list price. Abbott Laboratories will give the hospital the use of the 9520-03 TDX Immunoassay Analyzer free of charge during the term of the contract. All service and maintenance of this equipment is the sole responsibility of the vendor.

These reagents are used for therapeutic drug monitoring system drug assays and Abbott Laboratories is the sole source supplier. Because of this reason and also because the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Rabies Control

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to the Animal Rescue League of Boston, Inc., 10 Chandler Street, Boston, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $32,169.

Under this contract the Animal Rescue League of Boston, Inc. will perform various duties related to the control of rabies in the City of Boston. These professional services will include, but not be limited to the quarantine of possible rabid animals, the performance of follow-up inspections and veterinary examinations, the analysis of brain tissue to determine the presence of rabies, and compliance with all state health laws pertaining to rabies control.

Therefore, in view of the professional, unique service to be rendered, in which the Animal Rescue League of Boston, Inc. has had wide experience and which it has satisfactorily provided to the city for many years at a cost, which in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Cash Account Audit

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract, without advertising, to Coopers and Lybrand, 100 Federal Street, Boston, for the period February 1, 1983, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

Under this contract Coopers and Lybrand will perform an independent audit of the cash accounts at Mattapan and Long Island Hospitals.

Since Coopers and Lybrand have been the official auditors for the City of Boston for several years it is appropriate that they be the accounting firm to perform this audit.

Because of the professional nature of the work to be done and also because the cost, in my opinion is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

The City Auditor decided to have the outside audit performed on the cash accounts late in January and he wanted the audit to begin immediately.

Since it takes some time for the paper work requesting a contract to be processed through the Department of Health and Hospitals this letter of award is being submitted late.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Rubbish Removal

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to renew, without advertising, the city's contract with Charles Lee Disposal, 1 Ellery Street, South Boston, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $4,800.

Charles Lee Disposal will provide rubbish removal at Mattapan Hospital. Under the original contract, at the option of the Department of Health and Hospitals, the contract may be renewed for one year under the same terms or those more favorable to the city.

Therefore, as the contract is being extended under the same terms to the city, and Charles Lee Disposal, who was awarded the original contract pursuant to public bidding, has provided excellent services, at a cost I deem to be reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Pharmaceutical Supplies

Dear Sir:

An invitation for bids, Proposal 215-241, for furnishing pharmaceutical supplies to the Department of Health and Hospitals was advertised in the City Record on April 11, 1983. Bids were publicly opened and read on May 19, 1983.

Doyle Pharmaceutical Company submitted a late proposal thus their bid is defective. Doyle Pharmaceutical Company is being awarded three items on the bid for which they are the sole supplier.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract, without advertising to:

Doyle Pharmaceutical Company, 5320 West 23rd Street, Minneapolis, MN 55416, at $14,526.60

Medical Records Storage

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to New England Storage Warehouse, 32 George Street, Boston, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $44,996.

Presently stored at the New England Storage Warehouse are approximately two million medical records and ten thousand x-rays of patients treated at Boston City Hospital between the years 1954 and 1975. Boston City Hospital is required by law to keep medical records for thirty years. There is no required retention period for x-rays but Boston City Hospital keeps all x-rays for seven years.

Since the medical records and x-rays are presently located at the New England Storage Warehouse and the cost, in my opinion, is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Minority Recruitment

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., P.O. Box 18186, Boston, for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $15,000.

Under this contract, the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., will recruit, subject to departmental approval, minority, fourth-year medical students to serve their required electives at Boston City Hospital. The purpose of this program is twofold: first, to expose these students to the needs of this hospital and, also, to allow the appointing medical staff to evaluate their performance during this service. The ultimate goal of this program is to increase the number of minority students who apply to the Boston City Hospital for internships.

In order to provide an incentive for these students to apply, the department will help defray expenses during their four-week service by offering a $500 stipend and, at the completion of their service, reimbursing travel expenses from Medical School to Boston City Hospital and return.

Inasmuch as the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a nonprofit organization, have demonstrated their expertise in recruitment and fiscal management at a reasonable cost, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Billing Services

Dear Sir:

In accordance with the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Health Management Systems, Inc., 401 Park Avenue South, New York, New York 10016, for retroactive billing services in connection with third-party payments due from Medicaid and Medicare for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, in an amount not to exceed $175,000.

Under this contract, Health Management Systems shall now provide retroactive billing services in connection with third-party payments due from Medicare and shall continue to provide retroactive billing services in connection with third-party payments due from Medicaid and Medicare for Boston City Hospital's Designated Programs. The Designated Programs are hereinafter defined to consist of patient and ancillary services which are operated by Boston City Hospital in its Emergency Rooms, Outpatient Clinics, and Inpatient Facilities and which are rendered to patients (a) identified as self-pay patients, (b) unidentified as to third-party coverage, and (c) billed by Boston City Hospital to a third party and then rejected for payment by such third party.

Under this contract, Health Management Systems shall be paid as follows: (a) where the combined gross value of those billings approved and paid by Medicaid and/or Medicare to Boston City Hospital for billings evolving from the Health Management Systems during the term of this contract is equal to or less than $875,000, the city shall pay Health Management Systems a rate of 20 percent of the actual gross value of billings and (b) where the combined gross value of said billings exceeds $875,000, then the city shall pay Health Management Systems a flat fee of $175,000.

If Health Management Systems' efforts for the first nine months or less of patient care shall result in revenues to Boston City of more than $875,000, then Boston City will amend the contract to adjust the maximum payable to Health Management Systems to Health Management Systems' performance.

Thus, the aggregate fee payable to Health Management Systems shall be 20 percent of each paid Inpatient Medicaid and Medicare claim, 20 percent of each paid Ambulance Medicaid claim, 20 percent of cash receipts adjusted by the cost ratio as determined by BCH of each paid Outpatient Emergency Room Medicare claim, 20 percent of cash receipts adjusted by the cost ratio as determined by BCH of each paid Outpatient Emergency Room Medicare residual claim, and $35 for each paid Outpatient Emergency Room Medicaid claim, for a total not to exceed $175,000.

Inasmuch as this contract provides a significant benefit to the city as it allows for the efficient, noninterrupted collection of revenues from Health Management Systems has efficiently provided these services in the past, and as the cost has been reduced and is reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by advertising for bids.

Boston City Hospital and Health Management Systems have agreed to change the term of the 1983 contract for fiscal year 1984. Because negotiations have only just been concluded concerning the monetary provisions of this contract, the award is being submitted late.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner.

Engineering Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Ever since the 1890s when the Boston Public Library was relocated to Copley Square, it has been necessary to have periodic examination made of its building settlement levels for the safety of the public and for the protection of the magnificent buildings as well as their contents. This examination has been performed from the beginning by the firm of engineers, the J. R. Worcester & Co., and more recently by their successors, the firm of Gilbert Small & Co., Inc.

The firm of Gilbert Small & Co., Inc., is especially qualified because of exhaustive studies of the Library's conditions made by it over the past three-quarters of a century. It has a complete file of all pertinent yearly data relative to the water table during this period. In addition, it has a thorough familiarity with the buildings, geological conditions, etc. of the Copley Square area. The cost of this firm's services for July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, is not to exceed $4,500.

The Board of Trustees in charge of the Library Department of the City of Boston, acting in behalf of the City of Boston, has therefore taken the following action: voted, that there be entered into, without public advertising, with Gilbert Small & Co., Inc., 1391 South Street, Needham, Massachusetts, a service agreement for the examination of building levels at one central library building (McKim) during the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, the total fee thus charged to be subject to the terms, agreements, and conditions set forth in said agreement.

In view of the foregoing, and because in the opinion of the Official the cost is reasonable for the service to be rendered, the permission of your Honor is respectfully requested to enter into this agreement with Gilbert Small & Co., Inc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the First National Bank of Boston, a national banking association, located at 100 Federal Street, Boston, for an interest subsidy program to provide small business owners in fourteen commercial districts, with financing at lower interest rates and for longer terms than is usually necessary, to undertake property improvements.

Under the terms of the contract, the First National Bank of Boston will receive deposits of funds from the Community Development Block Grant program. These funds will be held in a regular savings account, pending their use as a subsidy deposit in conjunction with commercial property loans with longer terms and below market interest rates. As these loans are made to business owners in the targeted commercial areas, funds will be transferred from the interest-bearing savings account to an interest-free account. As these loans are repaid, these subsidy deposit funds will be returned to the interest-bearing account, and will be used again to subsidize new loans. At all times, these unused funds shall remain the possession of the City of Boston. The First National Bank of Boston is uniquely qualified to undertake this contract because it is one of the largest commercial banks in the city, it has many commercial customers in the fourteen targeted commercial districts, and it has the ability to and interest in making loans for commercial property improvements in Boston's neighborhoods.

The First National Bank of Boston will be eligible to receive funds up to $500,000 until termination of this program. After termination of this contract, the city will withdraw these funds and may use them for other eligible CDBG programs. The term of this contract shall be from August 1, 1983, to June 30, 1985.

As this is a negotiated contract for professional services and in view of the contractor's qualifications, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

OFFICE OF HOUSING Home Loan Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to The First National Bank of Boston, a banking association located at 100 Federal Street, Boston, for the Home Loan Program, a principal subsidy program to provide homeowners with loans at lower interest rates and for longer terms than is usually available to undertake property improvements.

Under the terms of the contract The First National Bank of Boston will receive a deposit of funds from the city's Community Development Block Grant under a lump-sum drawdown, and will hold these funds in a rehabilitation account pending their use as a subsidy deposit in conjunction with home improvement loans with longer terms and lower interest rates. At all times, the city's funds remain the possession of the City of Boston.

The First National Bank of Boston is uniquely qualified to do this work because it is one of the leading commercial banks in the city, it has many customers in the target areas, and it has the ability to and interest in making loans for residential property improvements in the city's neighborhoods.

The terms of the agreement shall be from September 1, 1983, to August 31, 1984.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Courtney,
Director.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Mr. Heath will organize and subsequently direct a community beautification project in Franklin Park. He will provide on-site supervision of participants and endeavor to insure timely and ongoing cleanup activities through the summer months over the entire area. Particular attention will be given to those areas of the park that traditionally have been heavily trashed.

Mr. Heath enters upon this project with extensive experience as a community activist, public organizer and concerned citizen. It is our opinion that the interests of this department and the citizens of the Franklin Park area will be well served with Mr. Heath heading this project. Voiding Storage Tank

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At District A Police Station, 40 New Street, Boston, a strong gasoline odor was detected by police officers throughout the station. Upon further investigation, engineers of the Facilities Department discovered that gas ing into the storm drain system and accumuall in Boston Edison Co. manholes. This gaso-as apparently escaping from a ruptured gallon gasoline storage tank buried beneath ice station. Because of the extreme hazard by the leaking gasoline, the Fire Depart-immediately ordered that gasoline be d out of the tank and that corrective mea-be taken. But because of the location of the low the building, it is not possible to remove place the tank without endangering the build-structure. Since pumping out the accessible ne would not effectively remove the fire haze Fire Department ordered that the tank be with a sand and concrete slurry that would any residual gasoline inert.

der to immediately alleviate the fire hazard, I ted bids from three reputable contractors ly engaged in this kind of work to disconnect s, drain all fuel, and fill the 5,000-gallon tank
e following results:

Janis Company, $9,200; John E. Kelley
ing, $11,200; and John McCusker, $12,000.

efore, because of the exigency of the situa-danger to persons and property, the reay the cost of the services and our favorable pas-nce with this contractor, I request your writ-mission to dispense with public advertising sed on the lowest bid, to award a contract to his Co., 9 Rossmore Road, Jamaica Plain, al amount not to exceed $9,200.

Donald B. Manson,

Paving

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Murphy and Fahy Construction Co., P.O.
Box 43, Milton.

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor will provide labor and materials needed to fill, re-grade and pave an open lot at 1177 Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, to allow the installation of a Police patrol trailer on that site. This work includes excavation of crushed stone sub-base and bituminous pavement. Because it is necessary to retain police presence to this area of the city as far as possible to protect the security of the neighborhood residents, I invited bids from three reputable contractors normally engaged in this type of work with the following results:

Murphy & Fahy Construction, $4,989; John Palumbo Company, $5,400; and Dartmouth Construction, $4,400.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $4,989, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

Because of the exigent need to provide police presence in this area, the reasonable cost of these services and our favorable past experience with this contractor, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose in this case.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Ceiling

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Lee Kennedy Co., Inc., 1792 Dorchester Road, Boston.

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor will provide labor and materials needed to install a suspended ceiling system in the Judge's Courtroom of the old building of the Suffolk County

Courthouse. This work is necessary in order to replace the original ceiling which was severely damaged by a broken water pipe. A new suspended ceiling will not only conceal the present ceiling damage, but will also provide acoustic insulation and a means of improving the inadequate D.C. lighting that is currently in the Lobby. Because the present unsatisfactory condition of the Judge's Lobby greatly impedes their ability to perform, I invited bids from three reputable contractors normally engaged in this type of work with the following results:

Lee Kennedy Co., Inc., $4,680; John Palumbo Company, $4,900; and Dartmouth Construction, $5,300.

Because of the exigent need to repair the ceiling in the Judge's Chambers, the reasonable cost of these services and our favorable past experience with this contractor, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose in this case.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

technical and clerical personnel as needed during the period July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $40,000 (payable as set forth in the contract) which I have determined is a reasonable cost.

Based on the past year's experiences with this firm, I believe they are qualified to provide the services required.

In view of the nature of the services, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

cluding building code inspections and certifications, design work, design review and construction supervision as needed during the period July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $30,750 (payable at $32 per hour) which I have determined is a reasonable cost.

Based on past experience, I believe that Mr. Sack is qualified to continue to perform these services.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Donald B. Manson,
Director.

to June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $35,000, which is a reasonable amount.

is my judgment that public advertising would serve

Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby request your Honor's written auient by the director, for Police Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the commission to the director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said

written authority from the Mayor.

cost is reasonable.

Since this facility is both adequate and convenient, I feel that public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

to dispense with public advertising in extending the lease for certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the director, for Police Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the commission to the director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said
written authority from the Mayor.

The demised premises consist of 29,500 square feet of garage space located at 286 Adams Street, Dorchester. Lessor: John J. Fink, P.O. Box 117, Canton, MA.

The terms of the lease will be twelve months from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984. The monthly rental will be $4,302.08 with a rental charge for this extended term not to exceed $51,625. I have determined that this cost is reasonable.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose in this instance.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Design Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on May 19, 1983, I hereby request your

Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to SEA Consultants, Inc., 54 Canal Street, Boston, for architectural design services, including supervision of construction, for roof replacement on buildings 5 and 6 and reconstruction of tennis courts at Madison Park School. The cost shall not exceed $47,500 (including $7,500 for supplementary services) which is a negotiated fixed fee based on a factor of 10.886 percent (a compromise between A and B rates) of the estimated cost of construction of $367,450.

Following the advertisement of this project and receipt of proposals, the consultant was selected on the basis of a rating process undertaken by Public Facilities Designer Selection Committee in accordance with MGL ch. 7, sec. 30. I believe this firm is qualified to perform the services and that the contract cost is reasonable.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services, and the selection process used, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

The Phase I services will include testing of the plumbing, HVAC and electrical systems. The cost shall not exceed $35,520 (including $22,220 for supplementary services) which I have determined is a reasonable cost.

I believe this firm is qualified to perform the services required.

In view of the technical and professional nature of the services, and the selection process used, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission dated May 24, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Somerville Engineering, Inc., 265 Medford Street, Somerville, (through its division S.E. Architects, 256 Boylston Street, Boston), a contract for engineering design services, including supervision of construction, for masonry repairs at Boston City Hall. The cost shall not exceed $13,420 (including $4,500 for supplementary services) which is a fixed fee based on engineer's B rate of 8.92 percent of the estimated construction cost of $100,000, which I have determined is a reasonable cost.

Emergency Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On Tuesday, June 7, 1983, there was a sudden power outage at the Administration Building at the Deer Island House of Correction. An attempt to switch over to emergency power was unsuccessful, creating a situation of extreme hardship for the inmates of the prison with potentially explosive implications for the correction officers of that facility. The power was restored in approximately four hours by running a bypass. Subsequent investigation by prison authorities and engineers of the Public Facilities Department determined that the probable cause of disruption was a defective underground cable supplying the power between the Transformer Station and the Administration Building at Deer Island.

Since a sudden loss of power without a backup emergency system not only creates a situation of extreme hardship for inmates and officers at the prison, but also could seriously endanger the lives of all persons having reason to be at this high security prison, it is imperative that the defect in the electrical system be corrected as quickly as possible under emergency procedures before a tragedy occurs.

Because of the exigency of the situation, and to obviate danger to persons and property arising therefrom, I requested and received permission from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with meeting the requirement of section 44A, chapter 149, G.L., as it pertains to public advertising, providing we obtained prices from at least three reputable contractors normally engaged in this type of work. The bid results are as follows:

J.J. Finn Electrical Services, $13,600; Joseph L. McKeen, $14,200; and Griffin Electric, $15,600.

Your Honor's written approval, therefore, is respectfully requested in recognition of the fact an emergency situation does exist, to authorize dispensing with public advertising for bids and, based on the lowest bid, to award a contract to J.J. Finn Electrical Services, 357 Neponset Avenue, Dorchester, for a total amount not to exceed $13,600.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to DeAngelis Iron Work, 14 Brookley Road, Jamaica Plain.

Under the terms of the contract, the contractor will perform emergency repairs to the deck of the Long Island Bridge, in order to correct what is currently a very hazardous situation. Several sections of the bridge have weakened from deterioration and stress, and steel plates formerly used to reinforce these unsound surfaces have been dislodged and have become misshapen and ineffective. One such plate is so badly warped that it caused serious damage to an automobile traversing the bridge. In order to alleviate the danger of bridge collapse or automobile accidents, it is necessary that new three-quarter inch steel plates be installed, and that the present plates be remounted and reinforced. Consequently, I requested bids from three contractors normally engaged in this type of work with the following results:

DeAngelis Iron Work, Inc., $4,780; Joblumbo Company, $5,220; and Lee Kennedy Company, Inc., $5,300.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $4,780, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed.

Because of the exigency of the situation, the danger to persons and property, the reasonable cost of these services, and our favorable past experience with this contractor, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose in this case.

Very truly yours,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT Bridge Repair

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your approval is respectfully requested to award a contract for repairs to the pile foundation and miscellaneous work at the L Street Bridge over the reserved channel to Goudreau Corporation, 216 Ipswich Road, Boxford, Mass., the lowest bidder in the amount of $267,055.

Based upon a report of underwater inspection of the bridge prepared by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, which revealed severe deterioration of the bridge pilings, I determined that a dangerous condition existed which required emergency action. Because of the critical structural condition to the bridge supports, the bridge has been continuing to settle at an alarming rate. Any delay in completing the necessary repairs would result in additional costs as well as potential danger to passing traffic.

Upon completion of the plans and specifications for this project, invitations to bid were sent to several qualified contractors who engage in this type of work. The following proposals were opened and publicly read on April 29, 1983:

Goudreau Corporation, $267,055; Rev-Lite Contracting Co., $336,680; and J.M. Cashman, $372,500.

Notwithstanding the bid price of $267,055, the total amount of this contract shall not exceed $200,000, which is the amount of anticipated reimbursement for this project from the Commonwealth.

All work on this contract shall be completed within fifty working days from date of order to commence the work.

Very truly yours,
Robert P. Mehegan,
Acting Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Advertising

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to the Boston Herald Newspaper Company, Harrison Avenue, Boston.

This contract to be entered into with the Herald is to cover advertising services Wanted and Legal Notices for Public Hearing. Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $10,000, which I deem reasonable for the work to be performed. The term of this contract be from July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

Since the School Department is required by Federal Court to advertise broadly in the minority recruitment; and the School Department must by law publish notices concerning purchasing for contracts, etc. and since the Boston of two local daily newspapers with a sufficient circulation, no public interest would be by advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Test Scoring

Mr. Mayor:
The Superintendent of the Boston public schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to California Test Bureau/McGraw-Hill, Del Mar Research Park, Monterey, California 93940, for the period from May 27, 1983, to June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $20,705, which is reasonable.

On August 27, 1982, the School Committee approved the proposal Chapter I Program 82-83 for $435 ECIA Chapter I funds for $9,865,681, included $20,705 to fund this contract.

The contractor shall supply standardized test services and related statistical analyses to the Department of Chapter I Programs, Office of Research and Evaluation, for the testing of students in the federally funded Chapter I projects, according to contract specifications.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide test services, because, as owner of copyright in the California Achievement Test, the firm has the capability to provide the required professional services. Company is sole supplier of California Achievement Test and its scoring services and related relevant statistical analyses for program evaluation. Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, I have determined that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for the contract is submitted late due to delay in preparation for the contract instrument.

The contract is to be executed without an approval of funds under the provision of General Laws, c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the refund of funds under the grant for P.L. 97-35 ECIA Chapter I, Project No. 83-035-134, at no cost to the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,

Robert R. Spillane,
Superintendent.

Reporting Proceedings

Mr. Mayor:

I, on behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Ford Reporting Services, 30 Federal Street, Boston. The contract shall be in effect during the period of July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, and occur at a cost not to exceed $20,000 which is deemed to be reasonable for the School Committee.

The contractor will provide the following services: maintain the School Committee Administration Building at all such locations as the Committee may request at its meetings; make herself or by competent reporters managed by her, a transcribed record of the proceedings of the School Committee at each meeting, each hearing and each deposition. The School Committee agrees to pay Ford Reporting Associates for making such records the sum of $3 for each original page plus one copy and one additional copy page of said proceedings. In addition the School Committee will pay an administrative fee of $100 for each meeting.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of the paucity of persons in this field who are willing to do this kind of work. In instances when the contractor was not available she has had considerable difficulty in finding a substitute.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,

Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Maintenance Service

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising to Phonic Ear, Inc., 250 Camino Alto, Mill Valley, CA 94941, furnishing maintenance for all auditory training equipment at the Horace Mann Evaluation Unit at the Jackson-Mann School. Service for 235 units will commence July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, as stated in the attached renewal. Compensation under this contract including service for the periods stated will not exceed $12,825, a price I deem to be reasonable.

The auditory training equipment was purchased from Phonic Ear, Inc., and the company has successfully provided maintenance service for the past five years. They are the only company who has supplied this service effectively and immediately with trained technicians and have an inventory of parts on hand for the machines.

Because of the satisfactory services and the reasonable cost of these services, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising to Kurzweil Computer Products, 185 Albany Street, Cambridge, MA 02139, for furnishing maintenance service for a Kurzweil Reading Machine (Model 1 III KRM) located at the Beethoven School. The cost for this service for the period July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, will not exceed $2,520, a price I have determined to be reasonable.

This machine has been on loan from OSE and would cost the School Department more than $20,000 to purchase a new machine. For this reason, the supervisor of vision resources services (MaryJane Drinkwater) recommends that we continue the maintenance contract with the above-named company.

Since this equipment was furnished by the above-named company and they are the only company who can supply this service effectively and immediately with specially trained technicians; and have an inventory of parts on hand for these machines, I feel that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Lease of Space

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your Honor's permission is requested to award a contract without public advertising to W & T Associates, 39 Brighton Avenue, Allston, MA 02134, for furnishing 3,276 square feet of office space at 59 Temple Place, suites 222-223, for the Citywide Parents' Council.

The lease of these premises shall be in effect from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, at a cost not to exceed $29,484 which I deem to be reasonable.

This proposed lease is an extension of an existing lease for the same location. The Citywide Parents' Council, a court-ordered participant in Morgan versus McCluskey, 72-911-G, has been housed at this same location for at least four years and has found the location convenient and satisfactory for its purposes. The premises were made available only on the condition that a security deposit equal to one month's rent ($2,457) be paid. In view of the circumstances of this lease, the requirement of a deposit is reasonable.

Because of a scarcity of suitable, alternative locations, and because a relocation of the Council would be disruptive, it is my opinion that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Inasmuch as this equipment has over a period of years been leased from this firm and along with the fact that the equipment is tied in with their central station and is monitored on a full-time basis by them, the Wells Fargo Alarm Service is the only firm that can supply this service to the two school buildings covered by this proposed contract. In addition, this program operates in conjunction with the City of Boston, Public Facilities Department, Electronic Security Patrol.

It is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,

Paul W. Mooney,

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts, based on the following information:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT Purchasing Division Automotive Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On May 6, 1982, your Honor approved the award of contract No. 5376 to Natick Ford, 157 West Central Street, Natick, for the purchases of 50 marked cruisers to be delivered between June 1, 1983, through September 1, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $510,000. Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for special 100 Amp alternators which are needed to power the warning lights and sirens that were installed on these cruisers. It has been determined that the original 60 Amp alternators are not sufficient to handle the electrical draw generated. The additional cost is 3,200, which I have determined to be reasonable.

It is also requested to amend this contract to provide for installation of additional seating and windows in three vans included in the above contract. It has been determined that these changes are more conducive for the planned use of the vans. The additional cost is $2,514, which I consider to be reasonable.

Therefore, permission is requested to amend contract No. 5376, without public advertisement, to Natick Ford, 157 West Central Street, Natick, MA, in the amount of $5,714. — net, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent

Printing Section Printing

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 30, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a multi-vendor contract based on public advertising to various printing firms during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983 for work related to the printing trade at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract, No. 3214(83), due to the unanticipated increased use of the services under the terms and in the period of the original contract. The contractors have demonstrated excellent ability in providing the necessary printing services to the Printing Section. The cost of this amendment, which is effective on September 1, 1982, shall not exceed $50,000, which I have determined to be an appropriate amount. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $150,000.

Because these contractors are reputable and have served the City of Boston through its Printing Section, I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

My apologies for the tardiness of this request, however, I was unaware that an over-expenditure of compensation under the contract existed until after June 30, 1983.

Very truly yours,
Joseph C. Toto, SR.,
Superintendent of Printing.

ELDERLY AFFAIRS Professional Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On March 18, 1983, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids to Media Matrix Inc., 195 State Street, Boston for the production of a 20-minute Elderly Commission slide/tape presentation during the period March 9, 1983, to May 6, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $22,513.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for a 22-minute slide show and transfer to film. The Cost of this amendment, which is effective on May 6, 1983, shall not exceed $1,236, which I have deemed to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed 23,749.

Due to the unique nature of the goods and services to be received, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Rachel R. Lieberman,
Commissioner

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT Form Management

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract with UARCO, Inc., 49 Winchester Street, Newton Highlands, for the provision of form preparation and Management to the Department of Health and Hospitals, for the period July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $169,700.

This amendment shall increase the contract by $73,299.80, thereby increasing the city's liability under this contract, as so amended, to an amount not to exceed $243,000.

This amendment is necessary to cover the cost of additional forms, volumes that reach into the thousands, and also the large increase in the use of computer paper.

In view of the above and because the cost of this opinion is reasonable, I recommend approval of the contract amendment.

Very truly yours,
Lewis W. Pollack,
Commissioner

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT Glass Replacement

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am respectfully requesting your approval to amend the contract with National Plate and Window Glass Company, Inc. in the amount of $8,000. This amendment is necessary to replace the broken plate windows in the Brighton Branch Library. The last remaining three windows were broken in the month of May, 1983.

This window replacement for the Brighton Branch Library was originally bid on by National Plate and Window Glass Company, Inc., on September 19, 1982, by means of public advertisement. At that time, the Trustees of the Boston Public Library rejected the bid on the Brighton Branch Library to the large dollar cost for window replacement. The National Plate and Window Glass Company had submitted design for changes in April, 1983, where the Library Department was going to use these new window specifications in a contract during FY-84.

Now the Brighton Branch Library having three windows broken, there is no direct surcharge to the building, since every window is covered with wood. The Library Department cannot wait longer to replace these windows and believe it would be no advantage to rebidding these replacement windows, since the above mentioned contractor has proposed a cost that is lower than the original bid price for this Brighton Branch Library. (National was the low bidder of the original bid.)

The new cost of $9,250, in the opinion of the Library Department is both reasonable and effective, due to the design changes to be proposed by this contract amendment. For this amended contract is available currently in the Library Budget; under the 26 account (Library and Maintenance to Buildings).

mission of your Honor is hereby requested for amendment to the contract with National Plate Window Glass Company, Inc., in the amount of $10,000.

Respectfully,
Philip J. McNiff,
Director and Librarian.

Design Services

Mr. Mayor:

On January 21, 1983, your Honor approved the award of a contract without public advertising to Jackson Associates located at 21 Fort Avenue, Boston, for architectural design services for commercial property rehabilitation work under the Neighborhood Commercial Development Bank (NCDB) program.

Your approval is requested to further amend this contract with respect to compensation and period of performance to provide for a continuation of service so that ongoing projects may be brought to completion and several new projects may be undertaken. The contractor is currently working on several projects. A change in architects at this point would jeopardize the timely and economical completion of these projects. In addition, this contractor has previously provided work of such high quality at such a reasonable price that continuing this contractual relationship would be in the best interest of the NCDB program. Under the terms of this amendment, the contractor will continue to provide the following services: architectural design services, engineering services, graphic design services and construction supervision services.

The cost of this amendment, which I have determined to be reasonable for the services to be provided, shall not exceed $25,000, and the contractor will provide services at the same hourly rates as in the existing contract. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall not exceed $50,000. The termination date of this contract shall be extended from June 30, 1983, to June 30, 1984. This request has been delayed due to administrative oversight.

Due to the fact that a change of architects would delay and jeopardize ongoing projects and lead to increased costs and since the contractor will provide work on additional projects at the same reasonable hourly rates, it is my belief that public advertising would serve no useful purpose. I, therefore, request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Grogan,
Director.

OFFICE OF HOUSING Loan Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 21, 1983, an agreement was entered into between the City of Boston, acting through its Mayor's Office of Housing and the Shawmut Bank of Boston, which established an account in said bank for the disbursement of funds under The Deferred Loan Program.

Your approval is requested to amend this agreement by increasing the amount in the rehabilitation account from $150,000 to $259,000. The program has generated so much interest among the residents of the target area of Shirley-Dudley in Roxbury that additional funding is required to more effectively serve the needs of the neighborhood.

All other terms and conditions of the agreement shall remain in full force and effect. The total cost of the agreement, as amended, shall be $259,000.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Courtney,
Director.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT Temporary Personnel Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on May 19, 1983, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record and enter into an agreement with Technical Aid Corporation, 100 Wells Avenue, Newton (formerly 1264 Main Street, Waltham), amending a contract executed April 1, 1983, providing for temporary technical and clerical personnel for the period December 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $10,000 to $25,000, which is a reasonable cost.

Although this department originally budgeted $35,000 for this account, we issued a contract for the lower amount due to the system of encumbering the total amount for a contract when it is executed. Now as a result of the increased need for these services for recently approved capital improvement projects, we wish to amend the contract.

Due to the provision of the law that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by the parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT Refuse Disposal

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 20, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids to SCA Disposal Services of New England, Inc., 140 Brookline Avenue, Boston, for the disposal of refuse from various districts of Boston during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $941,949.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for the disposal of refuse which will exceed the estimated tonnage given at the time of execution of this contract. The cost of this amendment, which is effective on June 1, 1983, shall not exceed $80,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The contract, as amended, shall not exceed $1,021,949. The period of performance shall be to June 30, 1983.

Very truly yours,
Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT
Emergency Repairs

Your Honor:

On August 20, 1982, your Honor approved an award of a contract based on public advertising for bids. This contract is a repetitive service/multi-vendor contract for miscellaneous and/or emergency general contracting, air conditioning, electrical and plumbing repairs to buildings under the care and custody of the Buildings Division of the Real Property Department for the period of July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $125,000.

Your Honor's approval is requested to amend this contract. The cost of this amendment which is effective immediately upon your approval, shall not exceed $100,000. The contract as amended shall not exceed $225,000. The period of performance shall remain the same.

Due to the repeated outbreak of fire at South Boston District Court and vandalism at Dorchester Court in addition to numerous plumbing repairs related to heating units in many of our buildings much more emergency work was needed than originally anticipated.

I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,
Thomas J. Long, Jr.,
Assistant Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT
Preventive Maintenance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 26, 1982, your Honor approved the award of contract No. C-3095-83 for preventive maintenance for automatic temperature controls in various schools, publicly advertised for bids, to Barber-Colman Company, 605 Neponset Street, Canton, during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost of $230,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract by extending it for an additional year as provided in the general conditions. The cost of the amendment, which is effective on July 1, 1983, shall be $230,000, which I have determined to be reasonable. The total cost of this contract, as amended, shall be $460,000. It is anticipated that collective bargaining negotiations later in 1983 may necessitate an increase in the contract amount exactly equal to any increase in the mechanics wage rates. This provision is part of the option to extend in the present contract. The period of this contract shall be extended from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Paul W. Mooney,
Senior Structural Engineer.

Repetitive Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On October 29, 1982, your Honor approved the award of repetitive service contract C-3468-83 for general carpentry and related work, miscellaneous labor services, carpeting and floor coverings, locksmith work, glass and glass substitute work, window shades, stage curtains, and metal window guards, painting including sign painting, plastering, waterproofing, and masonry, roofing repairs and metal work in Boston public schools during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $710,000.

Your approval is requested to amend this contract to provide for additional necessary, and often emergency, work not anticipated in the estimated cost of the original contract.

The cost of the amendment to contract C-3468-83 shall not exceed $140,000. The contract as amended shall not exceed $850,000. The period of performance shall remain the same.

I have determined the cost of this amendment to be reasonable, and in keeping with the cost of similar repetitive service work.

Because the vendors now included in the contract are performing satisfactorily, I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Paul W. Mooney,
Senior Structural Engineer.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 24, 1982, your Honor approved the award of repetitive service contract C-3259 (83) for plumbing and gas fitting repairs and heating, air conditioning repairs, including burner repairs in Boston public schools during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $325,000.

Your approval is requested to amend the contract to provide for additional necessary, and often emergency, work not anticipated in the estimated cost of the original contract.

The cost of the amendment to contract C-3259 (83) shall not exceed $130,000. The contract as amended shall not exceed $455,000. The period of performance shall remain the same.

I have determined the cost of this amendment to be reasonable, and in keeping with the cost of similar repetitive service work.

Because the vendors now included in the contract are performing satisfactorily, I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Paul W. Mooney,
Senior Structural Engineer.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 24, 1982, your Honor approved the award of repetitive service contract C-3260 (83) for pest control and entomology service in Boston public schools during the period July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $35,000.

Your approval is requested to amend the contract to provide for additional necessary, and often emergency, services which were not anticipated in the estimated cost of the original contract.

The cost of the amendment to contract C-3260 (83) shall not exceed $8,000. The contract as amended shall not exceed $43,000. The period of performance shall remain the same.

I have determined the cost of this amendment to be reasonable, and in keeping with the cost of similar repetitive service work.

Because the vendors now included in the contract are performing satisfactorily, I believe that further public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Paul W. Mooney,
Senior Structural Engineer.

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

NO. 35

MAYOR ANNOUNCES DEVELOPMENT OF CROSTOWN INDUSTRIAL PARK

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced at a press conference, that after five years of being vacant, the Crosstown Industrial Park (CTIP) will be developed by two companies. Crosstown will become the new home of Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries, Inc. Goodwill's 130,000 square-foot headquarters will be constructed on 1.23 acres of land at the Crosstown's Parcel 2.

As part of the development plans, Mayor Flynn said the construction plans of the Abelman Company, a Boston-based, family-owned wholesale paint and supply firm, that plans to construct a 16,000 to 20,000 square foot distribution center on the remaining 1.23 acres.

The projects will create some 120 new jobs. Upon completion of the projects, 263 jobs will be retained and 100 new jobs will be created with the development.

An example set by the development of Crosstown Industrial Park, development can take place in other neighborhoods along with downtown expansion," Mayor Flynn said. "We cannot fully move forward until our neighborhoods also share in the benefits of prosperity," the Mayor added.

Crosstown Industrial Park, a joint development project of the Economic Development and Industrial Corporation (EDIC/Boston) and the Community Development Corporation of Boston, unfolded with a comprehensive package in 1978. Combining city and federal funds, EDIC and CDC purchased and cleared 7.5 acres of land to complement the existing property park, which now consists of 1.23 acres. The development parcels totaling 4.5 acres, includes a 62,000 square foot Digital manufacturing building, the Baltimore Brush Building and operated by CDC and Parcel 2 site of the press conference. Swartz Lloyd, director of EDIC said this parcel has been vacant for five years. The spirit for development in this neighborhood created by Mayor Flynn has made this project possible. He also thanked Congressman Donnelly who, she said, "was accessible and supportive in helping CDC obtain the needed federal funds to create Crosstown."

The design and construction of Goodwill Industries' headquarters building is expected to require three years, with occupancy planned for early 1987. Marvin E. Gilmore, Jr., general manager of CDC also added, "I am pleased to see that our efforts to bring development to Crosstown have finally become a reality. We can now prepare for Crosstown's second phase of development."

Goodwill's principle goal of providing rehabilitative services, training and employment for disabled people complements the city's employment efforts to provide jobs for all residents of Boston. Trainees at Goodwill Industries learn a variety of industrial skills for area firms, such as Digital, Gillette, and Teradyne. Goodwill also operates a rehabilitative program for youngsters at the Charles Hayden School in Dorchester, a hot lunch program for nearly 100 senior citizens in the neighborhood, and a summer camp for Boston children in Acton, Mass.

Resulting taxes to the city from the sale of Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries' six-story building at 95 Berkeley Street and a nearby warehouse at 140 East Berkeley Street are estimated at a quarter of a million dollars.

"Our new headquarters facility will be planned to meet our anticipated needs for the next twenty years," said David A. Fausch, Chairman of the Board, Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries, Inc. "It will be architecturally barrier-free, making it much easier for our clients and employees to receive training and to work. Our new headquarters will also include recreational facilities and meeting rooms that will be available to community groups."

The M. Abelman Company presently located in Jamaica Plain has been within the City of Boston since being established fifty-eight years ago. "Our future is within the confines of the city," Sumner J.S. Kessler, company president said, "We want to contribute to Boston's neighborhood development."

MAYOR APPOINTS DIRECTOR, CAPITAL PLANNING

Mayor Flynn has named Mary Nee, the Director of Capital Planning. Ms. Nee began working on July 9, 1984.

The Mayor made the following statement:

This office has been established to develop a long-range capital budget and to monitor ongoing capital improvement projects. The deteriorated conditions of far too many of Boston's streets, parks, bridges, and municipal buildings demands a comprehensive and carefully planned response from my administration. I am confident that Mary will bring to city government the experience and energy necessary to meet this challenge.

Ms. Nee has left a position as a senior budget analyst for the Massachusetts Senate Committee on Ways and Means where she was responsible for the preparation of budgets for five state agencies as well as being involved in policy research and financial analysis of legislation before the Committee. Prior to her work for the State Legislature, Mary worked for over eight years in social services agencies in Boston.

"I look forward to working with Ms. Nee in developing a capital improvement plan which will address the substantial backlog of infrastructure projects facing the City of Boston. Full cooperation is essential to the success of this effort."

MAYOR ESTABLISHES OFFICE OF CAPITAL PLANNING

The Office of Capital Planning (OCP), will address the outstanding need for the administration to coordinate the planning, financing and monitoring of capital projects. The establishment of OCP is intended to facilitate the development of an overall capital investment plan for Boston. OCP will not supplant the existing capital planning functions of city agencies, but rather will establish a process by which capital projects identified by individual city departments will be analyzed on a comparative basis. The city's ability to raise funds for capital projects, and the capital investment activities of the state and federal governments, as they pertain to Boston, will be assessed as well.

OCP will be a Mayoral agency. The Director of OCP will report to the Mayor. Critical to the success of a long-term Capital Planning Program for Boston is the clear articulation of Mayoral priorities and the city's Capital Investment Policy.

The development of a comprehensive capital plan for Boston will require substantial input and technical support from existing city agencies. Consultation and staff support will be sought from the Public Facilities Department and the Division of Administrative Services.

The major responsibilities of OCP will include:

- Compiling a comprehensive inventory of current and future capital projects.
- Establishment of procedures for the preparation of capital budgets, including a standardized budget format and data collection system for all city departments.
- Preparation of multi-year capital budgets to be issued annually, with planning horizons of five years.
- Coordination of loan orders submission procedures.
- Analyze the impact of proposed state and federal funding plans on Boston's capital projects.
- Establish a process for neighborhood involvement in the planning and implementation of Boston's Capital Program.
- Analyze the capacity of the Capital Improvements Program Management Information System (CIPMIS) to provide an interdepartmental data base for capital projects.

OCP began operations July 9, 1984.

ABCD LEARNING CENTER GIVES AWARDS

The new action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) Learning Center program recently held its first graduation and awards ceremony.

The ceremony at ABCD was held to award Certificates of Achievement to forty-four students who made significant progress or moved up in the Learning Center and to honor nineteen students who received a General Education Diploma (GED).

Opened in January 1984, the Learning Center quickly filled to capacity with low-income Boston youths and adults. Now in its second phase of development with some new plans for expansion and recruitment, the center is predicted to become a national model.

According to Executive Director Robert M. Coard, "The Learning Center offers a unique, integrated approach to education by providing clients with the means of building a career ladder. It is also an integral part of ABCD's large network of programs, including a variety of employment and training programs which Learning Center clients can move into."

The Learning Center uses a competency-based, individualized approach to learning, and a career-related curriculum. It administers two basic programs: "New Beginnings" for high school dropouts aged sixteen to twenty-one, and the Adult Literacy Initiative Program for clients aged sixteen and up. The programs contain several components including a General Education Diploma, an External Diploma, basic skills and post-secondary education. The post-secondary component is a recent addition, designed to prepare college-bound students for higher level courses. The Learning Center is a component of the ABCD Job Training Center.

This year, Learning Center staff members are formulating some new and exciting plans for the center, including a support group that will help to prepare clients for the workplace. Director Shirley Hall stresses the importance of this new component. "We've found it necessary to educate students in the workplace to ensure that they can survive and thrive on the job . . . and understanding of how organizations work is as important as the skills they learn to do the job," she said.

Also, Learning Center staff is conducting exciting in-house research this year, directed at understanding learning techniques. Research focuses on how people learn, and how learning techniques affect teaching methods.

ABCD is Boston's antipoverty agency and the largest human services agency in New England, with funding from a variety of sources totaling over $30 million annually. The agency is a private, not-for-profit corporation established in 1973 with the majority of board members elected from Boston's neighborhoods through the decentralized ABCD neighborhood network.

BOSTON'S FIRST BIKE RODEO

On Wednesday, August 8, the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Community Services, held its first "Bike Rodeo" at the Boston Harborside Community Center with youths from the school district taking part in the planned activities.

Consumer Affairs Commissioner Diane Modica stated, "The Bike Rodeo was designed to teach the children at the Harborside Day Camp, aged ten, about the proper maintenance and operation of their bicycles. I believe the children learned a great deal about bicycle safety and they had fun at the same time."

Bicycle safety was a major goal of the event that included bike inspections and demonstrations by professional and youth bicycle racers, sponsored by the Winthrop Cyclist Club. "Officer Friendly," Sgt. Dan and Cadet Jack McDonough of the Boston Police Department, were on hand to speak to the rodeo participants about bicycle riding rules. The presence of the Boston Area Bike Coalition and the 4-H Club also provided the youths with safety tips.

Through the efforts of the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing, each participating youth was provided with bicycle license plates and from the McDonald's Restaurant and informational comic featuring "Sprocket Man," produced by the Consumer Product Safety Commission. Refreshments were provided by the local McDonald's Restaurant and the East Boston Woolworth's Department Store supplied prizes for the children. Charles Young, of the B. Herrington Sporting Goods Chain, donated the T-Wing bicycle reflectors from the Boston Police Department.

Statistics compiled by the Consumer Product Safety Commission revealed that more than 530,000 people are seriously injured in bicycle accidents, 60 percent of these are children under the age of 14. Commissioner Modica said, "Clearly, this bike-riding age group is at risk in today's busy traffic. We believe children are confused, and they need to learn how to negotiate their bicycles in Boston neighborhoods."

The event was a success and shows that city agencies and private, volunteer groups join forces with the community, the public can benefit," Modica stated.

The Neighborhood Network News team will tape the event for presentation and it was televised on Thursday, August 9, 1984, at 5:30 and 9 p.m. on Channel 3.

BCH HAS CHRISTMAS IN AUGUST

With the help of Boston residents, the BCH will spread cheer this summer throughout the children's unit at Boston City Hospital. You can help by donating new toys to ABCD at 178 Tremont Street, Boston, or calling 357-1866 for information.

The BCH and WCVB-TV Channel 5 (Me-TV) are sponsoring the "Christmas in August" Toy Drive to benefit Boston City Hospital children's unit is sadly in need of toys for the thousands of children who are admitted there each year.

Walden, BCH spokeswoman said that any new toys are welcomed, particularly encourages donations of books, puzzles, games, dolls, and trucks, dolls, rattles, toys for infants, and drawing materials. Toys are requested for health care and pediatric staff also cited the need for slippers, mittens, and caps which they would save for next winter.

ABCD and WCVB-TV Channel 5 staff co-sponsor a toy drive every Christmas to benefit low-income residents of all of Boston's neighborhoods. Last year they presented one of the gifts they received, a large dollhouse, to Boston City Hospital and were impressed by the enthusiastic reception that greeted it and the obvious need for toys and furniture within the children's unit.

Boston City Hospital, which celebrates its 120th anniversary this year, provides a full range of health care services from neonatal through young adulthood and has a strong continuing commitment to the care of children. It is Boston's only public, acute care hospital and serves people from all of Boston's neighborhoods.

The public is urged to participate in this very worthy Toy Drive for the children's unit of BCH.

NEW P.O. BOXES AVAILABLE

Manager Frank Myett, of the J.W. McCormack Post Office in Downtown Boston, advises area customers that 2,250 new post office boxes are now available for rental.

Post office boxes are popular because they offer both convenience and privacy in receiving mail. The boxes are accessible Monday through Saturday, and when boxholders are out of town they do not have to make arrangements to have their mail held or to have someone check their mailboxes. They can rest assured their mail is secure at the post office.

A post office box provides customers with the best possible security at a very reasonable price. A small box, for example, rents for as low as $20 a year. Larger sizes are also available. Applications for immediate rental may be obtained at the box rental window, Milk Street entrance, at the J.W. McCormack Post Office and Courthouse, Milk and Devonshire Streets, Boston.

Notice

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Resident Section contract provision of the specifications for and the obligations of the contractor and subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices in the performance of this contract.

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is over $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority-owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the directory, he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

II. Workforce Requirements:

During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following workforce requirements (labor).

1. Minority Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 25 percent ratio of minority manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

2. Female Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 10 percent ratio of female employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade work on the contract.

4. The workforce requirements of paragraph (2), and (3) above shall apply to each trade appears on the list of "Classification and Minimum Wage Rates" as determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries under the provisions of chapter 149, sections 26 through 27G, of the General Laws of Massachusetts, as amended. If you have any questions pertaining to the application of these requirements, please call the Compliance Office at 720-4300.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

The contractor's attention is called to the "Affirmative Action Clause" and "Standard Federal Acquisition Regulation Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation are expressed in percentage of the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area (pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

These goals are applicable to all the construction work (whether or not it is federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

As used in the notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Woburn, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, and the Islands of Boston Harbor.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Affirmative Action Clause, specific affirmative actions required to meet the goals established in the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade. The contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each object of the contract.

The transfer of minority or female employees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals shall be measured against the total workhours performed.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subcontractors), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and requirements of mandatory compliance with the provisions of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246.

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

MAYOR OF BOSTON

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1984

NO. 36

LABOR DAY SEPTEMBER 3, 1984

IS A LABOR OF LOVE TO LABOR FOR THOSE YOU LOVE

LABOR DAY

In honor of the wage earners of the Nation, the United States and Canada have aside the first Monday in September as Labor Day, a legal holiday. The observance of this day emanated from an annual parade in New York City by the Knights of Labor on September 5, in the 1880's.

Oregon, in 1887, was the first state to recognize Labor Day as a legal holiday, and other states quickly followed. On June 28, 1894, Congress passed a bill making Labor Day a national holiday. All the states in the Union now observe Labor Day as a legal holiday.

MAYOR ORDERS MANAGING ATTENDANCE PROGRAM COMPLIANCE

A directive to department heads and personnel officers from Francis J. Doyle, Supervisor of Personnel, stressed the importance of strict compliance with Mayor Flynn's Managing Attendance Program.

The directive follows:

As you know, we are all under serious fiscal restraints in FY85 due to the necessitated 5 percent budget reductions. At the same time, however, Mayor Flynn has promised the public, and demanded of us, increased service delivery and tighter management controls.

A critical factor in achieving these goals is the strict and proper management of our work force. Responsibility and accountability for working hours and productivity during those working hours must be documented daily and accurate records must be kept for all employees. As managers and supervisors, it is our responsibility to ensure that employees are supervised as to hours of work and productivity, particularly employees in field operations. Whether the employee is part time, thirty-five hours full time, or forty hours full time, depending on the terms of employment, the taxpayers of this city demand and deserve an hour's work for an hour's pay.

Each department head is responsible for certifying the payrolls and signing under the penalty of perjury that the employee actually performed duties required by the position for the hours stipulated on the payroll and authorized adjustment to work hours. Managers and supervisors are usually delegated the task of ensuring adherence to establish work schedules and sign or initial the payrolls or time sheets.

In order to reach the Mayor's goals, the City of Boston has been and will continue to put in practice the Managing Attendance Program (MAP) in all departments for all employees (with the exception of some uniformed officers). The Mayor has asked the Supervisor of Personnel to improve upon the reduction of absenteeism that has resulted from the MAP to date. The principle goal of the program is to reduce absenteeism not to restrict or eliminate the legitimate use of sick leave benefits.

All departments must ensure the following documentation of time and attendance practice:

- Daily timesheet with employee signing in and out upon arrival and departure
- Day at a glance calendars
- Absentee and lateness reports

In order to ensure uniform application of the program, the Personnel Division will be holding seminars for department heads, personnel officers and supervisors to train new employees and refresh longstanding employees.

The task of training all managers would, of course, be a lengthy one should Personnel attempt to do so on its own. I would, therefore, request that each department head assign a deputy to assist in this task. It is recommended that in our larger departments, Personnel would train the top-level managers and personnel officers and then allow those managers and officers to train their supervisors.

Please notify me as soon as possible as to whom you have designated to be the "point person" in your department. I will then have Mr. Frank Holbrook, training coordinator, Personnel Division, work with the designee to set up the quickest and most effective training schedule for your department.

In conclusion, your cooperation is requested to ensure achievement of the Mayor's commitment to improve the delivery of services through the effective implementation of the Managing Attendance Program.

MAYOR REOPENS ELLIS BUILDING

The Ellis Building, a large Broadway commercial property, South Boston landmark, was reopened by Mayor Raymond L. Flynn at cutting ceremonies held recently. Owned by Fred and Robert Gordon, City Development Corporation, the Building has been completely renovated over the last ten months by the city's Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency (NDEA). The 40,000-square-foot building is located in the heart of South Boston, West Broadway commercial district. It includes businesses ranging from a photography studio and an architectural firm to a civic organization and health spa. The majority of the building is already leased.

Mayor Flynn commented, "Ten years ago, this building contained only a few tenants and the upper floors were totally vacant. Today, thanks to the efforts of the Gordon brothers, and NDEA, the Ellis Building has eleven tenants and is once again a center of activity in Boston."

Total costs of the Ellis Building renovation are $540,000. Financing for the project has been provided by NDEA's Neighborhood Commercial Development Bank and the Mutual Bank of Boston, N.A., and the owners. By participating in the Neighborhood Commercial Development Bank, the owners were able to receive a $317,000 construction loan. Two-thirds of the prime interest on the loan was also received free, through marketing, and architectural assistance from NDEA.

Paul Grogan, director of NDEA, said, "Not only are the new owners of the Ellis Building providing important goods and services to the residents of South Boston, they have also created thirty-five permanent jobs. In addition, fifteen local residents were hired by the Boston Job Exchange to assist in construction to renovate the building."

Mayor Flynn added, "The Ellis Building is already acting as a catalyst in further development along West Broadway. This action is committed to undertaking

BUILD FOR THE FUTURE WITH U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

mercial renovation projects in Boston and throughout the city. The benefits to our neighborhoods — jobs and increased economic activity — are so positive."

Completed NDEA Commercial Disrepair Program projects on West Broadway include Lyons On Broadway (a saloon), South Boston Storage, Bargain Box. Last fall, NDEA funded extensive capital improvements along West Broadway, including concrete sidewalks, new benches, and trash barrels.

WAITERS AND WAITRESSES VIE FOR PRIZES

Teams of Boston's waiters and waitresses will race with loaded trays for prizes at Waterfront Park on Sunday, September 16, in Boston's annual Finlandia Vodka Waiters Benefit Camp Joy, the city's pro-summer camps for special children and adults.

Beginning at 2 p.m., contestants will carry trays of water-filled plastic cups over a quarter-mile course and through the park. They are informed in advance that roller skates, sunglasses or other such aids are not allowed. They will be provided with water-filled cups — as in the Boston Marathon — showing the names of their waiters. Running in heats, the entrants will fill their glasses with water from Finlandia Vodka bottles and start at the starting signal. If any entrant falls off a tray during the race, the entrant has to stop and put them back before continuing. The awards ceremony will follow the men's and women's finals, in which the winner of each race will compete.

And "the workingman's answer to the Boston Marathon," the race is organized by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department and Finlandia. Finlandia first introduced its "Camp Joy" race "in appreciation of Boston waiters, waitresses and bartenders who have helped make Greater Boston America's fastest-growing city." Posters and entry forms for the race are now being displayed in employee areas of restaurants throughout Greater Boston. Entrants are required to pre-register although they may register between 1 and 2 p.m. on race day if the field still has openings.

Prizes for "the most fleet feet" include $250 to the first man and $250 to the first woman to cross the "Finnish" line, $150 each to the second-place man and woman, $100 each for third place, and Finlandia caps for all contestants.

Prize money comes from the $5 entry fees to the Parks Department's Camp Joy. Finlandia Vodka also makes a contribution to the Camp Joy recreation program.

Patrons of Boston's restaurants are invited to Waterfront Park on Sunday, September 16, to root for their favorite waiters, waitresses, and bartenders and so are supporters of Camp Joy, devotees of Waterfront Park, and lovers of totally unpredictable races.

ABCD EXPANDS GRANDPARENT PROGRAM

ABCD's Foster Grandparent Program, the largest in Massachusetts, will now receive $18,750 in state funds to expand its program. The Commonwealth recently appropriated $150,000 of the 1985 state budget for the expansion of the Foster Grandparent and Senior Companion Programs statewide. The additional funds will cover the cost of forty-eight more grandparents throughout the state, where, at present, 495 Foster Grandparents work with more than 1,300 children. Primary funding for the programs comes from the federal agency, ACTION, with some private donations.

At ABCD, the state allocation will allow the agency to add six more Foster Grandparents to the 101 who currently work with special needs children in day care centers, schools, hospitals, and battered women's shelters. The Foster Grandparents low-income citizens over age sixty, volunteer twenty hours per week to work on a one-to-one basis with selected children. In return, they receive a $40 per week stipend, transportation costs, and other benefits such as a hot lunch, annual physical, and health insurance.

Robert M. Coard, ABCD executive director, said: "ABCD is delighted at the support demonstrated by the State Legislature and Governor Dukakis for the Foster Grandparent and Senior Companion Programs. The state supplement means a great deal to these programs which meet the needs of elderly citizens and children in such a unique and mutually beneficial way. It is most certainly an extremely cost-effective program."

Edith Stein, director of the ABCD Foster Grandparent Program added: "Congratulations are due to the Foster Grandparent and the Senior Companion projects in Massachusetts for the wonderful work they did to guarantee that we received these monies. We hope that in 1986 the $150,000 will be increased to $300,000 so that we can continue to expand."

Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) is Boston's antipoverty agency and the largest human services agency in New England, with funding from a variety of sources totaling over $30 million annually. The agency is a private, nonprofit corporation established in 1962, with the majority of board members elected from Boston's neighborhoods through the decentralized ABCD neighborhood network. ABCD programs include Fuel Assistance, Foster Grandparents, Head Start, Day Care, Adult and Youth Employment Program, a tuition-free, accredited college administered in conjunction with area colleges and universities, Health Services, Community Services, and others.

VISIT THE MASSACHUSETTS ARCHIVES

The Massachusetts Archives is responsible for the custody, preservation and management of important non-current records of the Commonwealth. Its holdings include the Massachusetts Archives (a series of 328 volumes of colonial papers), an outstanding collection of documents including: Executive Orders and Proclamations; administrative records of many state agencies; constitutional papers; and a wide assortment of treaties, charters, and maps, some dating back to the earliest settlement period.

While the holdings do not circulate, the archives encourages on-site research. Staff members are available to help patrons with their work in the Research Room and by mail and phone.

Historians, researchers, genealogists, authors and students are invited to use the Archives Research Room. Here, one can visit the past — discover ancestors, trace the roads of a town as they were 200 years ago, examine the returns of the election of 1912, research all kinds of data from the rich array of documents held by the archives.

The Archives Museum welcomes visitors and is included in the daily tours given by the Tours Division of the Department of the State Secretary. A collection of unique historic documents and artifacts are on display, including the original Charter of the Massachusetts Bay Company, dated 1629.

ELIGIBLE HUB RESIDENTS TO RECEIVE SURPLUS FOOD

From September 10 through September 21, Action for Boston Community Development will distribute free surplus food products to low-income households in each of Boston's neighborhoods. ABCD coordinates the Surplus Food Program in Boston through its neighborhood network of Area Planning Action Councils (APACs), Neighborhood Service Centers (NSCs), and other community-based agencies and organizations.

Eligible Boston residents must pick up food in their own neighborhoods as designated on their pre-registration card.

Boston residents who have pre-registered, and who carry an eligibility card issued by the ABCD Surplus Food Program, will find that their cards expedite the pick-up process. If you have a card, you don't need to bring other papers — simply sign your name and address to receive the food. Your card will provide proof of eligibility for all distributions during the following year.

ABCD Executive Director Robert M. Coard urges eligible Boston residents to pre-register for future distribution. "With a program that distributes commodities to over 60,000, low-income households over a very short time period, a pre-registration process is essential," he said. "Obtaining an eligibility card, good for an entire year, will reduce waiting time and make the process easier for all involved."

The amount of butter, cheese, and honey distributed is determined by family size. You should bring bags or containers for the food. For more information, people may contact ABCD's Surplus Food Program hotline at 357-5447.

ABCD, through its neighborhood offices, distributes the food products to eligible Boston residents only. The Surplus Food Program, a federally funded distribution, is operated statewide through the Massachusetts Department of Education.

Notice

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Resident Section contract provision of the specifications for and the obligations of the contractor and subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices in the performances of this contract.

Attention to All Bidders

I. Minority Business Requirements:

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Minority Participation section of this contract, the general contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise, if the bid is over $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business in which at least 51 percent of the beneficial ownership and control is held by one or more minority persons (Black, Hispanic, Asian-American, or American Indian).

Each general contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. The Minority Business Utilization Form shall be completed and signed by the Minority Business Enterprise and the general contractor. Failure to submit a Minority Business Utilization Form with the bid proposal will result in the rejection of the bid.

The City of Boston Minority Business Directory lists all minority-owned businesses that have been certified as such by the City of Boston. A copy of this directory can be obtained from the Awarding Authority or the Minority Business Office, 15 Beacon Street, fifth floor, Boston, MA 02108, telephone number 720-4300. If a contractor wishes to use a minority business that is not listed in the Directory, he must contact the Minority Business Office to obtain a copy and submit with his bid, a Minority Business Identification Statement. The dollar amount obligated to a non-certified (City of Boston) minority business will not count towards the minority business percentage requirements.

II. Workforce Requirements:

During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following workforce requirements (labor).

1. Minority Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 25 percent ratio of minority manhours to total employee manhours in each trade worked on the contract.

2. Female Workforce: The contractor and its subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 10 percent ratio of female employee manhours to total employee manhours in each trade work on the contract.

If the contractor has any questions pertaining to the application of these requirements, please call the Commissioner of Labor and Industries at 720-4300.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

The contractor's attention is called to the "Affirmative Action Clause" and "Standard Federal Acquisition Regulation Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority participation, expressed in percentages, for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area, are set forth on pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

These goals are applicable to all the construction work (whether or not it is federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

As used in the notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Woburn, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The hours of minority and female employees and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade. The contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each contract.

The transfer of minority or female employees from contractor to contractor on a project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the regulations shall be measured against the total workhours of the contractor.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (and subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and the requirements of mandatory compliance with the provisions of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246.

NO. 37

FINCOM CITES FLYNN ADMINISTRATION CONTRACTING PROCEDURES

Boston Finance Commission released its report on City of Boston contracting procedures, and termed the Flynn Administration's efforts in this area as "able and encouraging" improvement. Citing statistics which show that in 1984, 71 percent of all unadvertised contracts were late in their submission, FINCOM noted, that under the Flynn Administration, late submissions had decreased by 34 percent. Further, the average number of days in contract delays has decreased by more than half (from forty-five days down to twenty).

City Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, upon reviewing the FINCOM report, said he was pleased that FINCOM has recognized the improvements which this administration has instituted. We must make city government as cost-effective as it is efficient and the efficient management of city contracts is an important part of our program. The reforms in city contracting procedures will continue under my administration in the months to come."

Boston Finance Commission studied contracting procedures in eight city departments: Administrative Services; Neighborhood Development and Employment; Public Works; Collector-Treasurer; Public Facilities; Assessing; Schools. The report gave high marks for the contracting procedures used in Administrative Services and Public Works Departments and NDEA, while for other departments were generally favorable as compared to reports in the past. FINCOM also made seven specific recommendations, ranging from the increased tracking of all contracts, to an increase in the bid limit of unadvertised contracts (currently $2,000 — an amount unchanged since 1890). In nearly all instances, the Flynn Administration has had improvements in the planning or implementation stages — reforms made in advance of the study.

In its evaluation of the Administrative Services Department, FINCOM noted "noteworthy" performance improvement had taken place and added that the Administrative Services Department is comprised of a number of components, and each of them has performed better than in past years." FINCOM gave special praise for the Public Works Department, observing that PWD has been a good performer in terms of contract compliance." Public Works Commissioner Joseph Casazza was described in the report as "careful in awarding contracts . . . and does everything possible to prevent even the appearance of impropriety."

In the report's Conclusions and Recommendations section, FINCOM called for "checks and balances" to prevent future contracting problems and concluded that the Finance Commission is encouraged by the efforts of the Flynn Administration.

FANEUIL HALL 158TH ANNIVERSARY

Faneuil Hall Marketplace, one of Boston's favorite locations for celebrations and events, recently marked its 158th anniversary with a spectacular celebration.

The celebration, billed as "A Salute to Boston's Neighborhoods," was an outdoor showcase for a varied array of activities began on Saturday, August 25, with an 11:30 a.m. opening ceremony, including the building of a mammoth anniversary cake in the shape of Boston's neighborhoods. The cake building was at 9:30 a.m., and the cake cutting, with slices for all Marketplace visitors, was at noon.

One special event was the launching of a magnificent hot air balloon. It filled most of the upper West End of the Marketplace! Peter Faneuil, an original founding father of the Marketplace (also known as Dr. Clayton Thomas, director of the Balloon School of Massachusetts) accompanied two winners at the drawing for this dramatic exit from the Marketplace.

Throughout the weekend, performances to satisfy the most diverse audiences were held, including shows by the Banjo Express, the Northeast Navy Band, On the Spot Revue, Country Scottish Dancers, the Montvale School of Gymnastics, and, of course, a Street Performers Extravaganza featuring the best street artists the Marketplace has to offer.

The gem of Boston, as the Marketplace has been referred to by visitors and Bostonians alike, was gaily dressed for the occasion.

NORTH STATION TO REOPEN

The MBTA Board of Directors recently approved a $6.4-million, insurance settlement covering the damage caused by the six-alarm fire at North Station on January 20, 1984. The blaze destroyed a key railroad trestle on the MBTA's northern commuter route, forcing some 12,000 passengers to use alternative connections to North Station.

"Negotiations with the insurance firm of Birmingham-Lexington began the day after the blaze," said MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary. "Those negotiations have now been concluded successfully with a $5.7-million payment for actual damages and $663,000 payment for clean up costs at North Station."

Reconstruction work began last June on the 40,000 square-foot trestle, which is being completely rebuilt. Two drawspans, unaffected by the fire, will be sandblasted, cleaned, and repainted. In addition, plans call for the installation of five new platforms, ten tracks and modern canopies at the new North Station.

North Station is scheduled to reopen next spring.

MBTA GETS IMPROVEMENTS GRANT

Ralph Stanley, administrator of the federal Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA), announced grants totaling more than $44 million for the replacement of track on the Green Line, modernization of three Red Line stations, and other projects.

The grants include $10 million for track replacement and roadbed improvements in the old central subway between Boylston Street and North Station; $23 million to modernize the Central Square, Park and Washington Stations on the Red Line; $11 million for improvements on the MBTA Commuter Rail Franklin, Eastern and New Hampshire branches; and $800,000 to the Metropolitan Area Planning Council for transportation studies.

Federal Administrator Stanley said at a news conference at Government Center "It is a commitment not only to improve America's transportation infrastructure but to help increase permanent private sector jobs for Americans. These MBTA projects will provide approximately 500 new construction jobs in the Boston area."

MBTA General Manager James F. O'Leary expressed his appreciation for the federal support calling it "a significant investment by the federal government in the future of mass transit in the Boston region." O'Leary added, "These track and station improvements combined with the federally funded purchase of new cars and other ongoing efforts will, in the very near future, have a positive effect on service for Green and Red Line riders," O'Leary added.

MBTA intends over the next two years to replace more than 14,000 linear feet of track in the tunnel between Boylston Station and North Station, which was built in the 1890s and is the oldest section of the Boston subway system. In addition, the roadbed, signal system, ventilation shafts and fan rooms will all be replaced or rehabilitated.

The UMTA grant for $10 million covers the first stage of the Green Line track replacement program, which is scheduled to begin in November and last two years. The federal funds total 75 percent of the cost of the work, which includes: Park Street Inner Loop (November, 1984 to April, 1985); Boylston to Government Center (April, 1985, to January, 1986); Government Center to North Station (February, 1986, to September, 1986).

O'Leary said the track construction will be carried out between 9:30 p.m. and 5 a.m. in order to minimize disruption for Green Line riders.

Between 1986 and 1990, the MBTA plans to reconstruct the tracks to Lechmere and the rest of the Green Line central subway from Boylston out to the Commonwealth Avenue, Huntington Avenue, Beacon Street and Fenway portals.

"Once that work is finished, every inch of the Green Line track will have been replaced or refurbished," O'Leary said.

A second grant for $23 million will be used to lengthen the platforms and modernize the Red Line's Park, Central Square and Washington Street stations. Platforms at each of the stations will be lengthened to allow for six-car trains. Also included are new elevators and escalators for improved handicapped access, new public address systems, and better lighting.

All told, nine stations between Harvard and Andrew stations on the Red Line have been or will be modernized over the next two years at a cost of $80 million as part of the MBTA's comprehensive program to improve service on the line.

At the news conference, O'Leary credited U.S. Rep. Brian Donnelly (D.—

Mass.) with being the author of the legislation that gave UMTA the grants to forgive 80 percent of the two loans (granted previously) and to pay off the remainder if the Authority permits an equal amount of state funds for a public transportation project.

In addition, an $800,000 grant was awarded to the Metropolitan Area Planning Council. The funds will be used for growth, population, employment and operational planning related to transportation in the Greater Boston area.

A rate of $8 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

34, the Boston Common was set as common land for the citizens. It was used in those days for various activities including a training field for local militia, pasture grounds for cattle and owned by Bostonians, and as a speaking ground for the citizens to relay.

During KISDFAIR, much like the early days on the Common, cattle and sheep were grazing on the grounds. Militia were in full regalia on the drilling and fife and drum corps provided the colonial atmosphere as they moved throughout the park. Colonial crafts, stories and games in which children participated demonstrated how life was for youngsters living in colonial New England.

LOTTERY FUNDS FOR NEIGHBORHOOD ARTS

The City's Office of Business and Cultural Development is now giving out grants to Boston neighborhood arts groups in the amounts of $1,000 to $5,000. Funds are provided by the Massachusetts Arts Lottery, and will be distributed to nonprofit, neighborhood organizations for visual and performing arts programming by the Boston Arts Council.

Applications are available in Room 208, Boston City Hall, now until September 28, which is the deadline.

CHARITY SOFTBALL GAME TO BENEFIT CITY'S HOMELESS

Members of the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association co-sponsored a Charity Softball Game to benefit the homeless of the City of Boston. The game was also co-sponsored by the Office of the Archdiocese of Boston. Two opposing teams were composed of priests of the Archdiocese and police officers.

The game was held on Wednesday, September 29, 1984, at Town Field in the Corner section of Dorchester. Mayor Raymond L. Flynn agreed to pitch for the Police team and Bishop Bernard F. Law managed the Archdiocesan team.

The admission was $2, and all proceeds were donated for the homeless of the City of Boston.

The name of the Archdiocesan team is "The Law Men" and the Police team is called "The Real Law Men."

SUMMER YOUTH OLYMPICS FINALS

The final competitions for Mayor Raymond L. Flynn's Summer Youth Olympics were held at Roberto Clemente Field. Mayor Flynn was on hand to give the winners of the thirty events first, second and third place replicas of the Olympic Gold Medals.

Mayor Flynn said, "This is our first Youth Olympic Finals and the success of this year's program is tremendous which means we plan to do it next year as well. Nothing speaks better for racial harmony and bringing the city together than having kids from every neighborhood of Boston competing in good spirit and friendship. The preliminaries and the finals are a testament to this new spirit in Boston."

Three preliminaries preceded the final competition. The first took place in June in South Boston, the second in Jamaica Plain in July, and the third in Roxbury at Madison Park High School. Each preliminary competition brought kids together citywide, with different kids in each preliminary. More than 800 youngsters participated in this year's Summer Youth Olympics, and next year even more are expected to participate.

The participants were provided with picnic lunches which were donated by many private businesses, along with other donations for the competitions themselves. The organizers of this year's games included the Mayor's Office, the Boston Community Schools, Boston Parks and Recreation Department, Boston Police Patrolmen's Association, the Boston International Track Club, and the United States Olympic Committee.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the award of contracts without advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT Labor Negotiation Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:
I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Robert E. Holland, Esquire, located at 185 Ashburton Street, Boston.

Under the terms of the contract, Robert Holland will assist the city in negotiating various collective bargaining agreements. In addition to actually conducting labor negotiations, he will aid the city in planning and effectuating its labor goals.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $50,000, an amount I have determined to be reasonable for the work performed. Payment for services associated with this contract shall be billed to Account Number 1-01-47-290. The hourly rate shall be $75 per hour.

The terms of this contract shall be July 1, 1983, through and including June 30, 1984.

Since Mr. Holland is uniquely qualified to perform this work because of his familiarity with the city and its labor relations function, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Edward T. Sullivan,
Director.

Purchasing Division
Ballot Boxes

Dear Mr. Mayor:
The Purchasing Division has received a requisition from the Boston Election Commission to purchase fifty new ballot boxes for use in the upcoming elections. These boxes will replace those that are worn and in need of repair.

Since the Secretary of State's Office by law must provide the boxes, we have contacted his office and have been advised that only one company is presently making ballot boxes which meet their specifications.

Therefore, permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to S. Cross & Sons, Inc., Worcester, in the amount of $20,000, net, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Memory Boards

Dear Mr. Mayor:
Priority is requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Access International, 208 Union Wharf, Boston.

Over the last two weeks, the Assessing Department VAX computer has been beset by a variety of problems. Many of the problems have resulted from intensive wear and tear the system was subjected to during the recent revaluation effort.

One of the problems is threatening our ongoing preparations for the initial tax billing for Fiscal Year 84. Over the last two weeks, two of the computer memory boards have blown up. Our previous inquiries indicated that the manufacturer no longer services these memory boards.

Our requests for formal quotes resulted in the following information: Access International, $22,829, deliver four days; ABS Computer Systems, $21,340, delivery thirty days; Digital Equipment Corp., $22,829, delivery thirty days.

All quotes include installation and insurance. The critical need to acquire and install the memory as soon as possible makes Access International Inc. the logical choice for providing the memory board.

Therefore, permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Access International, 208 Union Wharf, Boston, in the amount of $22,829, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT Training Guidelines, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Linda Tomes, Meford, for professional services to be rendered to the Assessing Department.

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor shall develop in-house training guidelines for the associate commissioner of assessing with regards to the commercial, residential and condominium valuation processes. Ms. Tomes is uniquely qualified to perform these services because of her previous administrative experience with the valuation activities which existed at the Office of Property Equalization.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $7,686, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The contractor shall be paid at a rate of $84 per diem. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, through October 31, 1983.

Because of the professional nature of the work to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Edward W. Jay, Jr.,
Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Judith Franklin, 114 The Fenway, for professional services to be rendered to the Assessing Department.

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor shall design and provide a training program for the data collection of condominium values and develop procedures for final value overrides during field review. The contractor shall also refine and critique condominium models, statistically analyze FY '84 condominium values, and find areas for future enhancements. Ms. Franklin is uniquely qualified to provide these services as a result of her extensive background in statistical modeling both previous to and as a result of her work in this area with the Assessing Department.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $15,188, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The contractor shall be paid at a rate of $16.50 per hour. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, through December 31, 1983.

Because of the professional nature of the work to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Edward W. Jay, Jr.,
Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Sally Wade, 32 Mayflower Road, Chestnut Hill, for professional services to be rendered to the Assessing Department.

Under the terms of this contract, the contractor shall refine the development of the condominium modeling valuation system, develop and provide transitional training programs as required by the official, and prepare policies and procedures relevant to the condominium valuation process. Ms. Wade is uniquely qualified to perform these services as a result of the expertise she has developed in the valuation of condominium properties for the Assessing Department.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $28,795, which I have determined to be reasonable for the work to be performed. The contractor shall be paid at a rate of $106 per diem. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

Because of the professional nature of the work to be performed, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Edward W. Jay, Jr.,
Commissioner of Assessing.
